

U. OF P. TOSSERS WIN INTERCOLLEGIATE TITLE---INDEPENDENTS CLOSING SEASON

HOUCK AND RECK IN FAST FIGHT

Lancaster Fighter Takes Four of Six Rounds, but Has to Work

Leo Houck, of Lancaster, walked away with four rounds of his six-round bout with Jack Reck, of Philadelphia, in the wind-up of the Keystone Athletic Club's show at the Orpheum theater last evening.

Eddie Sullivan, of Philadelphia, and Willie Green, of this city, furnished a good bout, but the Philadelphia lad had the better of the fight from the start.

Terry Howell, of Camden, proved himself a very "mushy" fighter in his bout with Jules Ritchie, of Lancaster.

Another part of the bill included a four-round sparring exhibition between Frankie and Johnny Houck, brothers of Leo.

The Keystone Club's next show will be held on April 13.

The Harrisburg Independents will bring their second season to a close Saturday night of this week, with Camden Eastern League as their opponents.

"Jackie" Adams always brings his regular league line-up to Harrisburg, and this, coupled with the fact that they play real basketball, in an effort to win, makes them the most popular team to appear on the local floor.

Met Camden Four Times Since the Independents have been organized, they have met Camden four times. Twice last season the locals won from the Jerseyites and so far this season Camden has taken two games from the locals.

In picking his All-Star team for the Eastern League, the sporting editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer chose two Camden players. He considers Dolin the best center in the league, and places Roy Steele on one of the forward positions.

Atlantic League Starts With Six-Club Circuit; Season Opens in May

Philadelphia, March 30.—The Atlantic Baseball League held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Walton Hotel, when it was definitely decided to confine the circuit to six clubs.

The cities represented in the league are: Easton, Pottsville, Allentown and Reading, of Pennsylvania; Paterson, of New Jersey, and Wilmington, of Delaware.

All the clubs have splendidly located grounds, which need very little done to them for the opening game May 10. The Paterson club will occupy Olympic Park, and games will be played there every Sunday.

The president of the league is M. Neagle Rawlins, of this city. The directors elected at the meeting yesterday are: Easton, M. O. J. Hill; Pottsville, Owen J. Barrett; Paterson, E. C. Landgraf; Reading, A. W. Lawson; Allentown, Dallas Dillinger; Wilmington, Dr. Leon Van Horn.

The Paterson team will be managed by Mr. Landgraf, and Al Lawson will manage his own Reading club. Ernest Greenwell is the Wilmington manager and Charles Aschenbach has been engaged by Easton. John Barrett will announce the Pottsville manager in a few days. James McGeehan is the manager of the Allentown team.

COURTHOUSE NOTES

Fifteen and Twenty-one Wed.—Among the marriage licenses issued to-day was one to Lewis Abraham Nunemaker and Ruth E. Brubaker, Rutherford. The bridegroom is 21; the bride is 15.

Petitions Filed.—Nominating petitions filed to-day included the following: Republican county and city committee—Count, Sylvanus W. Zerby, Second precinct, Tenth ward, city; David S. Hanchue, South Hancock, city; Carl J. Beasor, George C. McCallahan, J. D. Cain, Second precinct, Tenth ward; Samuel E. Painter, Second precinct, Fourth.

in favor of Eugenio De Folco's singing of the part of Canis. He was vocally superlative, and his clever and masterly acting scored a tremendous success. Chevalier Anvelli conducted all the performances with a master hand.

WELLY'S CORNER

John Overton, Yale runner, is without question the best college miler this season. He has not been defeated in scratch and has speed.

On what happens in Philadelphia to-day depends baseball for Harrisburg. The Pennsylvania State League promoters have made a favorable impression in many towns. If they deliver the goods to-day there will be nothing too good for them in this city.

If the amateur teams form a federation this season there will be some rare sport in Harrisburg and vicinity. An application has been made from Harrisburg for membership in the National Federation of Amateur Baseball Clubs. Blanks will be sent out next week to local teams and a meeting will be called for April 15, at which a local branch will be organized.

Football circles in the East have been astir over stories about stars of Cornell; Lake and Scott, of Lafayette, and Welsh, Stark and Grant, of Pennsylvania, will take examinations for entrance in the United States Naval Academy.

When Reading High comes to this city next week for a second game with Central, the Berks tossers should be accorded every courtesy possible. Harrisburg cannot afford to win athletic honors through unfair tactics.

Now that Jess Willard has given his word that he will not retire, it promises to be a long controversy, before the name of the next opponent of the champion is known. Willard has said he will give Moran another chance if the cash terms are satisfactory. However, he must give Fred Fulton a chance. This giant stood aside for Moran and is next in line for a chance with the champion, according to the belief of fight fans all over the United States.

According to this week's fight schedule, Jack Dillon and Battling Levinsky will meet in a ten-round battle in New York city to-night. This battle ought to be lively, as both fighters are strong title contenders.

While presenting a strong claim to State championship for co-eds, the Hasset Girls are seeking further honors. To-night the local champions meet the Moravian Girls' team of Bethlehem. A victory will mean much for Hasset.

Hanna-West Suit Settled.—After several years of legal struggle in the Dauphin county and appellate courts the famous Isaac D. West-A. F. Hanna controversy over the question of ownership of some land in the upper end of the county was settled to-day by the payment by West of $340.22 costs. West, who was an important figure in the Susquehanna Coal Co., had dragged Hanna from certain land holdings. Hanna got a verdict, which was dragged clear to the Supreme Court and a new trial was allowed, but it never went to the jury the second time.
