

SPORTS---LUCKNOW SHOP LEAGUE STARTS FOURTH SEASON WITH BIG MEETING

LUCKNOW LEAGUE PLAN FOR SEASON

Shopmen Elect Officers; Four Teams to Contest For Championship

Officials and employees of the Lucknow Shop League of the Pennsylvania Railroad met yesterday and organized for the fourth season.

President, R. J. Leslie, re-elected for the third time; vice-president, C. M. Lyter; secretary, I. M. Arthur; treasurer, John Norton, re-elected for the second time.

The league this year will consist of the four athletic associations of the shops, which are the Planning Mill, Blacksmith Shop, Airbrake Men's and Lucknow Clerks.

The teams are ready to take to the field now and are only waiting for warmer weather to "loosen up" their "whips" and "peel their batting eyes."

Develop Fast Players Each year this league produces some of the fastest and best ball players in this vicinity.

The league is well supported by an army of impartial rooters and enjoys a prosperity all its own.

It is the intention this year to have a representative team of the entire shops which will be able to cope with any railroad association team or other independent teams in this vicinity.

The president appointed the following committees: On rules, A. Moyer, chairman; on grounds, C. M. Lyter, chairman; on schedule, I. M. Arthur, chairman; on schedule, J. Norton, chairman; C. M. Lyter and I. M. Arthur, secretary.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 1.—Although the entry list for the University of Pennsylvania's relay carnival to be held on April 28 and 29, does not close until to-night, the number of entries already received exceeds any in the history of the games.

At least a score more are expected to be received to-day. The list comprises all of the big colleges of the country and practically all of the best schools.

Individual entries must be made before April 29.

West End Republican Club Plans Boxing Program

The West End Republican Club plans for the big boxing show at Chestnut Street Auditorium, Monday night, April 10, are complete.

Tim Doney, of Lancaster, will meet a tough opponent in Kid Whitten, of Baltimore. Willie Green and Henry Smith will start the bill.

Barrett, Common Laborer Youngstown, Ohio, April 1.—Charles Barrett, star Cornell quarterback and the virtually unanimous choice of critics for the All-American team, is working as a common laborer in the open hearth department of the Republic Iron and Steel Company here.

Central High Girls Win Central High girls won last night at Tyrone in the game with Tyrone High School girls, score, 11 to 5.

Central Tossers Lose Wilkes-Barre High walked all over Central last night at Wilkes-Barre, winning by a score of 49 to 37.

Junior Girls Win The Juniors of Central High School won the girls' interclass championship last night by winning from the Freshmen; score, 11 to 7.

FINAL GAME IS WITH FAST FIVE

Independents Wind Up Season Tonight With Camden Eastern Leaguers

The Harrisburg Independents have as their closing attraction to-night the Camden Eastern League. The best basketball teams in the country have appeared on the schedule of the local team.

Miss Sara Lemer has prepared a popular dance program for the final game. The dances after the games have been very popular during the past winter.

The local line-up will be intact for this final game. This will probably be the last game in which these five men will be together.

Camden Harrisburg Adams, f. Rote, f. Steele, f. McCord, f. Dolin, c. Geisel, c. Brown, g. Ford, g. Dieghan, g. McConnell, g.

Princeton opens the baseball season of the choir.

The Hummelstown basketball five defeated Middletown last night, score 59 to 29.

The Puritans won last night's game in the Casino Independent League scores 2476 to 2455.

Penn-State cancelled to-day's baseball game with Susquehanna University because of no field.

The New Ideas won last night's game in the Harrisburg Academy League, scores 1581 to 1560.

Beck Wrestles Hard Man In last night's wrestling bouts at Penn-State College, Carl Beck, the former Tech High football star, gave Higgins, one of the varsity stars a hard battle.

Joseph F. Romberger, Banker and Merchant, of Berksburg, Dies

Berksburg, Pa., April 1.—Joseph F. Romberger, who died at his home here Thursday, was one of the best-known business men of the Upper End.

Barrett, Common Laborer Youngstown, Ohio, April 1.—Charles Barrett, star Cornell quarterback and the virtually unanimous choice of critics for the All-American team, is working as a common laborer in the open hearth department of the Republic Iron and Steel Company here.

Central High Girls Win Central High girls won last night at Tyrone in the game with Tyrone High School girls, score, 11 to 5.

Central Tossers Lose Wilkes-Barre High walked all over Central last night at Wilkes-Barre, winning by a score of 49 to 37.

Junior Girls Win The Juniors of Central High School won the girls' interclass championship last night by winning from the Freshmen; score, 11 to 7.

Bible No Aid in Theft York, Pa., April 1.—A certain number of Bible verses which it was testified Weinert Wallick carried in his pocket as a guard against arrest when stealing chickens, apparently failed to give the protection with which he credited them.

Farmers Hold Milk Chicago, Ill., April 1.—Chicago faced a shortage of milk to-day as a result of action taken by ten thousand farmers of the Milk Producers' Association, who demand a higher price from the distributors.

Armed Lifer in New York, April 1.—The French freight steamer Vulcan with a three-inch gun mounted on her after deck, arrived here to-day from La Palice. The weapon was carried, her officers said, for defense against submarines.

Good Livebird Scores in West Fairview Shoot; Miller and Wagner Tie

Good scores were hung up yesterday in the live bird shoot of the West Fairview Sportsmen's Association.

Miller, (28) 15; Wagner, (28) 14; Dinger, (28) 14; Hippensteel, (28) 14; Wilson, (28) 13; Hoover, (28) 13; Green, (28) 13; Heiges, (28) 13; Allemen, (28) 12; J. Martin, (30) 12; Freeland, (28) 11; Rothrock, (28) 10; Melley, (28) 9.

IRVING COLLEGE AND HOME SOLD

One of Oldest Institutions of State Learning For Women in State Bought by Minister

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 1.—Announcement is made by Dr. E. E. Campbell, president of Irving College and Music Conservatory, of the sale of that institution to-day, including the home of the president.

The Rev. N. L. Euwer, a member of the faculty at present, professor of education, religion and philosophy, will act as president of the college and practically all members of the faculty will be retained.

Irving College, one of the oldest and best known institutions of learning for women in the State, was founded in 1856 by Solomon Gargas, of Mechanicsburg, and named "Irving" by a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He assumed his duties on July 1, 1892, and will celebrate his twenty-fifth year of administration at the approaching commencement, which will be the sixtieth anniversary of the college.

During Dr. Campbell's administration Columbia Hall was built in 1893, also Music Hall, in 1901, and the art studio and recitation building a year or two later.

Watch Carlisle Demonstration. City Commissioners E. Z. Gross, W. H. Lynch, O. E. Gowman, Fire Chief C. Kinder, Assistant Park Superintendent V. Grant Forrer, City Engineer M. B. Cowden, ex-Commissioner H. G. Morton and Al Burns, went to Carlisle this afternoon as guests of that borough to watch a test of the new motor fire apparatus.

From "Pen" to Asylum. Upon application of Penitentiary Warden Robert J. McKenty, President Judge Kunkel to-day appointed Dr. H. N. Hassell, Philadelphia, as a commission to examine and report upon the advisability of sending William Daniels, a convict, from the penitentiary to a State asylum for the insane.

Public Library Breaks All Service Records The Harrisburg Public Library broke all records for circulation of books during the month of March and also for the proportion of children taking out books.

Union Miners Celebrate Concession Anniversary Hazleton, Pa., April 1.—This was eight-hour day for the miners in all the unionized coal fields of the country in celebration of the granting of that concession by the bituminous producers some years ago.

Time Table Cumberland Valley Railroad In Effect June 27, 1916. TRAINS leave Harrisburg at 6:02, 7:52 a. m., 3:40 p. m.

Bringing Up Father I've employed you as a detective to watch my husband!

Say-lady - he won't get a chance to sneak out of this house with me on the job!

I'll fix you!

John - start your car now an' go as fast as you can an' don't stop until your gasoline gives out!

Yes sir!

Help!!

Steeltown High Tossers Win in Final Game With Tech; Locals Still in Cellar

Steeltown High tossers last night put the final crimp in Tech's chances, winning by a score of 39 to 37, and closing the cellar door on the local five.

Every blow told, yet Welsh's marvelous stamina stood him in good stead. He backed away, with his arms above his head, trying to protect his face.

APRIL FOOL AT LICENSE BUREAU?

Dauphin county's marriage bureau clerks are pretty certain that some "April fool" business was transacted to-day but they're not quite sure as to whom.

MARRIAGE CLERKS SUSPECT IT, BUT AREN'T SURE AS TO VICTIMS

Work on the new bridge over the P. and R. tracks at Nineteenth street, it is understood, will be resumed Monday, by the Ferro-Concrete Company.

RAILWAYS COMPANY DIVIDEND 1 1/2 PER CENT. FOR SIX MONTHS

Stockholders of the Harrisburg Railways Company received their dividend checks for the last 6 months to-day with this expression of sympathy.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Lauffe Dies Teresa E. Lauffe, aged 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lauffe, 1908 Susquehanna street, died this morning at her home.

SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

Is 25 years old this month. Think what this means to you, Mr. Smoker, absolute reliability. A quarter of a century of increasing popularity is not accidental.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY KING OSCAR

By McManus

WELLY'S CORNER

DIXIE GOES AHEAD By Frederic J. Haskin

OVERCROWDING MOVIE LOBBIES

Can't Cut Off Gas of Debtor, Board Rules

Deaths and Funerals

SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

SILVER ANNIVERSARY KING OSCAR

By McManus

BENNY LEONARD WINS OVER WELSH

New York Fighter Outpoints Lightweight Champion in Fast Bout

New York, April 1.—Benny Leonard, a trim youngster, fairly swarmed all over Champion Freddie Welsh, a seasoned veteran, in ten rounds at Madison Square Garden last night.

He came out fairly strong in the eighth, Leonard had the better of nine of the ten rounds, the fifth even. Welsh weighed 136 1/2 pounds at the ringside and his opponent 132.

6 of Emanuel Hoffman's Life-long Friends Carry His Body to Grave

Six of the life-long friends of Emanuel Hoffman, formerly of Lykens, in accordance with his last request, serve as pallbearers at his funeral.

Funeral services will be held to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Feindt and will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. James P. Bulitt, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Lauffe Dies Teresa E. Lauffe, aged 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lauffe, 1908 Susquehanna street, died this morning at her home.

SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

Is 25 years old this month. Think what this means to you, Mr. Smoker, absolute reliability. A quarter of a century of increasing popularity is not accidental.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY KING OSCAR

By McManus

WELLY'S CORNER

DIXIE GOES AHEAD By Frederic J. Haskin

OVERCROWDING MOVIE LOBBIES

Can't Cut Off Gas of Debtor, Board Rules

Deaths and Funerals

SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

SILVER ANNIVERSARY KING OSCAR

By McManus

WELLY'S CORNER

DIXIE GOES AHEAD By Frederic J. Haskin

OVERCROWDING MOVIE LOBBIES

Can't Cut Off Gas of Debtor, Board Rules

Deaths and Funerals

SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

SILVER ANNIVERSARY KING OSCAR