Lykens School Loan Carried by Overwhelming Majority

Special to the Telegraph
Lykens, Pa., March 22.—Voters of Lykens at a special election yesterday decided with a majority of more than seven to one, to increase the indebtedness of the school district $20,000 for the purpose of completing the high school building.

This loan will permit the borough board of education to remodel the building this summer, instead of doing the work over a period of several years from the finances of the board, and will mean a possible reduction of the school tax rate of six or seven mills for many years to come. Repair work would have been compulsory at any rate, as the building as it now stands, does not conform to the State laws.

The total vote cast was 332, with only 42 against the loan. In the East ward there were 100 votes for the loan and 12 against; in the West ward 190 for and 30 against.

Throws Away Her Cane, She Does Not Need It, Because Quaker Herb Extract Helped Her

The power of that most wonderful remedy, Quaker Herb Extract, continues to do the work in a most remarkable manner. Hardly does the enthusiasm of one great result subside when another report is received even more extraordinary than previous ones. There is no doubt that by this every fair-minded person in Harrisburg has been completely convinced that the Quaker remedies are trustworthy, effective and curative. Wonderful results in cases of rheumatism, catarrh and stomach troubles have been received from men, women and children. They all come forward and cheerfully recommend Quaker Herby Extract. Miss Matilda Evers who represents the Sweetheart Candy Co., said: "I came here suffering with a severe case of rheumatism in my left knee and ankle. My pains at times were simply awful and I spent many a sleepless night in a rocking chair as I simply could not rest and the only relief I could get was to move my limbs continually from one position to another. To be able to move around at all I required the aid of a stout heavy cane. Finally I decided to try Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm, and I must now say that these remedies have surely surprised me. They not only afforded almost instant relief, but the general improvement was continuous. Now I am getting around without a cane. I have no more pain or stiffness and I must admit that these wonderful results are due only to the Quaker remedies." These wonderful Quaker Herb Extract $1.00 per bottle, or three bottles for $2.50. Oil of Balm, 25 and 50 cents a bottle. Kidney Pills, 50 cents a box, are still being offered at Keller's Drug Store, 405 Market street, where a fresh supply is always kept on hand.—Advertisement.
