

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO.

E. J. STACKPOLE, President and Editor-in-Chief

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carriers, six cents a week; by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

Sworn daily average circulation for the three months ending April 1, 1916.

22,432

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 10

Four things a man must learn to do: If he would make his record true; To think without confusion clearly; To love his fellow men sincerely; To act from honest motives purely.

A LESSON FROM HOLLAND

TO the Dutch, though pacifist, consider their ways and be wise. Here is a little bit of a country that but for her 500,000 trained and well-equipped men would be the happy hunting ground of the Kaiser's seaport hunting troops at this moment.

YOUNG MEN IN EARNEST

IT is pleasing to note that the summer military training camp has proved to be more than a mere last summer's fad. Officials of the Military Training Camp Association, in announcing plans for Spring and Summer camps this year, claim that 30,000 men will be enrolled.

VACILLATING AFFILIATIONS

SOME weeks ago President Wilson entered into a desperate flirtation with Senator Jimmah Lewis, while Democrats looked on and cried "Scandal!"

IN DRY TERRITORY

APRIL 1 Denver completed its first three months under the new "dry" law passed by the Colorado Legislature.

PROFESSIONAL EVANGELISTS

A WRITER in the Philadelphia Public Ledger voices the opinion a good many have held for some time when he says: "Billy" Sunday is making too much money.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

ever from church sympathy by distaste for his methods, and many preachers lost prestige in the eyes of their congregations because he made a strong point of condemning them and holding them up to the ridicule of his audiences whenever the opportunity offered.

The professional evangelist is not to be discouraged. There was Dwight L. Moody, for instance. He was neither a money grabber nor a vaudeville performer.

CLAIM UNDE CREDIT

GOODWYN RHETT, newly-elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, has been doing a little commercialogue in the Middle West.

Just to refresh Mr. Rhett's mind, let it be said that it was the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency measure, enacted by the Republican party, which pulled the country out of danger at the time the European war started.

"We are keeping in close touch with the situation," said the Treasury Department on July 31, 1914. "The Aldrich-Vreeland act... is still in force, and the terms upon which currency may be issued under that act are now so favorable that resort may be made, quickly and effectively, to it to meet any emergency."

"There is every reason why the country should look to the future with confidence so far as its trade, commerce and industry are concerned. This has been accomplished notwithstanding the fact that the Federal Reserve system authorized by the act of December 23, 1913, was at that time (when war was declared) only in process of formation and was therefore unable to render any service in the situation."

A NEW HIGH SCHOOL

THE committee in charge of plans for the construction of a new high school is right in losing no time in completing its preliminaries. The project must be pushed to completion at the earliest possible moment.

TELEGRAPH'S PERISCOPE

It would be like an administration that sent the fleet to Vera Cruz for an apology it didn't get, to send the army to Mexico for Villa and then order it home before it had time to catch him.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

The Days of Real Sport

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

While National Committeeman A. Mitchell Palmer was in Pittsburgh Saturday patching up a peace protocol with the Allegheny county Democratic bosses the Philadelphia Old Guardmen were planning their campaign to defeat him for re-election.

Palmer announced, according to the newspapers, that Ellis L. Orvis, defeated for re-election for the Center county bench, would be the ring candidate for United States Senator.

Chairman B. G. Bromley, of the Philadelphia City Democratic committee, yesterday came out for the election of Congressman Michael L. Lister, of Erie, as member of the Democratic national committee, to succeed former Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

DIXIE GOES AHEAD

The Great Sponge Market

By Frederic J. Haskin

TARPON SPRINGS, FLA.—This city claims the distinction of being the largest sponge market in the Western Hemisphere. Over a hundred schooners from their diving boats sail from its little river harbor to the sponge beds in the Gulf and a local colony of 2,000 Greeks are engaged almost wholly in the sponge business.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A member of the legislature has been found to be hopelessly insane. He was the only one tested, too.—Philadelphia North American.

THE STATE FROM DAY TO DAY

The Baroness von Uim, who shared honors with Mrs. John Jacob Astor and Mrs. Alexander B. Pratt in the spectacular tableaux at the recent Beaux Arts ball in New York City, and who made her debut on the stage last week at the Forrest Theater in Philadelphia, is very much afraid that she may possibly be like Venus, and the public nowadays demands an absolutely slender figure.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

J. P. Gaffney, the chairman of finance committee of the Philadelphia County Bar Association, and one of the younger Republican leaders of that city.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dauphin county frogs are in use in Chicago street railways? HISTORIC HARRISBURG One Day. The application of this place after trading with Indians was repairing wagons.

A Missouri Merchant

Of course, he wanted to be shown. So he made an investigation in his own store as to the effects of different kinds of manufacturers' advertising.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

Evening Chat

The fire at the Alva Hotel and Cafe, corner of Grace and Blackberry streets, on Friday evening, recalls the fact that there have been a number of fires in the past year or so in the same district in business places of that kind.

The following from the Philadelphia North American about a man well known to many here will be read with interest. It is from a Lancaster letter:

"The newspapermen of this city are regretting the retirement of Harry H. Hensel, which has been occasioned by ill health, while the readers of local papers will miss his writings from the columns of the intelligence. For thirty-nine years Mr. Hensel has been in continuous service as a reporter on this paper, and until quite recently had not missed many days from the columns of the intelligence on account of illness, but with as much interest as a proprietor might have evinced, had labored indefatigably in his contributions to make the columns of the intelligence interesting. In his long career as a reporter he had witnessed and recorded many notable happenings and local events, and had perhaps the widest acquaintance of any scattered friends who delighted in furnishing him with interesting news than any man in the local profession. Mr. Hensel had natural love for many sports and was ever interested in turning out an interesting tale for the city, as a result of which he was brought in close contact with theatrical people, and has numbered among his acquaintances some of the noted actors, boxers, circus people and sportsmen from the period of 1880 until the present time.

Apparently it takes more than cold weather and squirrels to keep the birds away from Capital park because yesterday in spite of the fall of snow there were seven robins, two blackbirds and a yellow bird somewhat resembling the old-fashioned salad bird seen in the streets and the main entrance to the Capitol. The usual number of pigeons and sparrows was about and all were as eager for the attention of passerby as the squirrels.

There appears to be some discussion among the numerous amateur gardeners of Harrisburg whether the snow fall of Saturday was a "good" one of blessed memory or whether it was just an ordinary Spring snow such as has been known in many years, but it was unusually deep. An old farmer who was on a car this morning ended one discussion by saying: "One of the worst snows I remember came on May 1. That was some years ago. I remember it as a worthwhile snow."

Traveling men who were here Sunday say that the snow which fell on Saturday was a general one all over the central and eastern part of the State. One man who came from New York State said that there had been more snow there than here and that his history said that Maryland got some of it, too.

The effect of the recent high water upon the "Front Steps" of the city is being watched by a number of other cities of the State, whose observation of the municipal improvements in Harrisburg has been keen and in a number of instances followed by imitations. It is noted that there will be many visitors to this city to attend meetings and they will all be noting the water front.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

WAYWARD WILLIE. Willie banged his sister's head 'Gains the side wall fast and faster. Mamma only sighed and said, Gently, dear—you'll break the plaster.