

Smoked Cigarettes For 22 Years

Habit Was Ruining Him, But He Conquered It in Three Days, Easily.

The portrait below is that of Mr. P. J. Elvesta, a well-known citizen of Livingston, Montana, who knew that his life was being ruined through the pernicious habit of cigarette smoking...

A clergyman, Rev. M. Ross, Dayton, Ohio, testifies that after having been a slave to tobacco 22 years, he got rid of the habit entirely in a few days, greatly improving his health.

QUIT TOBACCO, GAINED 35 LBS. Everybody in Mangum, Okla., is talking about the big change in Al Reeves; he put on 35 lbs. in healthy flesh since getting rid of tobacco habit through the information gained in the free book which you may also easily obtain.

That he could never quit was the fear of George Ambush, Pearl street, Philadelphia, who was a slave of tobacco for many years, but after getting the book, he learned how the habit could be conquered in three days. Now he writes that he is forever free from the craving and is in much improved health.

BOOK GIVEN FREE. A valuable, interesting book on how to overcome the tobacco habit (in any form) has been written by Edw. J. Woods, 2211, Station E, New York, N. Y., and he will send it free to anyone who writes asking for it, as he is very anxious that all who are victims of the craving for tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes may save themselves easily, quickly, gently and lastingly. Eyes, heart, kidneys and stomach improved, nerves tranquilized, memory improved, vigor gained and numerous other benefits often reported.

WOMAN DRUGGED AND ABDUCTED IS FOUND IN WEST

Elvesta Dresler of Northumberland, Tells Story to Police of Jackson, Wis.

Special to the Telegraph. Jackson, Mich., March 21.—Elvesta Dresler, an attractive young woman who says she is 30 years of age, told the police here to-day that she had been drugged and carried from her home near Northumberland, Pa., during last November. She declares until three days ago she was in Canada with her abductors, when she escaped and came to this city. She wants to be sent home to her parents, who reside near Liverpool, Perry county, Pa., or to her husband, employed at the Keystone Forge near Northumberland.

Special to the Telegraph. Northumberland, Pa., March 21.—Word received to-day that Elvesta Dresler, who disappeared mysteriously from her home last November, had been found in Jackson, Mich., caused quite a stir here. The report that she had been drugged and abducted by two men, is believed here to be true. She is the wife of John Dresler, an iron-maker employed at the Keystone Forge Works near here.

The husband found his wife gone on his return from a hunting trip last Fall. Thinking she had gone to her parents at Liverpool, Perry county, he did not make any search until she failed to return home later. Inquiries brought the information that she had been seen with two strange men at Sunbury late in the evening.

Two days after her disappearance Dresler received a letter mailed at Buffalo, signed by his wife, and stating that she had been carried off by the two men who had given her something to drink, and she did not know anything until she reached Canada. The husband got in communication with Buffalo officials, but lost all further trace of his wife. To-day was the first he had heard from her since she disappeared. He will endeavor to get in touch with the western authorities at once and arrange to have his wife sent home.

Nevin West, Philadelphia. The spectacular end of the convention is set for one of the latter days of the conference when the thousands of Endeavorers will form a procession and march to Reservoir park for luncheon. Excursions to Gettysburg, Hershey and Paxtang parks have been planned for July 15.

As to Harrisburg. In addition to a general resume of the conference plans the first bulletin contains a lot of interesting data as to the history of the Christian Endeavor movement and a wealth of historical facts and figures about Harrisburg, its early years, and the significance of its location in the history of Pennsylvania.

Among other things the bulletin points out the remarkable increase in the growth of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Union. During the past 18 years the local union has increased from 30 to 64 societies. Since 1914 three county and twelve local unions have been organized and local societies have been formed at the rate of three a week.

What They Should Know. Dauphin county boasts of the largest Union in the State, its membership comprising 112 societies. How, by whom and when Harrisburg was settled, its situation on the banks of the Susquehanna, its picturesque history, its natural beauties, its wonderful civic improvements; its place in the world as a railroad and commercial center, and some facts and figures about the $12,000,000 capitol of Pennsylvania are all explained in detail in the bulletin for the information of the delegates and other visitors.

General C. E. Committee Works on Further Plans

The general committee for the State Christian Endeavor Convention held a meeting at C. E. headquarters, Harrisburg National Bank building, last evening. Arrangements will be made for excellent seating capacity in the Chestnut street hall, where the main sessions will be held July 11-14. Ladies and gentlemen will serve as ushers under the direction of Charles S. Meek, chairman.

The Market Street Baptist Society served the luncheon to the general convention committee last evening. Many Endeavorers are contributing toward the expense of the convention on the basis of one dollar per member. A number of societies have already raised a part of their money. The registration fee for Senior society members is one dollar. Each member registering will be given a copy of the Rodehaver song book, which will be used in the convention, and a copy of the convention program, badge and card of admission to the hall.

A registration fee of twenty-five cents will be required of Junior members, for whom separate, but none the

SHIREMANSTOWN MAY SOON HAVE NEW SILK MILL

Meeting Will Be Held This Evening to Discuss Plans With Harrisburg Man

Special to the Telegraph. Shiremanstown, Pa., March 21.—Plans for the establishing of a silk mill on a plot of ground owned by John F. Rupp here will be discussed at a meeting in Shiremanstown this evening.

Several weeks ago, so the story goes, C. H. Sorge, now employed at the Harrisburg Silk Mill, made inquiries here regarding the location of land which could be used for mill purposes. The inquirer was referred to Mr. Rupp. It was understood that the plan was to have the residents of the town subscribe a certain amount of money, said to be $5,000.

Mr. Rupp called a meeting of the citizens of the town recently and at that time a committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Sorge this evening. The committee is composed of Mr. Rupp, J. B. Fry, L. C. Wertz, William H. Brinton, S. S. Rupp, J. Maurice Miller, W. E. Howry and F. E. Weaver. Two weeks ago John F. Rupp, Mr. Fry, S. S. Rupp and Mr. Howry conferred with officials of the company arranged for the meeting this evening in Shiremanstown. The session will be held in the council chamber.

Shiremanstown is without any industrial establishments and residents of the town are anxious to have a mill or factory in the borough. At present there are about thirty-five girls, who live in the town, who go to Mechanicsburg or Harrisburg to work and there are quite a number of others who would work if there was a plant in the town at which they could be employed. Shiremanstown is in the center of a good county district, and quite a large amount of labor can be secured in adjacent territory.

Officials of the Harrisburg Silk Mill to-day denied that the proposed mill in Shiremanstown would have any connection with the local concern.

less interesting meetings will be provided. All societies are urged to report to the chairman of finance committee, Prof. J. J. Brehm, what they are doing, if they have not already made such a report.

THE MILLER TRIO GIVES AN INTERESTING CONCERT Three young girls, sisters, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Miller, of Erie, former Harrisburgers, comprise the "Miller Trio" which gave a pleasant concert last evening at the Fifth Street Methodist Church. Miss Marie Miller, harpist, is a pupil of Salzedo, of the Metropolitan company, who considers her a most promising pupil. Miss Winifred Miller, cellist, has studied with Goerner, of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, Ohio, and her cello is a valuable old French instrument made by Nicolas Lapotton, which she plays with remarkable ease and facility. Miss Dorothy Miller, violinist, is a pupil of Salzedo, concert master of the Russian Symphony Orchestra of New York and one of the leading young violinists of this country. The assisting artist of the concert was Thompson Martin, tenor, of this city. Mr. Martin was in excellent voice and his songs, chosen from the classics, were given deep, intelligent interpretation and richness of tone. He was assisted by Miss Violette Cassel at the piano.
