STATE TREASURY FUNDS DROPPING

One Big Payment Today and a Small One Yesterday Show the Conditions The State Treasury's month will close to-night and it is expected that it will show less money in the balances than at the end of February, when a pretty fair increase over the previous two months was shown. Heavy payments have been made from the State's cash this month. Just as an indication of the way things go, yesterday the State got in $8,000 for the general fund; to-day the Pennsylvania Railroad paid $241,000 in one check as State tax on gross receipts. Most of the money due to the school districts has been paid out. It was due last Fall, but the Treasury was hard hit by appropriations and the disbursements had to be strung along. The next school appropriation will be due in three months. Change in Referees. — Charles H. Young, State compensation referee at Pittsburgh, has been appointed associate counsel. He lives in New Castle. L. E. Christley, Butler, referee assigned to Erie, has been transferred to Pittsburgh, and G. Scott Smith, Kane editor, well known in many here, has been appointed a referee with headquarters at Warren. He will spend considerable time at Erie, however. Mr. Smith was here recently. He greeted many friends. To Follow Up Complaint. — Complaints about the condition of water furnished to Paxtang and Swatara township are to be followed up by State officials. Some tests will be made. Inspectors to Meet. — Factory inspectors of the State Department of Labor and Industry from fifteen eastern counties of the State have been called to meet at Reading Monday for general discussion of inspection and safety work in industrial plants. The meeting will be held in the Reading Chamber of Commerce and Joseph P. Quinn will preside. Spicer Inspects. — John S. Spicer, chemical engineer of the Department of Labor and Industry, was to-day detailed to inspect explosive manufacturing plants in Western Pennsylvania because of recent accidents which have occurred in such establishments lately. The information gathered will be embodied in the new State code being prepared for operation of powder mills and explosive works. After Oyster Men. — The State Dairy and Food Division to-day announced that it had caused the arrest of several persons in Philadelphia for persistent violation of the law requiring placarding of cold storage food. In Allegheny county nine arrests have been made for sale of "bloated" oysters. To Meet Wool Men. — Wool growers from all over the State will meet with the State Commission of Agriculture in Philadelphia next Tuesday for a discussion of ways to stop the decline in the number of sheep in Pennsylvania. Last year the sheep declined 3 per cent, and for ten years there has been a steady increase. This will be the first meeting to be held by the new commission in Philadelphia and a number of representative farmers will meet the members. Increases Filed. — The Stead & Miller Co., of Philadelphia, has filed notice of increase of stock from $350,000 to $900,000 and the Textile Machine Works, of Reading, entered notice of authority to increase stock from $60,000 to $1,500,000. Referee Here. — Among visitors to the Governor yesterday was Paul W. Houck, the State referee in compensation in the Schuylkill-Berks district. A Bedford Visitor. — Ex-Congressman J. E. Thropp, of Bedford county, called upon the Governor yesterday. Ohio Man Here. — E. E. Watson, secretary of the Ohio State Compensation Board, was here to-day to see Assistant Manager Allen, of the State Insurance Fund, about the systems in use. Mr. Allen will go to New York to-day to discuss the rates in force in this State with representatives of big concerns. Meeting Committees. — L. R. Palmer, chief factory inspector, is in Philadelphia meeting with the committee in charge of the textile code. Leaves To-morrow. — Governor Brumbaugh leaves to-morrow morning for Wilkes-Barre and Nanticoke. He will return Monday. SAVE THE WOODS The farmers need the marshes and the swampy woods for an insect-eating bird refuge. The city people need them for their recreation; and recreation is worth all the money and time given to it; the doctors say so. The sportsmen need the marshes, because there thousands of ducks and geese stop on their migrations and there, too many of the ducks build their nests in summer. But there is no need of the United States Congress going further with this argument, knows that such places are needed, else there never would have been a national park of any description at any place.—April OUTING.

NEWS OF STEELTON

BURGESS ORDERS STEELTON POLICE TO HANDLE CASES

Forbids Turning Prisoners Over to Constables Who Collect Fees

Orders have been issued by Burgess Fred Wigfield breaking the practice of Steelton borough police officers of turning over their arrests to Commonwealth officers to permit these to prosecute the cases and incidentally collect costs which the borough officers would not be permitted to obtain. The orders struck Steelton police circles like a bomb shell for it means that one of the principal little sources of easy money for the constables will hereafter be cut off. Failure to obey the orders will likely bring recommendations for dismissal from the force. The orders were issued several weeks ago but the first intimation the public had of the change was last week when Chief of Police H. P. Longaker prosecuted a case in the Dauphin county court. When asked what this meant Burgess Wigfield made public a letter written to T. J. Nelly, chairman of the police committee of council, in which he explains the order. Cost $2,700 Last Year Burgess Wigfield said, "I can see no reason why a borough officer should be paid a salary for doing his work if he turns over all his arrests to constables who collect fees from the county. Last year Steelton constables were paid about $2,700 in fees. When you stop to think that our entire police force is only credited with 24 arrests from which the borough received less than $40 in costs, you can readily see what a saving a new procedure will be to the taxpayers. The borough officers hereafter will turn all their arrests into the borough treasury." Burgess Wigfield's letter follows: Steelton, Pa., March 23, 1916. Mr. T. J. Nelly, Chairman of the Police Committee, Steelton, Pa.: My Dear Sir:—Since the new borough code went into effect, I have written our borough solicitor for an opinion as to the full status of our patrolmen. He advises that they have the same powers as other Commonwealth officers. In view of this fact, I have issued new orders to our chief of police and officers, to wit: In the future all arrests that they make on view whether State or borough violations must be prosecuted by them through the proper channels instead of turning them over to the borough constables as heretofore has been the practice. I feel that this method will relieve the officers from the censure that has hitherto been brought to my notice. "In following out this plan the officers of course will make out their own costs to the State, but the peace as other Commonwealth officers do and turn the same over to the borough treasurer as per police regulations. In carrying out this plan the officers will get the credit due them for all arrests made and the borough treasurer will receive the benefits of our salaried patrolmen instead of individuals. I hope that the new system will bring about two things; namely: Better salaries for the officers, which means more incentive and greater efficiency, and forever put the police department above the plane of public censure. While this matter seems to be under the executive department, I feel that the legislative department should be advised of the change, as it is a departure from a regular custom. As chairman of the police committee I advise you of the same and will thank you if you will advise council of the change. Hoping that everything will work out to the greatest public good, I am, Yours very truly, FRED. WIGFIELD, Chief Burgess.

TICKETS GO RAPIDLY "The art exhibit which opens in the high school auditorium on Wednesday bids fair to have a large patronage," said Superintendent L. E. McGinnis this morning. "Already there is a great demand for tickets. People throughout the country are awakening to the importance and value of good art in creating a refining atmosphere. As people become familiar with the best in art, just so quickly will the crude art be displaced by something better. A work of art which is really great will bear reproduction, and even though this may not possess the pleasure-giving power of the original in a gallery three thousand miles away, the measure of power which it does possess is well worth taking. The beautiful carvons and photographs to be shown are among the best to be seen anywhere."

APPLICATIONS IN FOR PLAYGROUNDS

4 Would Be Superintendent; Committee Will Recommend Only an Expert

Four applications for the position of superintendent of playgrounds, recently created by council, have been filed with C. S. Davis, chairman of the joint committee from the Municipal League and Civic Club, which has been authorized by council to recommend a man for the new place. All four applications were received through the Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America, a national organization devoted to the furtherance of playgrounds work, and are from men of sufficient experience to be classed as experts in recreation work. Applications have been received also from three girls and two young men from the borough for places as playground instructors. No action will be taken on these applications until the new superintendent is selected. The committee will go over the applications and references as soon as possible and will make a recommendation to council at an early meeting. Only experts will be considered.

A NON-ALCOHOLIC TONIC Debility is a loss of vitality, not affecting any one part of the body particularly but the system generally. It is dangerous because it reduces the body's resistance to disease. When debility follows acute diseases, convalescence is slow and the strength does not return as it should. An attack of the grip often results in debility that persists for months. Everybody recognizes that the remedy for debility is to build up the blood because the blood goes to every part of the body and an improvement in its condition is quickly felt throughout the system. The problem in every case is to find something that will enrich the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills suit most people's need because they are non-alcoholic and they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful for growing children and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overdrawn. They are certainly worthy of a trial in every case of weak nerves and thin blood. Your druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free booklets on the blood and nerves.

GLASS OF WATER BEFORE YOU EAT ANY BREAKFAST Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house you soul lives in, also becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere. Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headaches, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Advertisement.
