VICK'S VAPORUB SALVE

Rev. R. W. Runyan, pastor of the St. Paul's Church, Harrisburg, had been transferred to the Flemington Church, and the Rev. William Moses, of that place, to the Harrisburg charge. Eighty changes in pastorates in the conference districts were made by the presiding bishop. The Rev. J. V. Adams, of the New Cumberland Church, was sent to Milton, and the Rev. T. S. Wilcox, of Mt. Union, will succeed the Rev. Mr. Adams. The Rev. J. Ellis Bell, of Chambersburg, was transferred to Berwick, and the Rev. J. H. Ake will succeed him at Chambersburg.

The Rev. Mr. Moses, has been in charge at Flemington for three years, and the Rev. Mr. Wilcox, at Mt. Union for two years. No other changes were made in churches near Harrisburg. Conference adjourned after the list of appointments had been made.

lial favoring bishops for races and languages was passed by a vote of 144 to 25. The Rev. J. E. Skillington announced that Hazleton would present an invitation to the conference next year. The missionary sermon will be made a part of the program of a morning session of next conference.

At 11 o'clock the city ministerium was introduced, Dr. Vanormer of the Second Lutheran Church, delivered a brief address representing the body, and Bishop Burt responded briefly. Conference visitors were introduced.

The Mutual Beneficial Association held its business session yesterday after the secretary announced the election of the old board of officers. Five new members were announced, and a "Jubilee Year" will be celebrated in 1917.

committee, memorials to the general conference.

The afternoon session was closed with prayer by the Rev. Richard Hinkle, oldest member of the conference. Conference adapted a memorial to the general conference requesting such a change in the constitution as will provide that a Bishop may not appoint a pastor to one charge more than five consecutive years, nor more than five years in any ten consecutive years, except by a request of two-thirds of the conference present and voting.

Final Session
Last night the final sessions and anniversary of the Board of Conference Claimants and the Home Missionary Society of the Central Pennsylvania Conference were held. The Rev. J. Ellis Bell had charge of devotions. Dr. J. B. Houppley of Chicago delivered the address for the conference claimants.

A report from the board of stewards showed a total income for conference claimants of $28,340.20, and paid to 122 claimants $23,340.15. More than 97 per cent. of all claims were paid. The statistician presented his report which showed a total of $7,578 full members; 3,499 probationers; 5,768 nonresident members; 1,922 deaths, and $335,135 paid for total ministerial support. The Rev. E. E. Harter of Shickshinny delivered an address on home missions within the bounds of the conference. He was followed by W. A. Bouse of Tyrone.

next year with Dr. G. E. Boggs as alternate. P. T. Gorman was admitted on trial in the conference. G. A. Williams was elected statistician to succeed J. W. Long retiring. The treasurer, W. E. Watkins, presented the financial report of the committee. It showed $66,398 contributed for missions; total disciplinary collections, $127,788; grand total for all causes, $169,968.
