LEAGUE BOOSTERS READY FOR TRIP

Go to Altoona This Afternoon For Conference; Take in Johnstown Tomorrow

Pennsylvania State League officials were here to-day prior to starting a trip over the circuit. It is the purpose to visit every city before Friday and make a complete report of conditions at the meeting in Lebanon Friday night.

Hugh McKinnon, who will lead the boosting committee, has planned to visit Altoona to-day. He will be accompanied by J. Percy Stetler, George Lee, the Canadian manager, who will put his team in the Mountain City; George Washington Hecker, of York, and Leo Grooms, owner of the Harrisburg franchise.

To Meet Businessmen

It is understood that the boosters will meet a number of businessmen and members of the Chamber of Commerce to-night and arrange for taking over the grounds at Juniata. Johnstown will be visited to-morrow and the committee will return to Harrisburg to-morrow night. York, Lancaster and Lebanon are on the schedule for Wednesday and Reading and Allentown Thursday. As the committee does not know how much time will be required in each city, no definite schedule for arrival and departure has been made.

Leo Grooms will locate in Harrisburg Thursday and open club headquarters. In the meantime the work of completing the schedule for publication on Wednesday is progressing. Four games have been added, making a total of 112 for each team.

City Gold Mines The Poultry Season Is Open Now's the time to put into execution that resolution you made last winter—to raise your own eggs. A few good fowls in the back yard may well be likened to a gold mine at the back door. Raise your own chickens this summer—raise your own eggs next winter! Turn now to the live stock and poultry column of the WANT AD page of to-day's Telegraph, where fanciers are offering excellent strains of poultry to those who want good stock.

Syracuse Star to Enter Pole Vault Event

SID CURTIS.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 17.—"Sid" Curtis, of Syracuse University, who won the pole vault two years ago here at the Relay Carnival held by the University of Pennsylvania with a leap of 12 feet, 6 inches, is again in shape and will be a strong contender in this year's relay the latter part of this month. Last year Curtis sprained his knees and was unable to do himself justice. Since 1907 the pole vault has been won but once with a leap of less than 12 feet. It is expected that the winner in the event this year will have to go to at least 12 feet and 10 inches.

DONOVAN'S CREW QUILTS HARRISBURG

Play Virginia State League Team This Week; Kind Words About This City

Patsy Donovan with his Buffalo warriors left yesterday afternoon for Virginia. This week the Bisons will be busy with exhibition games. They play Virginia State League teams. Before his departure Patsy Donovan said: "This is a great baseball town and I regret that weather conditions interfered with games. We have been treated very courteously and I feel grateful toward Harrisburg. I hope to see in the near future an International League team. I believe it would get all the support necessary here."

The Internationals played the Motive Power team and won by a score of 6 to 1. The game was interesting. The railroaders fielded in good style but were unable to hit. Batsy was fast and had a batting rally in the fourth inning. The score:

Motor Federation Meets; Plans Gasoline Probe

Altoona, Pa., April 17.—A committee to investigate the high cost of gasoline was organized at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation here Saturday and a report will be made to the Executive Committee. The federation also recommended the passage of State legislation specifying what proportion of motor license fees shall be set apart for highway improvement, a law compelling registration of all motor vehicles and the setting aside of one-half mill property tax for the use of the State Highway Department in road building and repairing.

Virtually all of the fifty-five motor clubs were represented. The membership now is 9,010, and the treasurer's report showed $9,642 spent last year and $10,215 on hand. These officers were re-elected: President, Robert L. Hooper, of Philadelphia; secretary-treasurer, Paul C. Wolf, of Pittsburgh; chairman executive committee, H. E. Batchelder, of Philadelphia.

Successful Trout Anglers Report Big Opening Catches

Cloudy streams proved a boon to some trout fishermen on Saturday, but in many places the high water made good fishing impossible. There were some large catches, but according to reports received in Harrisburg, the first day reports were behind those of last year. Some big fish were caught. Many of the anglers who were out Saturday remained over until to-day. Others who could not get away were out to-day. The Harrisburgers who were successful were: George Cook, 8; J. W. Plowman, 6; Boyd Rothrock, 10; O. L. Gatz, 8; L. B. Worden, 14; Professor W. H. Pomp, 16; W. J. Durbow, 16; J. Durbow, 6; Frank Martin, 22; A. B. Landes, 8; A. M. Bowman, 11; B. F. Nead, 15; George Cook, 12; W. W. Drawbaugh, 18; George Ensign, 12.

Boy Pulls Out Real Money; Thought He Had Big Trout

Waynesboro, Pa., April 17.—Two boys, Brown and Seelye, went fishing for suckers below town. Brown thought he had a bite and pulled. He had something on his hook that looked like a lizard. He pulled in his line for further examination, and there was a genuine dollar bill. It was washed, dried, and declared "current coin of the realm." Since that time, the "bank" below the iron bridge where this specimen of piscatorial long green was fished out has been lined with boys daily, trying their luck.

Middleweight Wrestler Takes Up Law Studies

PAUL BOWSER.

Newark, O., April 17.—Paul Bowser of this city, who recently defeated Joe Turner, and so became middleweight catch-as-catch-can wrestling champion, started to be a lawyer but switched to the mat game. Bowser entered Beaver Falls College, at Beaver Falls, Pa., and studied law until within one year of graduation. Then the curriculum of the school was changed and the law course was dropped. Instead of going to another school Bowser left off his studies and took up wrestling as a profession.

Bits From Sportland

Frankie Erne, the former Harrisburg boy is making good as a manager and trainer at Lancaster. He conducts a successful gymnasium in that city and every two weeks has a series of boxing matches. Erne is anxious to fight in Harrisburg and the manager who lands him first will be getting a strong attraction. On Thursday night Erne will have a show. His windup will be between Tim Droncy and Paddy Sylvester who put a great fight in Harrisburg one week ago.

The University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival, April 23-25, will bring together this year practically all of the champions and record holders from college either in the east or west. The big attraction this year will be the competition between the best men from all institutions who have already entered. The closing entries found 80 colleges and 250 school teams entered.

Allentown's Atlantic League team played its first game yesterday, losing to Mike O'Neil's Syracuse team, score 7 to 1. The game was played at Dorney Park, Allentown. Allentown's pitchers were hit hard. The Atlantic League had little opportunity to get together.

Opening amateur games in Harrisburg on Saturday indicate a successful season and close competition for championship honors. The majority of the scores were close. Marjory and Camp Hill had a battle royal. Belmont A. C. made a killing with the Stanley A. C. The latter has had little practice.

The first week of Major League baseball brought few surprises, according to the opinions expressed by local fans. The results give no foundation on which to pick a sure winner. As President Tener predicted, it looks like an open race. The Phillies have not shown real form. The Athletics are having trouble with pitchers. Cleveland won the first game Saturday and showed a big improvement. The Eastern clubs in both leagues have shown the best work.

WELLY'S CORNER

Harrisburg's ex-colleagues went to Carlisle Saturday and lost a game to the Conway Hall team, score 8 to 0. Shorty Miller was in evidence with one hit. The local boys have a series of games for Saturdays and hope to do better in the future.

Jim Thorpe, the Indian, who played in Harrisburg last season, is now with Milwaukee A. A. On Saturday he fanned twice in the game with Springfield. He tried to steal second and was caught.

Harvard and other colleges were lucky in drawings for the distance races at Penn Relay Carnival next week. Harvard will in all probability get the pole, unless Kansas City sends a team. Penn was unfortunate in getting the outside position.

Harvard and Princeton will meet in the opening rowing contest of the season at Princeton this week. Harvard has sent 25 good men to the Tiger town to train this week. Princeton has been doing good work in preparation for this big event.
