Buy Coal Now

There were no coal reductions Tuesday April 1. Operators and miners are still working to reach an agreement.

The mines are being operated in the meanwhile with prices subject to strike or suspension.

With the outlook so uncertain why neglect the important matter of filling your bins now for future need?

There is plenty of coal now.

GOVERNOR SILENT ON HIS RETURN TO CITY

and Secretary William H. Ball, going direct to the Executive Mansion. He did not go to the Capitol before lunch.

The Governor's silence was equaled by that of Mr. Ball, who said that there was nothing to say about anything. When asked if the letter had been found yesterday and whether it would be made public to-day, Mr. Ball returned a courteous but firm refusal to talk.

Some interesting matters have come out in the last twenty-four hours. Attorney General Brown issued a defiance and declared that the talk about the Governor compromising was what he termed "a fake."

Pittsburgh newspapers printed stories that more checks had not been accounted for, but give no details upon which they base such reports.

The Oliver check transaction got into the political situation because the Governor refused to reappoint Robert McAfee Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Philadelphia reports are that the letter was hunted for assiduously, but could not be found, and that as soon as it came to light it would be disclosed.

Pittsburgh newspapers say the Oliver's declare the Governor should issue the letter before doing anything more.

"I will say once and for all and absolutely, that any and all attempts to blackmail or drive Governor Brumbaugh from the position he has taken will fail," Brown's Challenge.
