

A Woman's Problem

How to Feel Well During Middle Life Told by Three Women Who Learned from Experience.

The Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Read these letters:—

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I started the Change of Life five years ago. I always had a headache and backache with bearing down pains and I would have heat flashes very bad at times with dizzy spells and nervous feelings. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new person and am in better health and no more troubled with the aches and pains I had before I took your wonderful remedy. I recommend it to my friends for I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. MARGARET GRASSMAN, 759 N. Ringgold St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly, Mass.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for nervousness and dyspepsia, when I was going through the Change of Life. I found it very helpful and I have always spoken of it to other women who suffer as I did and have had them try it and they also have received good results from it."—Mrs. GEORGE A. DUNBAR, 17 Roundy St., Beverly, Mass.

Erie, Pa.—"I was in poor health when the Change of Life started with me and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, or I think I should not have got over it as easy as I did. Even now if I do not feel good I take the Compound and it restores me in a short time. I will praise your remedies to every woman for it may help them as it has me."—Mrs. E. KISSLING, 931 East 24th St., Erie, Pa.

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Blessing, of 239 South street, announce the birth of a daughter, Mildred Mary Blessing, on Saturday April 8, 1916.

The crush that the big plate glass front of one of the show windows was shattered to bits and the patient and genial officer in charge of the incoming bargain-hunters, Lyman Dutton, had his hands full enough. And good old "Merky" Tate, with his all-persuasive voice, permitting no loafing on the job. Alas, however, late news reports that "Merky" has been de-noted and is now "measuring" goods. He was ably supported this morning by the most popular of the bargain store, signifying the presence of John Sweeney, who "floorwalked" with the experience and "savoir faire" of an old-timer.

The money still rolls in at the same rapid pace, closely rivaling the splendid average of three and one-half dollars a minute which prevailed yesterday. A friendly rivalry between the different departments keeps the excitement of the sales at a high pitch, and all the salesladies seem to be in good spirits and rare selling form. The demand for more contributions is being partially met, but there must be a big increase to-day and to-night if the supply is to meet the demand on the last day to-morrow. A clean sweep is looked for, and that too in spite of the fact that many cash contributions have been coming in from those who want to help the cause along and yet do not like making any purchases. The treasurer, Mrs. Meade Detweiler, announced this morning that there is no embargo on cash contributions and that the committee has no objections to having the few hundred dollars that have already been given augmented.

Three Kittens for Sale

Anybody want to buy three of the sweetest little kittens in the city? They were contributed to-day by the little son of ex-Mayor John K. Royal with the request that they be given the best of care, so they must be valuable and ought to bring a good price. The baby that was left under the counter yesterday morning while the mother "rummaged" was, fortunately, not sold in the excitement of the moment, but it was sold in spite among those present this morning. The gift of Mrs. Herman Astrich yesterday of a small runabout which sold for $100 was duplicated to-day by Lee Goldsmith's presentation of an electric runabout, for the possession of which it is expected competition will be keen. Four wagons and a player piano, to say nothing of an organ, which came from 1506 Regina street, and a regular piano that Frank O. Horting presented, were additional big gifts that are sure to boost the receipts tremendously.

Members of the police force have been doing yeoman service, not only in handling the crowds, but also in aiding materially in the sales. And they seem to be enjoying themselves. Captain Thompson, Lyman Dutton, George Wiesman, M. Kepford, Herman Kautz, John Hess and a number of others have taken turns in maintaining the little order that is needed, and all express pleasure at the good humor of the thousands that have flocked in and out of the store.

The army of salesladies is becoming more efficient all the time under the capable general management of Mrs. Olmsted, Miss Anna McCormick and Miss Hester. All are doing a splendid work and all share equally in the credit which, expressed and unexpressed, is theirs. Although there have been a number of relays, there are many who have worked through every hour of the sale and are determined to continue until exhaustion overcomes them or the house is sold out. It is a revelation in endurance.

It is a safe estimate that the total sales for the two days, up to noon to-day, are well over three thousand dollars. There must be a restocking of men's clothing and women's and children's hats, however, if the maximum is to be reached. Here are some of the force that is making a record for this and other cities in the matter of rummage sales that will take some tall hustling on a future occasion to duplicate: Furniture Department—Miss Martha Buehler and Mrs. Albert M. Chesley. Kitchen Utensils—Mrs. W. C. Graham, Mrs. Benjamin Strouse, Mrs.
