MONDAY EVENING.

Hummelstown, Pa., March 20.—One young man was drowned and a companion narrowly escaped a similar fate while skating on Imdoden's dam, about one mile north of town on Saturday afternoon.

Oscar E. Baker, aged 17 years, skated onto a channel where the ice had been only thinly frozen over and broke through. Glase Kinley, about the same age as Baker, went to his rescue, but the ice gave way and he also was thrown into the water. After a hard struggle Kinley reached the bank of the dam, but young Baker sank beneath the surface. Raymond Foltz. Harvey Hoerner and William Reigel secured a boat and a hook and finally recovered the body.

Coroner Jacob Eckinger investigated the case and decided an inquest unnecessary.

quipa, acording to a telegram received by General Gavira at Juarez to-day. He reports that Carranza troops are advancing from the south while the Americans are continuing their march from the north in an effort to close the net around the bandit.

After leaving El Valle, where he had abandoned thirty of his wounded, Villa turned directly west to San Miguel. Babricora, said Gavira, who explained that he had learned the Babricora, where Villa was reported yesterday was San Miguel Babricora and not the Babricora near the lake of that name, some miles further to the south of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst's ranch. San Miguel Babricora is about 20 miles west of El Valle. From that point Villa made a sudden twist and struck toward Namiquipa, 40 miles south.

occupy Casas Grandes nor any towns in Mexico.

The protest and reply were included in the exchange of notes between Acting Secretary Polk, of the State Department and Eliseo Arredondo, ambassador designate to the United States from Mexico.

After a conference early to-day between President Wilson and Mr. Polk in a note forwarded to Mexico yesterday said instructions had been sent to General Funston to keep his troops away from all towns.

Activities of Troops at Columbus Indicate That More Men Will Be Sent in

By Associated Press

Columbus, N. M., March 20.—Increased activity on the part of the troops stationed here and the arrival during the night of a number of military trains indicated to-day that additional forces shortly will be on their way to augment the punitive American expeditionary force now in the field in northern Mexico.

In addition to the troops which detrained here, a large part of which were cavalry, many passed through, bound, apparently, for some point westward along the border. Soldiers were kept busy throughout the day preparing combat and hospital trains and carrying equipment to the field force.

One of the problems which the commissary department at the military base has been striving desperately to
