

Quick, Safe Way to Remove Hairs

(Toilet Talks) Keep a little delatone powder on your dressing table and when ugly, hairy growths appear, make a paste with a little of the powder and some water, apply and let remain on the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. This treatment is quite harmless and rarely more than one application is required, but to avoid disappointment care should be used to buy the real delatone.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of these impurities. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities. Jad Salts is an inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BISURATED MAGNESIA

For dyspepsia, indigestion, souring of food, gas, and hyperacidity of the stomach (acid stomach). A teaspoonful in a fourth of a glass of hot water usually gives INSTANT RELIEF. Sold in all drug stores. The "Cascara" powder or tablet form at 50 cents per bottle.

PLANNING A NEW BUSINESS BLOCK EAST OF PENNSY

W. H. Cummings Organizes Company to Buy Up Properties by April 1

MANY OPTIONS OBTAINED

Miller Brothers and Co. Act—Cameron, State and Market Street Limits

Options on more than a score of properties have already been obtained and negotiations are under way for the acquisition of at least as many more in the proposed development of a new business district bounded by State, Cameron, Market streets and the Pennsylvania railroad. The Cummings Realty Company, organized by W. H. Cummings, is behind the move which is one of the biggest planned for this Spring. Incidentally the announcement of the activities of the Cummings company sets at rest the many rumors that had been flying about in realty circles to the effect that this section was sought by the International Harvester Company.

Plans Ready April 1 Plans for the erection of a series of modern business structures are in course of preparation, according to Mr. Cummings and these will probably be ready by April 1. Razing of the present buildings will be started as early as possible and the new structures will go up as needed if the hopes of the new company materialize. Application has been made for incorporation, said Mr. Cummings today, "and our capital will be $10,000 to start with, increasing in time to $200,000. In addition to Stephen H. Curtis and myself, those interested will include Colonel John C. Young, general agent for the local branch of the International Harvester Company of America.

Some of the properties have already been bought outright; on others only options have been secured, but we expect to close up most of the deals before April 1.

Some of the Properties Among the properties involved in the deal are the following which were handled through Miller Brothers and Co.: Nos. 1006-08-10 Market street and warehouse, J. B. Montgomery; T. T. Weirman, plot including seven frame houses with 51-foot frontage in Tenth street; Stevens estate, plot in Tenth street, east of Walnut with seventy-two-foot frontage and tapering to 172 feet in Paxton creek; Cooper estate plot, 151 in Cameron south of Market, adjoining Snodgrass estate; Nos. 22-24-26 North Cameron and 3-story brick warehouse owned by Oiler Atticks; 20 North Cameron, dwelling owned by Mrs. Annie Purvis; 38-40 North Cameron, Smith Noodle factory; 126 North Cameron, dwelling owned by W. H. Bolton.

The lot owned by Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert and Spencer Gilbert which has a 241.3-foot frontage in Cameron street and extends back to Paxton creek, and No. 92 North Tenth street, a 15-foot property owned by George W. Thomas, complete the list of options. Mr. Cummings personally and Brington-Packer Company are negotiating further deals for additional property in the same section.

While the transfer of the many properties in the proposed new business district will be the big movement in local realty circles around April 1, some other transactions also negotiated by Miller Brothers company will help keep the recording clerks busy. Among these sales are the following: No. 218 Maclay street, to John H. Nixon, freight agent of Pennsylvania railroad; lot in Chestnut street near Twenty-second, Bellevue Park, to Paul Voorhes, for a dwelling; 2206 Logan, owned by County Commissioner Harry C. Wells, sold to Harry Boyle; No. 133 North Thirtieth, owned by J. Horace McFarland, to E. Whitmoyer; four houses in Curtin street, Penbrook, owned by Harvey C. Koons sold to David Handshue.

Fifteen lots in Elkwood, New Cumberland's pretty "suburb" which had been owned by Elizabeth M. Hesse have been sold to John P. Madden. Attorney W. S. Snyder, a well-known member of the Dauphin county bar, has purchased a 65-foot lot of John K. Bowman, of the firm of Bowman and Company, at Front and Seneca streets and is planning to begin the building of a new home this Spring.

STEAMER GROUNDS Lewes, Del., March 29. An unidentified steamer went aground on shoals off the Delaware capes to-day, but later floated without assistance and disappeared in a fog. The coast guard crew had started out to the steamer to render assistance. They were unable to learn her name.

ASKED TO SEND DELEGATE The Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce has been invited to send a delegate to the twenty-second annual Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration, to be held at Mohonk Lake, May 17.

NEW HOUSES TO COST $5,800 Henry C. Brandt and Newton L. Kopp to-day took out a permit to build two 3-story brick dwellings at 57-29 Curtin street. They will cost $5,800. Messrs. Brandt and Kopp will erect the buildings, too.

RIVER REACHES FLOOD STAGE; TO GO HIGHER

Weather Bureau, merchants and business houses along the river were prepared and little damage resulted.

Damage at Lewistown Boats along the Juniata at Lewistown were washed away during the night and a warehouse of Morris Pretyleaf, a grocer, was flooded and a carload of sugar destroyed. People in the lower sections are moving out because of the flood.

Fifteen hundred men are out of work at Mt. Union indefinitely because of the high water which completely covered the first floor of the pumping station and engine room of the Aetna Powder Plant there, shutting off the light, heat and power in the big mill. Further rises will force the Pennsylvania Cressets plant of that place, to suspend. Many of the roads have been inundated between Mt. Union and Millintown. Several houses were reported afloat at Mt. Union and a number of people were rescued in boats.

One of the worst wind and rainstorms in years swept over the Cumberland Valley and Blue Ridge regions causing many thousands of dollars' damage to property and crops, uprooting trees and washing out large rocks.

Cloudbursts in Franklin County Cause Big Losses

In some portions of Franklin county there were cloudbursts and the heavy downpour of rain swept growing wheat into the streams and valley below doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage to the wheat and hay crops. The creeks and Antietam overflowed their banks and the fields bordering upon the creeks resembled lakes as acres and acres of wheat were inundated and large quantities of the grain were washed out by the roots and into the streams. Bridges along the county roads and fences were washed away and the roads in many places were impassable.

In the vicinity of Pen Mar, the Cascades and Blue Ridge Summit, the rain was the heaviest in years, and all the lowlands look like rivers to-day. The truck patches of Happel Brothers, near Blue Ridge Summit, were badly damaged, including hundreds of dollars' worth of early vegetable plants, much of which was in the ground.

At Pen Mar and near the Blue Mountain House site, the water rushed down the mountainside so fast that trees were uprooted and large rocks were loosened by the dirt being washed from around them and these rolled down the mountain. East of Waynesboro, at the Fahnstrock bridge, the water submerged the trolley tracks of the C. G. and W. St. Ry. Co., and the roadbed was covered with water a distance of five hundred yards.

Harrisburg Companies Saved Loss by State Water Supply Warnings

The Central Iron and Steel Company, Harrisburg Light and Power company, Harrisburg Gas Company and the Robert Grace Construction Company, were notified by the State Water Supply Commission and took precautions to protect their plants. Widespread warnings with approximate maximum stages to be expected along the West and Juniata branches, were sent out by the commission yesterday, and were reached late in the day.

The report of the commission for to-day, in part, is as follows: "Juniata river is at its highest stage during the last eight years and the maximum stage of 13 feet calculated for Huntington was reached within one-tenth of a foot yesterday morning and the stages predicted for Mount Union, Lewistown, Mifflin and Newport were approximately reached.

"On the West Branch Susquehanna river the maximum stages predicted for Clearfield, Renovo, Lock Haven, Jersey Shore, Williamsport and Lewisburg were closely approximated according to reports received by the commission this morning.

"The North Branch Susquehanna river has been rising rapidly during the last 24 hours and the maximum stage of 21 feet for Wilkes-Barre and 17 feet for Danville will probably be approximately reached late to-day as the morning reports state that the stages at these localities were 19.1 and 15.1, respectively.

Two Nearly Drowned Duncannon, Pa., March 29.—Gilbert Lukens, aged 18, and Joseph Lid-dick, aged 20, of Duncannon, narrowly escaped drowning yesterday when their duckboat capsized, while they were looking for musk rats. The young men managed to get to shore unscathed, but lost their boat, guns and boots in the river.
