points within the broad zone that ranges from the Rayon country to the Benito Juarez district. The last Mexican report was that he was south of Satevo and heading for Parral, but this could not be confirmed. The difficulties of the pursuit have multiplied because of the misleading information given by Mexican peons to General Pershing's men.

"DON'T USE FACE CREAM," SAYS BEAUTY DOCTOR, "IF YOU WANT TO BE GOOD-LOOKING"

English Beauty Specialist Gives Some Good Advice To American Women.

Many women seem to think that the use of an ordinary face cream is an aid to good-looks and beauty, said a noted English Beauty Specialist, when, as a matter of fact, a great majority of the greasy creams sold now-a-days contain animal fats which are positively injurious. Greasy creams are equally bad for they are made generally from Stearic acid which chaps and wrinkles the skin. Creams of this kind drive the blood away from the surface of the skin, giving it a pale sallow look and often close the pores, producing pimples and blackheads. Every woman realizes these days that beauty is her greatest asset and it is her duty to enhance her beauty by every means at her command, however, common sense must be her guide. No woman would think of eating Stearic acid or common lard to nourish her body yet thousands of women apply them to their faces daily. They know their skin requires nourishment of some kind, but few people know what to use. If you have facial blemishes of any kind, are pale or sallow, freckled or wrinkled, or if your skin has a tendency to be dry and flabby, you owe it to yourself to make the following test which will require no special skill or expensive toilet requisites. Take your hand mirror to the window and examine your face closely, noticing carefully the size of your pores, the depth of your wrinkles and your natural tendency to freckle or facial blemishes. Next, apply a generous amount of American-made Cocoa and it is her duty to yourself to make the following test which will require no special skill or expensive toilet requisites. Take your hand mirror to the window and examine your face closely, noticing carefully the size of your pores, the depth of your wrinkles and your natural tendency to freckle or facial blemishes. Next, apply a generous amount of American-made Cocoa over the entire face and neck, leave on for five or ten minutes and then remove by wiping with a soft swab cloth. A delightful surprise will await you. I have seen hundreds of women with dry, sallow, wrinkled and flabby skin and those with enlarged becomes more important.

Reports received here to-day from Mexican sources supported the story brought from the interior yesterday by a Mexican to the effect that Villa, with a few of his most trusted followers was far to the south of Satevo and heading for Parral. One report said that the bandit had already reached that town but it was generally believed that this was at least premature.

There is little question any longer on the border that Villa is heading for Torreon in the neighborhood of which city he will find Canuto Reyes, one of his most trusted lieutenants. Reyes has successfully defied the Carranza forces for several months. He has ravaged Durango and is believed to have several hundred men in his command with many smaller guerrilla bands operating in conjunction with him. If Villa can effect a junction with Reyes sufficiently in advance of his pursuers to attempt a concentration of the bandits, it is said that he can muster two thousand pores and freckled, pale faces entirely free from blemishes and more plexions, simply by using a little American-made Cocoa once or twice daily. I have explained above, and this after they had in some cases been treated by expensive Beauty Specialists without obtaining any benefit. In many instances women can make themselves look from 10 to 20 years younger. Many a woman has obtained high social position or secured advancement in business ahead of her unfortunate rival who did not understand the power of beauty. Again, the woman who neglects her skin will not understand the power of beauty. Beauty may be only skin deep, but the woman who has improved her complexion and kept her face soft, clear and free from wrinkles by the use of American-made Cocoa has an attractive skin that suggests a refinement which places her in a higher class than that occupied by the careless woman who has been indifferent to the development of her personal charms. Beauty is the greatest gift of nature and this charm is an American-made Cocoa. Note--American-made Cocoa recommended above by Winifred Grace, Facialist, is one of the newer forms of cocoa cream. Unlike the old products it is pleasant to use, has a soft, fragrant odor and is used almost exclusively for massage and facial treatment in the English Beauty Parlors. American women who are treated by Beauty Specialists should insist that no other emollient be used on their face for massage. Superfluous hair and ruined complexion too often result from the use of cheap massage creams. American-made Cocoa can always be obtained from any first class Drugstore and is so easy to apply that the average woman has no need for the services of a Beauty Specialist.

men at least. While Mexican bullets have taken the life of a single soldier in the American expeditionary forces and have only wounded four--the Mexican climate has been more inconspicuous.

150 Troopers Ill In the neighborhood of 150 sick American troopers have been brought back from the front suffering from various ills due to the climatic conditions of the Sierra Madre. Eighteen arrived yesterday. To date two have died, Lieut. Joseph W. Allison and a private, Jesse P. Taylor, both of the Thirteenth cavalry.

The base hospital at Fort Bliss in normal times provides ample facilities for the treatment of eighty men. Since the expedition in Mexico began its resources have been overstrained. An entire barracks next door has been transformed into a hospital. There is an overflow in the isolation hospital and three additional pavilions are crowded.

More Troopers Are Sent Into Mexico to Protect Line of Communications

Washington, April 4.--General Funston advised the War Department to-day he was sending more troops into Mexico from Columbus to protect the line of communication with General Pershing. He did not state whether an additional troop had been sent forward to the military base. So far General Funston has not suggested reinforcements of General Pershing's forces, except merely to protect the extended communication lines and there was no confirmation to-day of border reports that extensive additions to the fighting column would be required.

Late reports to the War Department say parts of the Fifth and Eleventh cavalry and the Twentieth and Twenty-fourth infantry were stationed at Columbus. General Funston did not state whether some of those troops had been sent across the border, or whether others had been brought from nearby stations.

More Scouts, Too Nineteen Apache scouts and trailers have been ordered from Fort Apache, Ariz., to General Pershing's column. Captain Hazard of the Tenth cavalry who was with General Funston when he captured Aguinaldo left with the scouts for the border to-day, but will not accompany them into Mexico.

The army censorship to-day veiled the number and position of the additional troops which have been sent across the border. Major General Scott, chief of staff, said the extra troops had left Columbus two days ago but no word of the movement had been allowed to leak out. It was believed that the Fifth cavalry recently sent from Fort Myer, Va., Fort Sheridan, Ills., and Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, were drawn upon.

Caught Up With Bandits by Taking Straight Road

At the Front, March 31, via aeroplane and Courier to Columbus, N. M., April 4.--The strategy whereby, after two weeks of pursuit, the Villa band under General Euliseo Hernandez was overtaken by American troops and dispersed, was revealed here to-day. The plan was to send the American column in a straight line along "the string of the bow" while Villa was taking a longer route along the "arc of the bow." Coupled with this maneuver was a general order: "Spare nothing except horseflesh."

Villa Commander at Torreon Reported Ready to Give Up

Torreón, Mex., April 4.--General Canuto Reyes, commanding the Villa forces in this locality, has sent a letter to General Trevino, Carranza commander, offering to surrender with all his forces if given amnesty. This information was given out to-day by General Erevino. Carranza authorities here say that the surrender of Reyes would break organized resistance to the de facto government and end the hopes of Villa. There is a disposition, however, to accept his offer conservatively, and it was declared that six weeks will be necessary for General Reyes to notify all his followers, and there is a possibility that this may be a ruse to gain time for Villa.

It has been frequently reported that Villa was making his way to the north of Torreon in order to effect a junction with Reyes.

Washington Hears Villa Is South of Chihuahua

Washington, D. C., April 4.--Private advice seeming to show that Villa has definitely been located south of Chihuahua were received to-day by the State Department and at once turned over to the War Department for transmission to General Pershing. Two messages came to the State Department regarding alleged location of Villa's forces, except merely to protect the extended communication lines and there was no confirmation to-day of border reports that extensive additions to the fighting column would be required.

Late reports to the War Department say parts of the Fifth and Eleventh cavalry and the Twentieth and Twenty-fourth infantry were stationed at Columbus. General Funston did not state whether some of those troops had been sent across the border, or whether others had been brought from nearby stations.

Gen. Pershing Establishes Camp Near Wilderness; Officers in Ignorance

Columbus, N. M., April 4.--General Pershing has established his camp so far into the wilderness of the Guerrer mountains, beyond the range of communication that his staff officers were obliged to report again to-day that they had no knowledge of his whereabouts. This information came in reply to requests from the War Department for a list of American casualties in the San Geronimo engagement.

Reports of heavy firing on the American line of communication held up a truck loaded with orders. Investigation proved that members of the engineering corps who are repairing the road from here to Casas Grandes had been hunting game.

German Pirate Says He Saw King and Kitchener in Vision; at Bellevue

New York, April 4.-- Clarence Reginald Hudson, alias Ernest Schiller who took possession of the British freight steamer Matoppo on the high seas, was to-day sent by Police Magistrate Koening to the psychopathic ward in Bellevue Hospital for observation for ten days. The magistrate at the same time held without bail on a technical charge Otto Milleder and George Haller, who were arrested in connection with Hudson's alleged plot to blow up the Cunard liner Panonia. When arraigned Hudson told the magistrate that while on board the Matoppo he had visions in which he saw King George and Lord Kitchener. "I saw one vision of King George at the end of the boat," he said. "I saw a vision of two generals and one was Lord Kitchener. I do not know the other, but he had a white mustache." Hudson told the magistrate also that he had a mission to start a revolution in Russia.

has blown up, causing the death or injury of 200 persons. The ministry of munitions declares the noonday fire which caused the explosions was purely accidental.

Norway, according to a Copenhagen dispatch, has asked Germany to investigate whether German submarines have been responsible for the sinking of the large number of Norwegian vessels, the loss of which has been reported recently. The Berlin war office in to-day's official statement made its first mention of the recent drive northeast of Verdun which penetrated the French lines in Caillette wood and nearby.

Dutch Mass Troops

The statement does not concede the French claim to recapture any part of the territory lost, declaring that their counter attacks made repeatedly with exceedingly heavy forces were altogether fruitless and cost them heavily in casualties. In the successful offensive in question on April 2, the Germans made 754 prisoners and captured eight machine guns.

The British claim to the capture of mine crater near St. Eloi south of Ypres, Belgium, is conceded by Berlin. Rome has received reports through

Former Dutch Minister of War Does Not Think Britain Will Land in Netherlands

Zurich that the German frontier of Holland had been closed by the Dutch government and that all available forces of the Netherlands had been massed there.

Amsterdam, via London, April 4.-- "I do not for a moment suggest there is a possibility that Great Britain intends to land her new armies on the Dutch coast," said former Minister of War Colyn to-day in an interview, regarding recent mysterious military preparations in Holland. "We have the assurance of Britain that she will respect our neutrality and we rely upon that assurance. But the question is what would Germany think of this?"

"After the Germans begin seriously to be afraid of such a contingency, namely of the landing of British troops in Holland, what influence will that have on Germany's attitude toward us? We must assume that she is acquainted with our defensive capacity. "I know that against this it may be said that the British will not make a landing in Holland and that if they tried we are quite capable of stopping a British march eastward or south-eastward."

What Steero Has That Tea or Coffee Lacks

Steero as a beverage is better than tea or coffee, safer than either, and more quickly made. Steero is satisfying because of its flavor of beef and vegetables and gently stimulating because of its heat.

Unlike coffee and tea, Steero is not an infusion of beans or herbs, depending for its effect on drug-giving the drinkers with caffeine and tannin. Why swallow drugs with your meals when you can enjoy Steero, not only without harm but with positive benefit?

People who drink Steero don't have headaches, nor do they get nervous if deprived of Steero. Steero is safe. Just pour boiling water on a Steero Cube and your beverage is ready. Try it instead of coffee and tea. If the coffee or tea habit hasn't gripped you too strongly, you will like Steero better. Steero Cubes are sold by Druggists, Grocers and Delicatessen Dealers in boxes of 12, 50 and 100 Cubes.
