$1,000 in Two Hours; More Goods Are Needed

Fourteen out of fifteen departments reported a sum total of $993 received. One bargain department had not had the opportunity of counting the myriad of nickets and pennies which inundated the money box.

Auto in front of store brought $1100. $100

$100.

Hunting cart brought $20.

Contributed by men who declined to accept their purchases, $100.

The committee appealed this afternoon for more contributions. If you have anything to give, call Bell 174J and a vehicle will be sent for it. out being dented out of shape by the huge crowd that swarmed into the store at the first opening of the doors. It was a good-natured crowd, however, and the bluecoats that were on the job to preserve order had no difficulty in keeping the surging mob in a good humor.

Sales Are Efficiently Handled Sales Are Efficiently Handled
Behind the counters are many of Harrisburg's prettiest girls and most charming ladies, and to refuse to buy their wares is entirely out of the question. One is just simply made to feel the need of this beautiful lamp or that attractive picture, and the reasonableness of the price is beyond human conception. The best bargains were snapped up early in the day, but contributions are steadily pouring in and every minute there are new bargains
placed upon the counters.

Somewhat back of the center of the main floor is a little information booth,
and from that place of vantage quick orders are transmitted from the general-in-charge to her efficient lleutenants, and it would be well for the big treasures.

NOTICE is hereby given that F. R. RUSHEY. Administrator of the estate of the above named decedent has presented his Petition to the Orphans' Court of Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, and it would be well for the big store managers to visit this amateur sales department if they would get a few pointers on how the thing should really be run. Miss Frances Morrison, chairman of the sporting goods department and one of the most active figures in the campaign, needs a big supply of roller skates, tennis racquets, golf sticks, fencing foils, baseball gloves and bate and other sporting paraphernalia. The skates, tennis racquets, golf sticks, fencing foils, baseball gloves and bate and other sporting paraphernalia. The demand for these articles has been great, as has also the sale of pictures and bric-a-brac, a number of which went for four and five dollars.

The wellknown capacity of the species goat would be taxed to the utmost to handle the wonderful variety and assortment of bargains that are selling at a crying sacrifice. Razors, guns, overcoats, straw hats and high hats, pillow cases and hot cross buns. Easter bunnies and evening gowns, lamp shades and secondhand shoes, nail files and whistles, parasols and trousers, music boxes, books, chairs and tables, desks and davenports, antiques of all description—there isn't anything you want that you can't get, and the service is the best.

Don't put it off! What you need may be gone ten minutes before you arrive. A corps of floorwalkers will direct you to whatever department you desire. To-day 's the day! And so are to-morrow and Saturday.
