NEW YORK TRIBUNE FOR ROOSEVELT

Colonel Roosevelt and no "pussy-footing" The Tribune likes this candidate and this issue. It regards Senator Root, its favorite so long as he had a chance of nomination, as now virtually eliminated. It cannot interpret any more hopefully the failure of the "oxygen treatment" which his candidacy received, in the shape of the manifesto with seventy-five signers. The party thinks that Mr. Root would not be so likely to win as either Colonel Roosevelt or Justice Hughes, and it wants him as Secretary of State in the next Republican administration, since it cannot have him as President. Country Needs Roosevelt "We are for Colonel Roosevelt because we believe the country needs

Prospects of Favorable Action on Nitrate Plant

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Debate on the army reorganization bill was continued in the Senate to-day with prospects of favorable action on the proposed government nitrate plant for the manufacture of powder in war times and fertilizer in peace. An amendment proposed by Senator Smith, of South Carolina, provides for a plant to cost $15,000,000, the surplus acid over what may be needed for powder to be used for the manufacture of fertilizer to be sold to the farmers by the government.

him. No one else will quicken the pulse of the nation as he will quicken it. No one else will stir the conscience of the people as he will stir it. No one else will inspire patriotism as he will inspire it.

"No one else personifies the issue which the Republican party must make as he personifies it. No one else presents so effective an antithesis to Wilson as he. If we are Americans, real Americans, the Colonel is our man. While timid politicians were consulting the census books and counting the German vote, he spoke and the country hearkened. He is the leader in the fight for Americanism, and we don't believe in changing leaders when we are going to the front.

"We are for Colonel Roosevelt in spite of the fact that we were against him four years ago. No one fought him harder than we. No one will fight harder for him. It has not been easy to put aside our pride, our sense of resentment at what occurred in 1912, and the hundred other things that tend to keep alive our animosity. But we put them aside and are putting them aside because we feel that they have no place in a crisis like this.

"We come out for Colonel Roosevelt as a Republican newspaper, intending to remain Republican, and we feel that in doing so we are doing the best thing, not only for the nation, but for the Republican party.

Sees No Other Leader

"We might have preferred another leader, but there is no other leader. Justice Hughes might have spoken if he had been free to speak. Indeed, we feel sure he would have spoken, and for Americanism, had silence not been imposed upon him, and then we should have preferred him. But the plain fact is that he did not speak, that he could not speak.

"If the justice should be chosen leader in the fight for a worthier nationalism, he would be a torch to the torch that Colonel Roosevelt has thus far borne. He would have to accept an issue that meant its most only in another man's hands. We would feel that we should lose our stride. As a people we should feel that we had hung back, that we hadn't gone the limit in the true American way. The governments of Europe would feel this, too. They would conclude that we meant to temporize.

"Something would be lost of the moral effect of having a man who represents the purpose of this country as no one else does or can.

"The Colonel stands for the things the Tribune stands for. These things will be advanced more by his nomination than by any other nomination that can be made. The Tribune must support him.

"We are doing more this year than choosing a new President. We are choosing which way the country shall go in the era that is now opening, just as our fathers chose the nation's path in the days of 1860."

Roosevelt Does Not Want Fight to Nominate Him; Desires Unanimous Call

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has informed two of his closest friends in Washington that he would prefer that no fight be made for delegates pledged to him in any State in the Union. He said that he preferred nonaction in Massachusetts as well as in Pennsylvania. His reason for desiring that no fight be made in his behalf is a practical one. It is merely that he is convinced that if he should be nominated at all, it must come not as result of a fight, but as a result of an unanimous call from the Republican party.

Colonel Roosevelt has expressed the opinion that this is no time for a fight within the Republican party. Admittedly he would like the nomination for himself. His second choice is Major-General Leonard Wood. Failing to bring about his own nomination, or that of General Wood, he will be satisfied with any candidate who is committed to a firm foreign policy and real military preparedness. There are only a few candidates whom he has indicated he will not support actively.

Roosevelt followers broke the Republican slate in yesterday's primary election in Illinois.

Theodore Roosevelt will get at least two votes from Illinois in the national convention, according to latest returns. City Treasurer Charles H. Sergel, in the Second, and City Clerk Job Sherman, in the Sixth district, upset the program, which provided for a solid delegation with fifty-eight votes for Senator L. Y. Sherman for President. They were elected as district delegates, and will vote for Roosevelt.

Sherman's name was the only one printed on the Republican ballot, and the Roosevelt voters had to write his name in.

Again, the Roosevelt people attach great importance to the fact that McGill McCormick, an avowed Roosevelt man, led the delegate-at-large ticket with 77,862 votes, while Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, an avowed Sherman man, ran seventh or eighth with 70,774.

Though most of the delegation is instructed, for Sherman, it is expected in Roosevelt circles that after the favorite son has been disposed of Illinois will swing into line for Roosevelt.
