Work of Mountain Women Shows Old-Time Crafts

There will be a beautiful exhibition of work of the southern mountaineer women at the home of Mrs. John C. Stine, the Reynard, 208 North Third street, and an Easter sale, Monday and Tuesday of next week, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The baskets and weavings are made by the poor women of North Carolina, who seldom go beyond their own dooryards and to whom a new interest, the pleasure of producing beautiful work is a great benefit; many live remote from the railroads in the mountain valleys and coves and every few weeks bring their work, on horseback, to the Allanstead cottage industries at Asheville, N. C., which acts as a clearing house for this work, and is helping greatly by providing a market, to save from extinction the old-time crafts of basketry and weaving. The baskets splints of oak and willow are dyed with colors made from roots, bark, leaves and flowers and every traditional shape, the melon, old Kentucky troy, etc.

Some pottery from Candler, N. C. will also be on sale and a vase which was designed and sold for the Pittsburgh Old Welfare work. It was copied from a handsome Italian piece and made in effective pottery and is artistic and practical for flowers. Any one interested in such work is welcome. Tea will be served.

Miss Nelle Gaines, of Pittsburgh, left for home to-day after a ten days' visit with Steelton and Harrisburg relatives.

TIRED LOOKING WOMEN

Some women always wear a worn, tired look. It is the outward sign of nervousness, neurasthenia perhaps, with its characteristic symptoms of worry, headaches and sleeplessness. Overwork, grief, undue excitement, the late hours and nervous strain of a strenuous social season, lack of outdoor exercise, any or all of these, but the most common cause at this season of the year is the grip.

Whatever the cause, if you feel the need of more strength try the great non-alcoholic tonic, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed toward building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50. Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and a diet book. Address: Dr. Williams Medical Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

New footwear for Easter is imperative, and with Easter so late this year, many will be ready for pumps. A splendid idea is to buy a pair of pumps which may be worn with spats on the cooler days of Spring, and several models especially well-designed for the purpose are shown by the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street. One is in a beautiful dull-finished kid with smart graceful heel and welt sole for walking. Another very smart model is in patent leather of similar design, and this is an especial favorite with the well-dressed woman who wishes to wear it with spats. Either of these attractive models may be bought for just $3.50.

Easter Suggestions

All aglow with the spirit of Easter is the Gorgas Drug Store, 16 North Third street, where one may always see new and seasonal displays. Just now the window filled with Guth Easter eggs is tempting both children and grown-ups, for these delicious cream eggs, coated with chocolate, are of recognized quality. They are attractively packed in boxes which sell for just 25c. Easter egg dyes in all the favored hues are offered, too, by Gorgas' as are and the pack while the marble dyes are just for a bottle. Very cunning Easter post cards are also shown in pleasing assortment at popular prices and the special display of boxed chocolates offer splendid Easter suggestions.

Just the Coat For Spring

Smart, snappy and up-to-date are the new coats offered by Astrich's, Fourth and Market street, for general Spring and summer wear. One model which was just received is especially good. It is a black and white mixture, cut to flare smartly from the shoulders, with patch pockets, and big buttons, to give a jaunty finish. It is just the sort of coat which "fits in" for any occasion and can be worn with frocks of any color or kind. It is a very special value for to-morrow at $5.00. For sport wear, Astrich's show a splendid model in lovely shades of rose or blue, in velour finished-fabric with collar and loose-

Easter Remembrances

The custom of giving a little Easter remembrance to one's friends, is growing every year, and so temptingly lovely are the little novelties seen in the French Shop, (Miss Swape), 208 North Third street, that each seems to suggest a gift. Like a bed of Spring blossoms are the dainty Swiss handkerchiefs of pure white linen, exquisitely embroidered in pastel colorings. The Italian crest embroidery, too, is a smart novelty, and one of these charming 'kerchiefs are offered for 25c. Beautifully decorated boxes, containing six handkerchiefs with tiny colored hems and the same dainty embroidery are sold for 75c.
