Small Boys Steal Bank Containing Battleship Fund at Rose's Store

Special to the Telegraph

With their sense of patriotism somewhat dulled, three little boys ranging in age from 8 to 11 years, made away with a small iron bank containing over three dollars in small change, from the counter of John Rose's confectionary store, Second and Walnut streets. The dime and quarters had been tributed by small boys and girls as their share in building the battleship which little Marjorie Sterrett started by sending a dime to the New York Tribune last month. The boys took the bank at 2:30 this afternoon and ran rapidly away from the store. A lady saw them and notified an officer.

How Physiologists Regard Coffee

In a recent article, Dr. W. A. Evans, editor of the "How to Keep Well" column of the Chicago Tribune, says:

"In order that no misunderstanding may arise, I should say that physiologists regard Coffee, Tea, Tobacco and Whiskey as drugs in the same sense as Opium and Cocaine are. From coffee at one end of the line to cocaine at the other, no pot has the right to call the kettle black."

The average cup of coffee contains about 2 1/2 grains of caffeine, a habit-forming drug—not enough in one cup to seriously harm. But, when used regularly, it is for many the cause of sleeplessness, nervousness, heart trouble, mental and physical fatigue, and a host of other complaints.

POSTUM

on the other hand, is a pure food-drink made of roasted wheat and a little molasses. It tastes much like coffee, but contains no caffeine nor other injurious drug.

Postum comes in two forms: The original Postum Cereal, which must be boiled; 15c and 25c packages; and Instant Postum, a soluble form that produces the beverage instantly—a level teaspoonful to a cup of hot water; 30c and 50c tins. Both forms are equally delicious, and the cost is about the same—one-half cent per cup.

Even a ten-day trial will place the average person far enough away from coffee trouble to prove
