KNOW ANYTHING OF JOE GARNER?

Brother Will Writes to Recorder Lentz About Long Lost One

For more than seventeen years Will Garner hasn't seen or heard a word of his brother Joe, despite his strenuous efforts to learn something of him; now he's written to County Recorder James E. Lentz about it.

The recorder got the letter yesterday. In it Garner explained that some seventeen years ago the family was a mighty happy one in St. Mary's county, Maryland, and then the boys scattered into the world and Joe's whereabouts has never been learned. Garner doesn't believe Joe is dead—but he doesn't know.

During the last few weeks Garner has had a tip that Joe is, or was, in either Steulton or Harrisburg while working at one of the big manufacturing plants. So he has written for Mr. Lentz's assistance in running down the clue.

Now then if you know or have heard of Joe Garner pass the tip along to Recorder Lentz at the courthouse.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS
The Erie Herald prints an article in a recent issue telling of a mass meeting which was held in the Pitt Theater, Pittsburgh, under the auspices of the screen club, of which the Herald is a member. The high light in the meeting was the expression of the sentiment that the people are the best censor and the only one and competent judges, and that "one of the principal reasons why censorship must fail is because it is a menace to this big industry." It is!

"Bare-legged but decorous" is the description which the Newark Sun applies to the recent performance of the Nuit de Cleopatre, by the Ballet Russe in the metropolitan city. The story continues the critic for that newspaper, "is one of Gaudier's masterpieces and Mile. Reveilles, in her Cleopatra costume and her coolly sensual, fastidious, basilic eyes, and Egyptian poses are studies in the finest resources of graphic stage art."

The night watchman at the Famous Players studio led a very commonplace life until Marjorie Clark began work on the adaptation of "Molly-Make-Believe," a forthcoming Paramount Picture. There is a very funny scene in which the little star is seen among her pets, which include a rooster. So it cannot be wondered at that the watchman nearly fell all the way downstairs when a vociferous canticleer greeted the approaching "law" with a lusty crow just as the studio guardian was making his rounds.

Marie Empress, Balboa's leading woman, has a bit of a dog. It weighs scarcely a pound and responds to the name of "Herbert." The most heroic feature about the mite is the attention it comes in for. Recently, the dog was to be a balcony scene, but it is so small that it failed to register.

LOCAL THEATERS

Tonight
Not only is the president of State College, Dr. E. E. Sparks among the notables attending the concert of the Orpheum Theater to-night, but the Governor of the State, Martin G. Brumbaugh, is also number one for another night attending. Others occupying boxes include, Mr. and Mrs. John Price Jackson and C. Robinson, the composer. Pre-eminently the college event of the season is the first appearance of any College Musical Clubs at the theater in a great many years.

"Pollyanna"
Not in years has so much genuine heart interest centered in an American book or play as is now directed toward "Pollyanna," which comes to the Orpheum on Monday and Tuesday with the original cast assembled by Klaw and Erlanger and George Tyler. The "Pollyanna" stories, which have enormous circulation in many lands, were written by Eleanor H. Porter, of Boston. "Pollyanna" was dramatized by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, the author of "A Widow by Proxy," "The Real Thing," "The Mill," and "The Girl in the Red Coat." The comedy is in every sense one of fascinating interest, and its urgent appeal is to those who have been through the mill of experience. It does not deal with sex problems, nor does it deal with the kind of comedy who seek the theater for real diversion.

BURNED AT BRUSH FIRE
Hagerstown, Md., April 7. — Mrs. Samuel Reed, wife of a farmer living near Indian Springs, this county, was probably fatally burned yesterday afternoon by her clothing igniting at a brush fire. Nearly all Mrs. Reed's clothing was burned off and she was saved from being burned to death by her husband. Mrs. Reed was brought to the hospital and is in a precarious condition.

FIGHTING DANGEROUS FIRE
Special to the Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., April 7. — Yesterday the plant of the Hagerstown Spray Company opposite the baseball park in this city was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $7,000, partly covered by insurance. The explosion was harmless and without any appalling sentiment.

Maude Adams
There are many delightful episodes in Mr. Barrie's comedy, "The Little Minister," in which Maude Adams is to be seen at the Orpheum, Wednesday evening. As Lady Babbie, clad in gypsy dress, comes slogging through Canadian woods she is introduced to the audience. Then for the acts which follow one is under the spell of this young woman's varying moods, some winsome, some gay, some artless, some sympathetic and all with the light of fun in her eyes. It is small wonder that Gavin Dishart, the sturdy young minister of the church in Thrums, could not resist the allurements of her pretty ways.

Dropsey Treated Free
By Dr. Miles, the Great Specialist, Who Sends a $3.75 Trial Treatment Free.
Many Report Cured After Others Failed

At first no disease is apparently more harmless than dropsey; a little swelling of the eyelids, hands, feet, ankles or abdomen. Finally there is great shortness of breath, cough, faint spells, sometimes nausea and vomiting, even bursting of the limbs and a lingering and wretched death if the dropsey is not removed.

Dr. Miles has been known as a leading specialist in these diseases for 30 years. His liberal offer of a $3.75 Treatment free to all sufferers, is certainly worthy of serious consideration. You may never again have such an opportunity.

The Grand Dropsey Treatment consists of four dropsey remedies in one, also Frone Tablets and Pura-Laxa for removing the water. This treatment is specially prepared for each patient and is much more successful than that of most physicians. It usually relieves the first day, and removes swelling in six days in most cases. Delay is dangerous.

Little Belgian Actress Tells of Adventures in War Zone

Mlle. Philippine Artois, the attractive Belgian actress who gave an illustrated lecture on Belgium and Germany at the Technical High School auditorium last evening, is doing her best to be fair to both countries which she discusses in her travelogue. This is her second tour of the United States and naturally she has been criticised by many whose sympathies are with one or that country. It is a difficult position, that of the little actress, who is doing her best to refrain from showing the natural prejudice that a Belgian at this time would have against the Germans. Her lecture was very interesting and the receipts were to be equally divided between the Red Cross of this city and the general Red Cross Fund.

During two hours Mlle. Artois told of the invasion of the Germans into Belgium, how the buildings were destroyed and peasants cut down in

The largest previous amount was reported last November, when total shipments aggregated $188,000,000. The great business interest of the country is fully aware that their prosperity is largely due to the European war and there is an anxiety among most of them to provide eventually must be faced when the conflict ends.
