CHAPTER VI. (Copyright, 1916, Star Co.)

The mother was proud of her daughter as she watched the girl pour the tea into the glasses and pass the little cakes she had arranged on a silver plate...

awkwardly. It was evident that he felt it incumbent upon him to say something. "There's nothing especially fine in doing a thing when you have to," Grace returned quickly...

Relief Dorothy, his cousin, had once said that Max wanted to marry money. That was before Max had met Grace, and Dorothy had considered it quite safe to make the accusing speech...

"But not as bad as New York," Grace suggested. "Well, no," he agreed, "but we don't."

"Still, it is an experience and it has been said that nobody has really lived until he has known all the experiences of life. The city this summer has added to our store of experiences. Good-by!"

Their Name Is

I just can't keep the secret any longer. The only family in Harrisburg that don't like SAVE-A-CENT is the Goat family. I said they lived on the outskirts. Don't they? I said the pa's name was Billy—Billy Goat. And the ma's name is—Nanny Goat. I said that they had three kids. Yet none of them like SAVE-A-CENT. For every bit of every cake of SAVE-A-CENT can be used up for scouring purposes.

don't store them-- sell 'em! Includes an illustration of a woman cleaning a room.

Perhaps you're busy at housecleaning; shoving into the attic, furniture and other articles too good to throw away but for which you've no further use. Don't store them—Sell Them! A TELEGRAPH Want Ad will turn them into cash instead of crowding your storerooms with useless furniture that will rapidly depreciate in value the longer you store it.

NEIGHBORS DIE IN PERRY Special to the Telegraph. Blain, Pa., March 23.—Two neighbors of northwest Madison township, near Couchtown, died yesterday a few hours apart—Mrs. Alexandria G. Mart and Miss Dora heffer. The latter was buried at St. Paul's Cemetery to-day and the funeral of Mrs. Mart will take place on Friday morning, with burial in Blain Union Cemetery.

SMALL PIMPLES BURNED AWFUL

On Forehead, Got Larger, Spread Around Chin, Face So Sore Could Not Wash It.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My trouble began with small pimples upon my forehead. Later they began to get larger and more came every day and my skin was very red. They burned something awful and I lost sleep especially around the hot weather. They spread around my chin and made me look as if I had a dirty face. At one time my face was so sore that I could not wash myself and I always had a greasy face."

Sample Each Free by Mail. With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

FOR ITCHING ECZEMA, OLD SORES AND PILES

"I guarantee my ointment," says Peterson, "to cure eczema; to stop the itching at once and any reliable druggist will cheerfully refund your money if PETERSON'S OINTMENT doesn't do everything I say it will do." William A. Carley of Franklin, N.Y., is surely a wise man. He writes: "I used PETERSON'S OINTMENT on a little boy suffering terribly with eczema. It did the work."

DAINTY PETTICOAT WITH FIVE GORES

The Scalloped Flounces Will Appeal as a Novelty to Most Young Women

By MAY MANTON

8894 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Dressing Jacket, 34 to 44 bust. 8620 Five Gored Petticoat, 24 to 34 waist.

There never was a woman who failed to appreciate a new and pretty negligee. This jacket is just as pretty as can be, yet absolutely simple. It means only the shoulder and under-arm seams, for the fulness is confined by means of a sash at the waist, but it takes graceful lines, the collar is effective and the dainty material makes it essentially charming and feminine in effect.

Forty-four Phila. Tobacco Dealers Taken in Crusade

Philadelphia, March 23.—Following the crusade started in New York against alleged violators of the internal revenue laws government agents to-day began serving warrants on forty-four manufacturers of cigars and dealers in tobacco in Philadelphia and vicinity. They are charged with refilling cigar boxes, removing from their premises cigars not properly boxed and stamped, failing to keep their registered number on exhibition and failing to keep a proper record of sales.

The accused men were given hearings before United States Commissioners. EDWIN MOORE DIES Special to the Telegraph. Dauphin, Pa., March 23.—Word has been received here of the death and burial of Edwin Moore, of Philadelphia. Mr. Moore was son of the late Rev. Alexander D. Moore, one of the first pastors of the Presbyterian Church, and was born in Dauphin.

Interned German Cruiser to Be Convoys to U. S. Port

Washington, D. C., March 23.—The United States cruiser Brooklyn, which sailed from Manila last Thursday, is due to arrive at Guam to-day from which port, it is understood, she will convey to San Francisco the German cruiser Cormorant, which sought refuge there when she was pursued by a Japanese warship some months ago. The Brooklyn left Manila under sealed orders and her destination has been the subject of more or less conjecture.

Mahogany Glistens. when polished with ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL. PROUD of your fine furniture, aren't you? And you want to keep it shiny new, unmarred by dust or spots or finger marks. The simple, sure way is to go over each piece every week or so with a soft cloth dampened with ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil. That'll keep it just as good as new. You'll bless the day you commenced using ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil. You'll find it of the greatest help in keeping things spick and span. Many a housewife has told us how she made wash day lots easier and the clothes much whiter by using a quarter of a cup of ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil with the water in the wash boiler. Others have written us that for cutting grease nothing equals ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil, that it is excellent for cleaning hair brushes and combs, and that when sprinkled along cracks and crevices, ants and bugs disappear. ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil has lightened the work in hundreds of homes. But be sure you get ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil, for ordinary, unnamed kerosene is liable to disappoint you. Just as ATLANTIC Rayolight Oil is best for household purposes, it excels for lighting and heating. Carefully refined until every impurity has been removed, it burns without smoking-up chimneys, without charring wicks, without a jot of smell. But it burns slowly, shedding a soft, white, flickerless light. When used in heater and stove, it radiates an intense and economical heat. Buy it from the dealer who displays this sign.
