Sara Lemer Orchestra Playing Saturday Night

By special request of the young people attending the dances held in the Chestnut Street Auditorium following the Saturday evening basketball games, these dances will be continued hereafter every Saturday evening from 8:30 until 11:30 o'clock. The music will be furnished as usual by the popular Sara Lemer Orchestra which has made for itself such a fine reputation since its organization the past winter. It is needless to say that the popularity and success of these dances in the past, has been due to the unusual "pop" and stirring music of the Lemer Orchestra and Harrisburg is to be congratulated on having such a live, up-to-date musical organization. Miss Anne Norris of Clearfield is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John M. Whitaker at 1701 North Second street.

Large Audiences Hear Stories of Mission Work

All the programs of the missionary conference held yesterday in Grace Methodist Church by the Philadelphia Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church, were most interesting and large audiences greeted all speakers.

Last evening Dr. Mary Stone, of the "Flower Kingdom," declaring the country to be "brutal, cruel and ignorant," and ascribing the conditions to the lack of Christianity, medical assistance and ignorance. Dr. Stone is president of the W. C. T. U. in China as well as a medical missionary and during a furlough in this country is taking special courses at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore.

Saturday Story Hour Indefinitely Postponed

Because of the drastic measures taken by the City Health officers to stamp out measles in the city, the Story Telling Club announces an indefinite postponement of their "Story Hour for Children" announced for Saturday afternoon in the Technical school auditorium. When another date is arranged due notice will be given through the daily papers and by posters in the city schools.

KOSER-BURNETT BRIDAL

Miss Mary Gertrude Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Burnett, of 27 South Nineteenth street, was a quiet event of noon yesterday, in York. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel H. Stein, pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church. Mr. Koser, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Koser of 39 North Thirteenth street, will take his bride home for the present.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

Shorter and shorter are the skirts of the new mode, with only an occasional period frock to drop its length to 1850 demureness, and in street dresses and suits, Paris shows skirts shorter than ever. Of course, the boots have to be high enough to meet the skirts, and the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, offers a stunning model in a beautifully finished, soft, fine, bronze kid. It is a buttoned boot, cut extra high, and with its smart Louis heel, it is especially attractive for dress wear. The advantages of bronze boots, besides their unquestionable style, is that they can be appropriately used for either dress or street wear with costumes of any color or kind. This boot, so perfectly finished and designed is a remarkable value for $7.00.

The Habit of Observation
Do you notice carefully the details of a face to the various objects in a landscape? One of the best means to cultivate the habit of close observation, for either children or older people, is amateur photography, especially in the processes of development, for as the negative develops, each little detail is watched with absorbing interest, and memory and observation are trained. The Gorgas Drug Store, 16 N. Third street, offers a full line of kodaks and supplies, having everything that even the experienced "amateur" could require. New features of kodak equipment are constantly being introduced, and all of these are offered just as soon as they come out by Gorgas.

Old and New
Old reputation and new design are two contrary attributes that are both of distinct value, and both are offered in a range made by the famous Mt. Penn Stove Works, and sold exclusively in Harrisburg by the Himes Hardware Store, 10 N. Market Square. This firm has for years offered the

Spring Vegetables
Are you a vegetarian? Even if your diet is not confined to vegetables, you will certainly enjoy some of the fresh Spring vegetables which are offered at the Studebaker Grocery Store, Second street, at the crossing of State. Rhubarb, tomatoes, green peppers, string beans, radishes, egg plant, celery, spinach, onions and cauliflower are delicious, and the spinach and rhubarb are particularly healthful to eat at this time of year as Nature's own Spring tonic. Salads, too, of lettuce, peppers, tomatoes, celery and radishes, whether separately, or in combination, are most wholesome, and Studebaker's vegetables are always so fresh and fine that the mere sight of them is tempting to the appetite.

The New Black Hats
"Simply stunning," is the invariable exclamation when one sees the new models in black lisse edged with wide lace braid, which have just been added to the charming collection shown in the French Room at Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets. One entrancing hat is low and flat in crown with brim flaring broadly at one side in unique and wonderfully becoming manner. Besides the two rows of lace braid which edge the brim, the only trimming is a bit of exquisite genuine gaura. These hats, combining the smartness of lisse with the coquettish Spanish touch of transparent black braid, have created quite a furore in New York where they have just been shown.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this—Advertisement.
