DONOVAN'S BISON SHOW FORM IN FIRST OUTDOOR PRACTICE

Buffalo Players Prance About Like Two-Year-Olds on Academy Field; First Game Saturday

By "CY" KLONE Zing, bang, swat echoed from the diamond of the Harrisburg Academy to-day as twenty husky bulls of the Bison herd at last got their long-looked-for chance for a day's real work out in the open.

Shortly after nine o'clock the boys jumped into waiting autos and sped out to the grounds. With a yell they all alighted and raced for the diamond to be the first on the grounds this season.

Patsy Donovan, the veteran manager was jubilant over the chance for a real workout. He was not disappointed for they all worked almost as well as if they had been in training for several weeks.

First Game Saturday

Manager Donovan will select nine of the best players following Friday's practice for the first game of the training season to be played on the island grounds Saturday afternoon with Ira Plank's Gettysburg Collegians.

In order to select a suitable nine for Saturday's game the boys will have to go at a fair speed to-day and to-morrow, that is, the rookies, who are anxious for a chance to exhibit their goods before the eagle eye of Patsy.

A breach creating three vacancies on the team must be filled this year. First base, will beyond a doubt be held down by Johnny Hummel. This position was opened by Judge who has signed up with the Washington Nationals.

Jack Onslow, last year's catcher is experiencing no difficulty this year in loosening up his wifly, but during the first two days of indoor practice Jack was a little dubious over his throwing arm, owing to the trouble he had last year in getting the feathers properly feathered.

Considering that to-day was the first day of outdoor practice both the "vets" and the "rookies" worked well together. Providing that Friday is clear and warmer more action will be added to the routine practice by the addition of hitting and getting to first. Much of Friday's practice will be devoted to base stealing.

DENOUNCES GUARD FOR ARMY LOBBY

Chamberlain Asserts It Is Menacing Safety of U. S. War in Sight

Special to the Telegraph

Washington, April 6.—With the country upon the brink of serious trouble, the national guard organizations of the country are trying to tie its hands and prevent it from helping itself if it falls over.

This was the charge made by Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the committee on military affairs, in the senate.

The Senator from Oregon asserted that the national guard, by demanding the elimination from the army bill of the section creating a volunteer army, is attempting to dictate to Congress what military policy shall be formulated to safeguard the nation against the possible developments of present international complications.

He declared that general military service is the only certain solution of the nation's military problem, and he predicted that the activities of the national guard in attempting to compel military legislation will force the adoption of general service sooner than would otherwise be probable.

Says Country is Close to War

Senator Chamberlain started the Senate with the declaration that the country is close to war.

"In the Monroe doctrine a scrap of paper, or do we intend to set it up and maintain it?" he asked.

"In order to assert it we must be prepared to maintain it, and to do that we must have an adequate army and navy," he continued.

Democratic Chairman Will Attend Jefferson Banquet

By Associated Press

Washington D. C., April 6.—The Jefferson Day banquet to be given by the Common Council Club here on April 13 promises to be one of the most brilliant gatherings of its kind ever held, according to the committee in charge.

In addition to Democratic state chairmen from all parts of the country, many invitations have been accepted by Democratic national committeemen. More than a thousand invitations have been sent out. The list of speakers includes President Wilson, Senator Walsh, of Montana; Mr. Hoiles, of New Hampshire, and Representative Glass, of Virginia.

Roland S. Morris, chairman of the Democratic State committee of Pennsylvania, has sent out a call to state chairmen to meet here April 12 for a conference on the coming presidential and congressional campaign. WHITE WINS FIRST GAME

Carlisle, Pa., April 6.—Dickinson opened the baseball season on Biddle Field yesterday with Lebanon Valley as the opponent and went down to defeat, 12 to 0, before the masterful pitching of White, who struck out fourteen batsmen and netted only five hits. The game was well played on both sides, as neither made an error. Lebanon Valley bunched hits in the third inning and on two hits netted four runs. The team plays Bucknell, at Lewisburg, on Friday, and State College, at State College, on Saturday.

LEAGUE GROUNDS AT LEBANON

Lebanon, Pa., April 6.—Hugh McKinnon, owner of the Lebanon franchise in the Pennsylvania Baseball League, yesterday closed a deal for the leasing of the Lebanon Fair grounds where the home games are to be played. After looking over the local field McKinnon gave it as his opinion that Lebanon fans are eager for league ball after a lapse of nine years and looks with satisfaction on the prospect. Arthur Devlin, the former Giant third baseman, will manage the team and play first base, and is expected here May 1 with the players from among whom the local team will be made up. Manager Devlin is to be paid a bonus if his team finishes one, two or three.

UTICA LANDS CATCHER CARNEY

Utica, N. Y., April 6.—Another catcher has been signed by Manager Amby McConnell, of the local New York State League. He is Tom Carney, of Herkimer, N. Y. He played in the Illinois-Iowa League last year, and also has seen service in the Canadian and Western leagues. Manager McConnell is also congratulating himself on landing Frank Brower from the Phillies. Brower was in great demand among the league managers and it is said that nearly every one of them made an offer to Manager Moran, of the National League champions, for the tall youth, but Pat kept his word and sent him back to the team from which he came.

WELLY'S CORNER

Manager Pat Donovan of the Buffalo International League team believes that "a bad beginning will mean a good ending." He figures that a team that has trouble in starting practice always winds up in the lead. In plain words he picks his Buffalo herd as winners of the pennant again this season. That he has a fast bunch no one denies, and Manager Donovan knows a thing or two about whipping a team into shape.

With only two days' practice and at that but two hours outdoors the West End A. C. yesterday showed classy form against the Mercersburg Academy nine, winning the game by a score of 2 to 1. The fielding and hitting of the Harrisburg team were big factors. The local twirlers allowed but five hits. Hocker at first base was a big star for West End.
