YOUNG FOLKS WED AT HAGERSTOWN TODAY

MR. AND MRS. A. ROY ORRIS

Miss Clara Elizabeth Eby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eby of Wormleysburg, and A. Roy Orris, son of George W. Orris, of 610 Peffer street, went to Hagerstown, Md., this morning, accompanied by the bride's father, and were quietly married there. The bride wore a dark blue cloth suit with hat to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Orris will make their home in Wormleysburg. The bride, who has a host of friends here, has been telephone operator for Bowman & Co. for some time. Mr. Orris is a young businessman of the city.

IRELAND FOREVER GUESTS ALL SAY

Paddy and His Pig and Wearing O' the Green Seen at Mrs. Zook's Party

Guests of Mrs. H. W. Zook at her home in North Bowman avenue, Camp Hill, enjoyed a real old-time St. Patrick's Day party.

As the mysterious invitations led the guests to imagine, Paddy and his pig were much in evidence during the afternoon. Rhymes on the word "Pig"; conundrums about Ireland and an "Irish Stew" provided outlets for the talent of the guests. Either for their genius or industry, prizes were awarded the successful contestants. These gifts, an emerald, papier mache pig candy box filled with mints and Ellis Parker Butler's "Pigs is Pigs" added to the general merriment.

But the most attractive and conspicuous as was the color scheme of green and white. Luxuriant ferns, asparagus, shamrocks and other greenery made the refreshment tables, with their white linen, most attractive. The menu, too, most effectively and deliciously carried out the St. Patrick's Day scheme.

Those invited to participate in this delightful event were Mrs. Cyrus W. Harding, Mrs. H. A. Gable, Mrs. W. C. Siegmund, Mrs. Caroline Schwarz, Mrs. Edward Stephenson, Mrs. Warren B. Keim, Mrs. D. Frank Young, Mrs. Howard W. Goodman, Mrs. Eloya A. Strode, Mrs. Fred C. Beecher, Mrs. T. E. Muncie, Mrs. Anna E. Kammerer, Mrs. Louis G. Fischer, Mrs. C. J. Bausher and Mrs. John C. Armstrong.

THE DERICKS ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE P. G. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Derick, of 2217 Jefferson street, entertained the members of the P. G. Club and their friends on Saturday evening, with Irish games, contests and songs. The winners of the contests were Miss Anne McClintock and Mrs. M. A. McClinton. The table and house decorations were green and white.

The guests included the Misses Anne Stoier, Mary Bechtel, Gwen Shakespeare, Elizabeth Stoier, Tracie Pitt, Sue Shakespeare, Anne McClintock, Josephine Pitt; Messrs. Melvin Dare, J. Rielly, Murray Henry, David Thomas, Phillip Bryan, John Stamm, Lloyd Pike, William Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman Dolbin, Mrs. Stine, Mr. and Mrs. E. Franklin Derick.

MISS ELIZABETH ELY ENTERTAINS SCHOOLMATES

Miss Elizabeth Ely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ely, of 307 North front street, entertained informally yesterday afternoon at her home for a few of her schoolmates. The guests spent a delightful time with games and a cleverly appointed luncheon in a color scheme of pink with cunning in animal favors bearing the guests' placecards in their mouths, was served. The guests included the Misses Eleanor Bailey, Louise Hickok, Gertrude Ely, Jane Ely, "Toby" Ely and Elizabeth Ely.

Mrs. Francis G. Eaton, of St. Louis, is spending some time with Mrs. James Fry Bullett, of Bellevue, during her visit in Harrisburg.

MISS HOUSER'S PARTY

The St. Patrick's Day party given by Miss Grace Houser, of 1517 Wallace street, was a delightful event, with vocal and instrumental music, contests and a late supper.

The guests were the Misses Christine Smith, Mary Ludwig, Ethel Bell, Mary Fasner, Irene Etter, Maile Brightbill, Eva Knoll, Margarite Reedy, Josephine Mushren, Caroline Houser, Manda Houser, Katherine Houser, Florence Houser, Esther Smith and Marie Gerhardt, Miss Weidenhammer, George Vott, Jack Shodt, Heister Culp, John Houser, Mack McCabe, George Greenwood, Frank Burt, Carl Peggley, Freddie Sunda, Joe Owens, Elmer Strohm, Alfred Schimler, Joe Brady, James Beideman, Charles Bernhardt and Hall Wolfe.

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain multifid coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

GOLDEN JUBILEE MISSION SOCIETY

Celebration Held by Philadelphia Branch of Foreign Missions in Grace Church

The quarterly meeting of the Philadelphia branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is announced for Wednesday, April 5, in the Grace Methodist Church of this city, of which the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox is pastor.

Civic Club Arranging For Outdoor Schools

Mrs. Harry G. Keffer, chairman, and Mrs. Meier G. Hilpert, vice-chairman, of the educational department of the Civic Club, announced at yesterday's monthly meeting that the popular outdoor schools in which children will be taught gardening will be held again this summer at the Susquehanna building grounds.

The outdoor schools will be held during the summer months beginning immediately after the close of the regular school term.

The board gives the school grounds and the use of the building, provides luncheon for the children and gives the services of the janitor. As the school ground is city property, Commissioner Lynch will have them graded and laid out in plots for vegetable growing. Seeds will be provided for the youngsters and prizes awarded for faithful and excellent work.

The municipal committee, and Miss Rachel Pollock, chairman, reported on the bad garbage system of the city, and the outdoor department, Miss Martha W. Buchler, chairman, Mrs. Edwin S. Herman, vice-chairman, will co-operate with the education department in summer gardens.

As club officers will be elected at the April meeting, Miss Helen E. Wallace and Miss Katharine Cox were appointed tellers of the nominations. The meeting closed with a talk by Mrs. Imogen Oakley, of Philadelphia, who spoke of the "City Nuisances, Noise and Smoke."

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING To-morrow is the day which the Charles F. Hoover Furniture Co., of 1415 North Second street has set aside for the free distribution of $1,000 worth of gifts, and a notable event it promises to be.

Originality is the most desirable menu requisite and the Studebaker Grocery Store, Second street, at the crossing of State, is the place for original ideas. For instance, they offer Johnson's Wheat Bran which makes the most delicious muffins especially when nuts are added.

For the First Spring Days For the first day of Spring, the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, is offering some very smart new pumps, and notable among these is a custom made pump just received which is developed in a soft, beautifully finished glazed kid.

The Vest Pocket Autographic One of the most convenient types of kodak is the vest pocket autographic sold by the Gorgas Drug Store, 16 North Third street. Penn Esmer Kodak combines the advantages of lightweight and convenient size, with excellent lens. Ball bearing shutter, metal construction, and brilliant reversible finder, so that it is possible to take the best and clearest pictures, while the autographic features make this kodak more useful than a notebook, for vacationists, builders and constructors' records, etc. This kodak sells for $6.00, though many other models are also shown.

Well-Prepared Any meal is good if well prepared, and the simplest meal is made out-of-the-ordinary by a few hot biscuits, muffins, or a well-baked cake. It is no trouble to prepare these things if the range in the kitchen has a good oven which bakes evenly, so that there is no fear of failure in the baking, and ranges which are noted for their excellence—and especially for their splendid ovens—such as the Penn Esmer and Penn Cabinet stoves sold by the Himes Hardware Store, 10 North Market Square, and some are specially equipped with oven indicators to show the exact temperature.

There is always not one place, but many places in the wardrobe of the well-dressed woman for a smart separate skirt, and the Astrich Store, Fourth and Market streets, not satisfied with having all sizes and prices in the conservative models, has added some beautiful skirts with the smartest features of the new mode. Pockets arranged in bouffant pannier effect at the sides, odd belt treatments, and novel flaps on the hips with contrasting stitching are little points which give distinction to several most attractive styles priced at $5.98 and $6.50, though some very stylish skirts are offered as low as $1.98.

WE are now prepared to serve family trade with ice cream of our own make.

Buy While Prices Are Down==

was the advice of John D. Rockefeller, to those who would emulate his success. Diamond prices are lower now—to-day—than they'll ever be in the future. They've never decreased in value, and England, controlling 98 per cent. of the diamond output withdrew her working capital from the mines with the beginning of the war. England, at the close of the war cannot at once resume extensive operations of the mines, owing to lack of capital. Diamond values must therefore increase. Diamonds purchased to-day will increase in value from 5 to 20 per cent. in the next few years. So certain am I of this, that every stone purchased during this One Month's Diamond Sale, I agree (in writing) to buy back in three or four years, if offered, and pay you full purchase price, plus the same interest your bank would pay you on the investment. You're actually being paid for having worn the diamond.

Our $20,000 stock of diamonds, purchased prior to the recent 10 per cent. increase in prices, offers you an unusual money-saving opportunity and a magnificent display from which to make your selection.

Prices Range From $50 to $400

Others As Low As $30.00.

Why It's Wise to Buy Diamonds Now

The world's demand far exceeds the supply and especially does this apply to fine color perfect stones of 1/2 carat or more. You will never be able to buy diamonds as cheaply as now, for another advance will go into effect in about two months. Our repurchase agreement is absolute protection for you.

P. O. of A. Is Arranging For Convention in May

The regular monthly business meeting of the Camp No. 48, P. O. of A., was held in Sible and Clark's hall, Third and Cumberland streets. This was a joint meeting of Camp No. 10 of Steelton, Camp No. 96, of Marysville, Camp No. 76, of Enhaut, and Camps Nos. 23 and 48 of Harrisburg.

Further plans for the convention to be held here in May were arranged and discussed. Among those decided on were a banquet and dance to be held in the Chestnut Street Auditorium, Wednesday and Thursday, May 17 and 18; the home talent play to be given by the members of Camp 96 of Marysville Tuesday, March 28, for the benefit of the convention funds and a masquerade and pie social to be given by Camp 10 or Steelton Saturday, April 8. The next meeting of the camps will be held Friday, March 31, at Camp No. 96 of Marysville.

No, I Can't Tell You

My, but I wish to-day was Thursday. Gee, but it's hard to keep a secret when everybody you meet says, "Susie, who is that only family that don't like SAVE-A-CENT?" Why at least a hundred youngsters have said, "Just whisper who it is, Susie, and I'll give you half my package of Wrigley's Spearmint Gum." Guess I could get all the chewing gum I'd need till I got as old as Methusalem (I guess that's how you spell it) if I would only give up the secret. But I won't. Remember, anyone who guesses right gets told how to get a package of Wrigley's Spearmint Gum without taking a single cent out of their bank. The name of that family isn't Smith. It isn't Jones. It isn't Brown. The Dad's name is Billy. The ma's name is No, I won't tell you till Thursday. Yours sincerely, SUSIE SMART.
