Miss Clark Is Attending State Suffrage Meeting

Miss Helen C. Clark, State Secretary of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association left today for Williamsport to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Association and a general conference of Lycoming County suffragists. The holding of board meetings away from Harrisburg marks a departure in suffrage affairs. Heretofore these meetings, at which the policy of the State Association is mapped out, have been held once a month at State Headquarters in this city. It is probable that in future they will at intervals be held at important points throughout the State. In addition to suffrage business the Williamsport Conference includes a luncheon and an informal tea to the board members and the Lycoming county delegates.

The Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association comprises: President, Mrs. George B. Orlandy, Huntingdon; vice-presidents, Mrs. John O. Miller, of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Lewis L. Smith of Strasburg, Mrs. Edward E. Kiernan of Somerset, Mrs. James P. Rogers of Warren; President M. Carey Thomas, Bryn Mawr College; Mrs. H. H. Harvey of Wilkes-Barre, Secretary; Miss Helen C. Clark of Harrisburg, Treasurer; Mrs. R. Fleming Allen of Williamsport, Auditors; Mrs. H. Wilfred DuPuy of Pittsburgh, Mrs. R. L. Schrover of Sellersville, Pennsylvania Member National Executive Council, Mrs. Joseph Head, Philadelphia; Chairman of Finance, Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, Media; State Chairman Pro Tem of the Woman Suffrage Party, Mrs. John O. Miller, Pittsburgh.

DRUGGISTS IN EVERY STATE RELY ON THIS KIDNEY MEDICINE

We have been handling Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for twelve years and during that time we have not received a single complaint from those who have used it. All speak in the highest terms of the good results obtained from its use. We know of cases of Catarrh, or Inflammation of the Bladder and Liver trouble where Swamp-Root proved very valuable. One old lady 80 years old will not be without Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. It is a cunning novelty is a good medicine in the diseases for which it is intended. Very truly yours, ALLARD & TROTMAN, Druggists, Klondike, Texas, November 11th, 1915.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MANY BUY LITTLE BELGIAN FLAGS

Local Chapter D. A. R. Makes Contribution to Commission Belgian Relief

The final sale of flags for the Belgian relief by the local D. A. R. was made yesterday, and while all reports are not yet in it is estimated that Harrisburg Chapter will contribute over $50 through King Albert's birthday offering to the combatants suffering in that little country. This is extremely gratifying to the chapter, for most of the members have already given liberally to war relief in its various phases and are still actively working for the Red Cross.

Yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the John Y. Boyd hall of the Y. W. C. A. with an attendance of about ninety. Miss Cora Lee Snyder, the regent, presided and after the opening exercises Mrs. Mary Eowser McCrea, recording secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were duly accepted. Nominations for officers to be elected at the annual meeting on May 19 were made and the regent appointed Mrs. Frederick Herman Marsh, Mrs. Harry C. Ross and Mrs. Harry F. French as tellers. On the auditing committee to meet with the treasurer are Miss Grace MacClinton and Miss Katharine Smith.

Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., the historian, presented current events and it was announced that the regent, Miss Snyder, and Mrs. Levi Brandt, chapter delegate, will represent Harrisburg Chapter at the national congress in Washington, D. C., next week. Miss Margaret Maze, a pupil of Frederic C. Marten's, gave a piano number, "Liebestraum," by Franz Liszt, in delightful fashion, receiving hearty commendation for her playing, and Mrs. W. Emory Hamilton, whose beautiful soprano voice is often in demand for occasions of this kind, sang charmingly two compositions by American composers, "The Rose in the Garden," Neidinger, and "April Weather," Rogers, the audience expressing its pleasure of her work by prolonged applause.

Then came the picture talk by Ernst Morrell, of the Bettyhill Nursery, on "Old-Fashioned Gardens," with its beautiful views of formal planting of shrubbery, perennials and annuals, as well as single sprays of various flowers of Grandmother's day now so much in demand by garden lovers. Mr. Morrell is full of his subject and no one is better able to present it than he who loves the great out of doors.

The meeting adjourned by singing "America" and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones invited the ladies to remain for her class in current events.

John Henry Gaston, of Newark, N. J. was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Willis of North Third street. Miss Fannie M. Eby was hostess yesterday at a luncheon of ten covers in compliment to Mrs. Easton of Iowa who is visiting in this vicinity.

FINE RENDITION OF A GREEK PLAY

Mrs. Wheeler, Clever English Actress, Reads For College Club and Guests

Before a brilliant and appreciative audience in the main drawing room of the Executive Mansion last evening, Mrs. Penelope Wheeler of London, Eng., gave a reading of the old Greek tragedy, "Electra," by Euripides for the College Club of Harrisburg with Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh as hosts. Tall, slender, with luxuriant black hair fastened in a Grecian knot at the nape of her neck and attired in picturesque draperies appropriate to the people and place of the narrative, Mrs. Wheeler was a delight to the eye.

Her well trained voice with its pronounced English accent ran the whole gamut of human emotions. Hate, fear, love, sorrow, exultation were all most wonderfully expressed. It was not reading—it was acting with a true sense of dramatic values and knowledge of the mastering complicated literary situations. The artist's deep, age-old passions of the human race lived for her audience in the struggles and temptations of these ancient Greeks.

There was the wise philosophy of the peasant who asked not for wealth because "Once a man is done with hunger, rich and poor are all as one."

There was the blood thirst of revenge causing "Electra" and "Aristo" to murder their mother, sister of the famed Helen of Troy, because she had killed "Agamemnon," their father, King of Argos. And through it all ran the golden thread of the love of a sister and brother for the mother who bore them, hated and despised though she was. Even as they slew her Naubolpe, they grieved together for her loss.

Mrs. Wheeler is a well known actress in her own country and has appeared extensively in Greek drama. For two years she acted at the English stage. Five weeks ago she came to America for the first time to start an tour with parlor impersonations. She has acted before various literary and educational societies starting at Bryn Mawr.

"Things at home are so dreadfully dull because of the war," she remarked during the social hour which followed her reading. "I thought this would be a good way to fill in my time at present. The very day I arrived in America my manager told me he had only booked me for a few appearances. I had no time to even rest from the trip! Miss Terry has often said to me, 'Go to America! Go to America!' So here I am and I find you delightful."

The Rev. Dr. James Fry Bullitt introduced Mrs. Wheeler to her audience with a few appropriate remarks in which he spoke of Euripides as the medium of expression for all his characters.

The Mansion was tastefully decorated for the entertainment of the College Club and their guests with palms and ferns, yellow and white prevailing in the upper room where the table was banked with a huge mound of daffodils.

Receiving with Mrs. Brumbaugh were Mrs. Lewis E. Johnson, president of the club, Mrs. George B. Kunkel and Mrs. Harvey Smith.

Among the guests Mrs. Judge Arthur Kunkel, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Downes, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James Bullitt, Mrs. Rollin Alger Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Omer, Mrs. Thomas Williamson, Mrs. George Edward Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker, Mrs. Robert F. Bellevue Park Assoc. Elects New Officers

The first annual meeting of the members of the Bellevue Park Association was held at its office in Bellevue Park on Monday evening. The report of the board of directors was read and approved, showing that has been accomplished since permanent organization was effected last Fall.

The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: N. E. Hauser, president; the Rev. J. F. Bullitt, vice-president; Walter E. Dietrich, secretary; J. Horace McFarland, Miller I. Kast, Lewis F. Haelhenn and John Heathcote, Frank G. Fahnstock was elected treasurer.

Plans have been made for paving the streets in the residence portion of the park and for the improvement in the appearance of those paved last Fall by planting and seeding. Frequent meetings are held by the directors and the committee work is enthusiastically entered into. The park deservedly ranks as one of the most attractive parks in Harrisburg, and the association evidently means to make it more so.

Reception to Pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church

Thursday evening the congregation of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church of this city gave a reception to the new pastor, the Rev. William Moses, and his family, who comes to succeed the Rev. H. B. Runyan, who has retired from St. Paul's, the Rev. Robert Runyan, has been transferred.

The occasion was a delightful one, the program comprising instruments and musical selections and addresses of welcome by the Rev. S. C. Swallow, the Rev. R. H. Colburn, a former pastor of St. Paul's, the Rev. W. W. Wedenhammer, William Hare presided and welcomed the new pastor and family on behalf of the congregation, presenting a beautiful bouquet to Mrs. Moses.

The Rev. Mr. Moses responded and a social hour followed, during which refreshments were served. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presence of a large delegation of friends from Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, of this city, a charge served by the Rev. Mr. Moses fifteen years ago.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them. To do this get about two ounces of plain powdered norexin from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts without any marks whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get them out after they become hard. The powdered norexin and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly bumps should certainly try this simple method.—Advertisement.

LOOSE-WILES BISCUIT COMPANY

Who sent me this song? It looks like Sam Short's writing, but he's not smart enough to make it up: Yankee Doodle—up to date. Yankee Doodle went to town To buy a stick of candy He said, "While I am here to-day, Two sticks would come in handy."

CHORUS Yankee Doodle, SAVE-A-CENT Yankee Doodle Dandy. Yankee Doodle, SAVE-A-CENT And get two sticks of candy.

(2) Yankee Doodle saw a sign "Buy groceries of Save-A-Cent." He said, "I'll buy this scouring stuff Then get my stick of Candy."

(3) He asked the grocer for three cans of ten-cent scouring powder. The grocer said, "A four-cent can of SAVE-A-CENT does more work, more easily and better."

If you can sing that last line, you can do better than Yours sincerely, SUSIE SMART.

SAVE-A-CENT Soft Scouring Compound

Soft Scouring Compound does everything any scouring powder does, does it more easily and lasts as long as any three 10c cans, because it does not waste. Yet it costs only 4c, while cans of scouring powder cost 5c and 10c.

At All Good Grocers

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

All the pleasantest thoughts of Easter are embodied in the charming Rust Craft novelties shown by the Marianne Kindermarkt, 220 Locust street. The dainty little envelopes, so gaily decorated with Springtime blossoms, and containing seed with which to grow mignonette, bachelor's buttons and all the flowers of old-fashioned gardens, bring an Easter message of friendliness, and these little packets all ready to mail sell for 15c, while dainty boxes, containing seed and directions for planting, as well as the Easter greeting, sell for just 25c. A cunning novelty is a box containing two blue and white egg cups, also offered for just 25c.

Threefold Pleasure. All pleasure should be threefold, including anticipation, realization and memory, and nothing helps to triple pleasure more than the possession of a kodak. An excursion is planned with more interest if a kodak is included in the equipment, for certainly jollity and good fun reign, when "snaps" are being taken, and the joys of a day's excursion live for years in memory if the pictures are kept. No matter what your requirements in the way of kodaks or supplies, you will find all your wants satisfied at the George's Drug Store, 18 N. Third street, where a complete line is offered.

New Footwear. A new pump of distinctly good style is shown at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street. It is in black patent leather, with the smart lines of all Walk-Over footwear, and a graceful Louis heel. The model is very simple in design, but distinction is given by an odd touch at the top of the vamp, where a bit of a buckle, about as big as a nut, is placed, having two little insets of white. It is just enough to be clever and attractive and still conform to the simplicity which good taste demands. This model is an unusual value at $3.50.
