

Money Couldn't Buy It

The relief he personally experienced moved Mr. W. F. Briggs, Knoxville, Ohio, to write to the Pinus laboratories a letter of appreciation in which he says:

WANTS 67,952 SAILORS

Washington, D. C., March 30.—Secretary Daniels appeared before the House naval committee to-day and discussed the personnel of the navy. His own recommendations, based on the experience of the department and advice of many officers, looked to a total enlisted strength of 67,952 men.

FILE PETITIONS

John E. Barr to-day filed nominating petitions for himself, Charles Case, George Shuler and William Madenford as candidates for the Republican city committee from the Fourth precinct of the Fourth ward. Barr has been one of the active workers in that precinct for some years.

Cowden Submits Data on Walnut St. Bridge to Pennsy Officials

All the surveys and other data incident to the probable construction of the Walnut street bridge across the Pennsylvania railroad tracks was submitted to-day to the Pennsylvania officials by City Engineer M. B. Cowden with the request that the company offer any suggestions or advice as to changes, with information as to what share it will be willing to contribute to the cost.

In his letter Mr. Cowden points out that inasmuch as the bridge would span some of the Pennsy tracks, it would probably be incumbent upon the company to help defray the expense. He adds, incidentally, that there will very likely be a big item for consequential damages to be considered in the ultimate expenditure.

SHEEP RAISING TO BE DISCUSSED

Important Meeting of the State Commission of Agriculture to Be Held

The condition of sheep raising, the losses caused by dogs, the reasons for the decline in the number of sheep and output of wool in Pennsylvania in recent years and means to increase interest in sheep will be discussed at Philadelphia on Tuesday by the State Agricultural Commission.

The commissioners are also to be the guests of C. S. Calwell, Philadelphia banker, who is much interested in agricultural advancement, at luncheon and in the afternoon will meet with representatives of the State wool growers, sheep raisers and textile interests. The whole subject will be gone over in detail.

The State farm advisers, who have started their work in the field, are meeting many inquiries regarding sheep raising and it is believed that with better protection for herds the industry may be revived.

Mr. White Here.—The application of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for an additional track in the Herr street subway will be heard by the Public Service Commission on April 19.

Meeting Officials.—Highway Commissioner Cunningham was in Cambria county yesterday meeting officials in regard to road improvements in that county. He made personal inspections.

Complaint On Water.—William E. Steel, who resides at Paxtang, to-day called attention of the Public Service Commission to the quality of the water being furnished to the new borough by the Hummelstown consolidated Water Company. It is reported that the water is discolored and that steps should be taken to require an improvement. The communication will likely be investigated and the Department of Health apprised of the complaint.

Senator Fisher Here.—Ex-Senator John S. Fisher, of Indiana, was here to-day on business connected with the department.

Distillery Chartered.—The charter of the Mutual Distilling Company, of Lorane, Berks county, was approved to-day. It has a $200,000 capital. A charter was also issued for a clothespin company to operate in Lycoming county.

Public Service Plans.—The Public Service Commission has listed for Monday a hearing on the application for alteration of a grade crossing of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway in Swatara township, The Millsport, Lewisistown and Burnham jitney line will ask a certificate of convenience. Wednesday the Highspire water case will come up.

Clark Files.—J. V. Clark, of Washington, to-day filed a petition to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer. Mr. Clark was endorsed by the committee on candidates of the Washington party state conference here a week ago.

Petitions Filed.—Among nominating petitions filed were: Congress, C. H. Roberts, Mount Carmel, Republican, Sixteenth; House, Edwin F. Kunkle, Snyderburg, Democrat, Monroe; James W. Sunney, Penn's Creek, Republican, Snyder; James H. Henderson, Glenside, Republican, First Montgomery; P. Starr Gwiazdowski, Sunbury, Democrat, Northumberland; Henry Knoch, Pittsburgh, Republican, Eighth Allegheny; E. P. Duffy, Crafton, and C. P. Mayer, Bridgeville, filed petitions to be candidates for Democratic national delegate in the Thirty-second district, with stipulations to support the popular choice. H. H. Wilson, Beaver, filed a petition to be candidate for Democratic state committeeman from Beaver.

Maulfair Case Reopened.—The State Compensation Board at Philadelphia last evening announced a reopening of the Maulfair workmen's compensation case, from this city, which involves the question whether a person can be considered as within the compensation in the Thirty-second district after hours. The whole state is taking an interest in the case, which was appealed some time ago by Senator E. E. Feldman. The rehearing will be held here on April 12. The board will go into the case very thoroughly because of the far-reaching effect.

Ex-Governor Ill.—Ex-Governor S. W. Pennypacker is reported to be in a serious condition at Atlantic City.

Mediators Asked For.—James A. Steele, chief clerk of the State Department of Labor and Industry, and Patrick Gilday, chief of the mediation bureau, have gone to Wilkes-Barre in the car strike. They have been attending local conferences at the request of both sides.

New Bridges Approved.—The State Water Supply Commission last night approved the following applications: Supervisors of North Annville township, Lebanon county, construction of a bridge; Pennsylvania Railroad, construction of a bridge over Spring creek in township, Dauphin county; Aetna Chemical Company, repairs to temporary foot bridge across Juniata river east of Mount Union, Huntingdon county.

to-morrow morning by E. R. Demain, local forecaster in the United States weather bureau office, but there will be no more danger from flood, unless weather conditions change suddenly.

North Branch Rises.—The north branch of the river continued to rise slowly to-day and a stage of 22 or 23 feet is expected at Wilkes-Barre, but the flood waters in this branch will have little effect here.

The subway in Market street, remained flooded until late this afternoon, and the Harrisburg Railways Company continued running. Allison Hill cars out State street and Steelton and Middletown cars over the Race street line. Traffic may be resumed through the subway to-night, however.

Several schedules were changed slightly to give the crews more time because of the added distance over the State street line.

Cellars Flooded.—Cellars in South Harrisburg were flooded late yesterday and this morning. Hundreds of pumps were started to empty the water. No material damage resulted to any of the manufacturing plants in the city.

Hundreds of curious people lined the banks of the river to-day, taking advantage of the fair weather. Many logs, large cakes of ice and a number of boats passed this point.

Drivers Nearly Drowned.—H. B. Stamm, driver for a local tea company, narrowly escaped drowning at Duncannon yesterday when he

BOOK HUGE RAIL ORDERS FOR 1917

Railroads Already Have Placed Contracts For 900,000 Tons; Trade Settles

"Signs of a more conservative spirit are beginning to appear in the steel trade, with intimations that the crest of the wave of price advances has been reached or is near at hand," says the Iron Age in its weekly review to-day.

"Sentiment declines no less strongly to the belief that there will be no contracts for machining shells for more than three months ahead. In several quarters in the machine tool trade the pressure is so great.

"In March the railroads have put 900,000 tons or more on the books of the rail mills for 1917 rolling, and deliveries are largely in the second year being about 1,200, against 2,000 for all of 1915.

War demand is not as insistent, partly because of the long time for which mills are sold. But there is the definite statement from agents of Great Britain that they will now place no contracts for machining shells for more than three months ahead.

Flooded the deep water which had flooded the subway. The horse swam through with the wagon.

Fair weather with little change in temperature is forecasted for the next 24 hours.

Wild Geese by Hundreds.—The river front presented a very unusual appearance this morning and the strange sight or lack of sight, rather, of its markings and "disturbances" "front steps" completely submerged, attracted many people throughout the day to the river.

Wild geese in large numbers were there to inspect the river conditions and spy-glasses were brought into play freely to watch the birds.

The condition of the bank, while not such as to cause alarm, evidently needs careful attention. Many a bench, transferred from its wonted place rests at the water's edge in a precarious position, and the cracks and fissures in the bank demand that disturbing "front steps" be completely submerged, attracted many people throughout the day to the river.

The ice that was making its way down stream yesterday in such large quantities, has thickened and logs of wood and sticks hold the right of way. The river has risen to such a height that the steel cable connecting the east shore with Independence Island swoops down in a slow curve under the deep water.

Professor Harclerode and Miss Sylvia Whitman Go to New York to Wed

Quietly slipping away from their friends here, Professor William M. Harclerode, supervisor of music in the Steelton schools, and Miss Sylvia Ruth Whitman, also of the borough, went to New York city where they were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Professor and Mrs. Harclerode are both well known in local musical circles and the latter is organist at the First Presbyterian church. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whitman, who now reside in Lebanon, and an honor graduate of the local high school, class of 1914.

After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Harclerode will reside at 247 Lincoln street.

MRS. ESTHER E. BECK Mrs. Esther E. Beck, widow of John C. Beck, died at her home in South Second street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

MIDDLETOWN Board of Trade Plans to Organize Building and Loan Association

The reorganization of the Middletown Board of Trade was effected last evening at a meeting held in the council chambers in Catherine street. The officers are as follows: President, A. H. Luckenbill; vice-president, H. S. Roth and John W. Metzger; treasurer, J. J. Landis; secretary, C. S. Peyer.

The following committee was appointed to obtain information that might lead to the organization of a building and loan association in Middletown; John W. Metzger, J. A. Kramer and Harry Myers.

TWO DEATHS FROM MEASLES Measles claimed a victim in Middletown yesterday afternoon when Ralph A. Jones, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones of Ann street, succumbed to the disease. Private funeral services will be held to-morrow morning at the home at 10 o'clock. Burial in the Middletown cemetery.

IS DISTRICT MANAGER E. L. Daron, a former resident, is director of the Consolidated Telephone Company, Scranton, instead of general manager as was erroneously reported in a newspaper story yesterday.

til it is completely under water about one-third of its way across and is forming a veritable dam that stops all debris flowing into it at that point, with the result that a continuous whirling sound is heard for squares along Front street, as the cable vibrates with the action of the water.

It Ain't What It Used to Be! But say! If you want to hear about a real flood, just talk to one of the old veterans who has gone through them all. A. P. Dintaman, comparing the floods that he has seen on the river caused by the Susquehanna, says they make this one look "like two cents."

Flood Shows Wisdom of Plaza Wall Scheme City Commissioner Bowman's wisdom in connection with the plaza wall at the pumping station has been demonstrated during the present high stage of the river. This great improvement has not only prevented the serious cutting away of the embankment by the high water and swift current at that point; it has also created one of the most attractive features of the river front and during the last few days Commissioner Bowman's foresight has been generally commended.

Doctors and nurses use MUSTEROLE and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuritis, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, and Frosted Feet. Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

MUCH APPENDICITIS IN HARRISBURG There are many cases of appendicitis in Harrisburg hospitals. Much of this can be prevented with simple buck-thorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-I-ka has assisted and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. H. C. Kennedy, Druggist, 321 Market street.

For Freckled, Rough or Spotty Complexions The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which delicate skins are subject after exposure to wind or sun, often appearing in early Spring, may readily be gotten rid of. Mercolized wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get an inspect the face with any druggist's. There's no more effective way of banishing freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple solution of powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in 2 pt. witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.—Advertisement.
