

LEAGUE SCHEDULE GIVES HARRISBURG TEN SATURDAYS

SATURDAY GAMES FOR HARRISBURG

State League Schedule Made Public Today; Play York on Holidays; Long Season

The official schedule of the Pennsylvania State League was made public today. It calls for 112 games. The season opens May 10 and will close September 9. The usual two games will be played Decoration Day, July 4 and Labor Day.

How Other Teams Pair

Lancaster and Lebanon will pair on holidays and Reading and Allentown will be rivals on the important days. Johnstown and Altoona are paired in the west end of the circuit. In the event of big demonstrations interfering with games, transfers may be made on application to the president.

END OF BOWLING CONTESTS

Washington, April 19.—The Atlantic Coast Bowling Association's tournament ended late today with members of the New Jersey teams favorite for breaking the existing records of the tournament.

Methodist Club Reserves Close Successful Season

Photo by Miss... One basketball team that was prominent this season was known as the Methodist Club Reserves. This aggregation of tossers claim no championship, but they do hold the record for clean-out games, and for giving their opponents a hard battle.

BASEBALL BOOMS AT HERSHEY; ANOTHER STRONG TEAM READY

Men's Club Discuss Plans For Coming Season; Arrange Good Schedule; Harrisburg Teams on List

Special to the Telegraph Hershey, Pa., April 19.—Everybody is talking baseball in Hershey these days and there is more interest and enthusiasm in the national game than ever before. The Hershey Men's Club will be represented by a team chosen from its bona fide members, and this new departure is expected to result in the development of a better all-around nine than in former years, when individual stars have been secured to play here.

Bits From Sportland

The Atlantic League is meeting today in Philadelphia. The New York State League teams are lining up. Seven players are lined up at Wilkes-Barre.

In the Mt. Pleasant Press bowling series, the Athletics won last night, score 1124 to 1119.

The Linglestown team has reorganized. The manager is Ross A. Look. He wants games and can be reached on Bell phone 2843.

The West End A. C. will meet the Enola C. C. Saturday afternoon at Fourth and Seneca streets.

In the P. R. E. Y. M. C. A. bowling series the Superbas last night won from the Cardinals, scores 2994 to 1969.

Bob Shawkey now with the Yankees yesterday defeated his old teammates, winning his game by a score of 4 to 2.

He allowed but seven hits. There will be other baseball at Island Park this summer besides State League games. The fact must not be overlooked that the Pennsylvania Railroad has part of the lease on the baseball field.

On five Saturdays the Motive Power department team will have home games. There will also be a series during the season between teams from other cities.

With the University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival but ten days off, local athletes are not a little concerned about getting into condition.

While the Harrisburg Academy and Central and Tech athletes are out daily, the work has not been wholly satisfactory.

The coaches want about four good days of real warm weather. The indoor work has brought good results, but there has been no opportunity to get a line on the speed of the local boys.

Manager Harry Stees of the Marysville baseball team is lining up a strong aggregation. He is anxious to secure games with strong amateur teams and with semi-professional clubs.

Manager Stees is going strong for the pennant in the Dauphin-Perry race this year. He will try out several local youngsters who were prominent last year.

Francis Quimet, former national open and amateur golf champion has been officially declared ineligible for amateur competition this year.

The United States Golf Association says Quimet became a professional when he engaged in business in Boston with John H. Sullivan, Jr., another golfer.

The young champion said he would not worry over a little matter like that but would engage in private contests.

FREDDIE WELSH IS COMING Negotiations are on for a six-round bout between Freddie Welsh former lightweight champion, and Frankie McGuire the local boy, formerly of Williamsport.

Manager Billy Mehring of the Keystone Club last night wired Manager Bill Gibson that he would accept the terms offered. The fight will take place on or about May 3.

Charlie Collins Loses in Hard Battle With Clark

Special to the Telegraph Reading, Pa., April 19.—Jackie Clark, of Allentown, outpointed Charlie Collins, of Columbia, in four out of six rounds in the windup of the Reading Athletic Club show last night. Collins made a good showing, flooring Clark for a second in the fifth round.

Clark landed a series of left jabs to Collins' face in the first round, doing all the leading. Collins got in but one blow, a left swing to the face.

Collins landed but one again in the second round on a right swing to the ribs, while he covered up most of the time to avoid Clark's left jabs. Collins earned the honors in the third round, landing with the right to Clark's face several times and blocking the latter's jabs.

There was little to choose in the fourth round; with nothing but infighting, Clark jabbed with left several times. Collins sent Clark to his knees with right to jaw and hooked with both hands in clinches in the fifth round. Clark won the sixth round by consistently jabbing to Collins' face with his left.

Local Schools Unlucky in Drawings For Relay Carnival

Local high schools did not fare well in the drawings for positions for the pole in connection with the annual carnival to be held April 28 and 29 at Philadelphia under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania.

In Class 2 for high schools Central has drawn third position, Tech fifth and Steelton sixth or outside the position. Reading, considered a dangerous opponent, drew the pole.

Johnstown, Central, Williamsport, Tech and Steelton follow in order.

In Class 5, for preparatory schools the Academy also drew outside place. The up-river boys will run against Wilmington Conference, the team to draw the pole. Winchester Academy, Pennsylvania Institute for Deaf, St. Francis Academy, and York Collegiate Institute.

IDENTIFIES HIS SLAYER IN HIS DYING MOMENTS

Pottsville, Pa., April 19.—John Durea, of Minersville, who was shot deliberately on Sunday, while his assassin stood beneath the glare of an arc light, died at the Pottsville Hospital.

He lived long enough after the shooting, however, to gasp the name of his assailant. The suspected man, Dominic Pops, was taken before his victim at the hospital. "That is the man who shot me," declared Durea, with ashen lips, as he sank into a swoon, never regaining consciousness.

Resigns From Maxwell Ad. Staff

EZRA B. EDDY

Publicity Manager of the Maxwell Motor Company, Inc., Detroit, Mich., who has resigned to assume charge of some new creative advertising work for the Van Cleave Agency, New York City, May 1st.

During his connection with the Maxwell Company, Mr. Eddy edited the Maxwell Magazine, a monthly publication that has met with exceptional success.

Mr. Eddy is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club and the Players' Club of Detroit. He is also a talented musician, having just written most of the music and lyrics for the Players' Club Annual Show, to be given in May.

The Friendship Fire Company, Keystone Sporting Club is negotiating for a bout between Battling Levinsky and Sallor Carroll. Local fans hope he will be able to have this battle take place in Harrisburg. It would be some battle, as these boys are in demand in the larger cities and are an expensive attraction.

Hugh McKinnon who is back of the Lebanon team of the Pennsylvania State League, wears a smile that will not come off. He was in Harrisburg a short time yesterday and told a few things that ought to keep some of the knockers quiet. Mr. McKinnon who is known throughout the New England League circuit, and in big leagues wants it understood that he has not made a promise he has been unable to make good. He said: "The State League will start with a burrah on May 10 and is going through."

The Friendship Athletic Association is interested in other sports. Announcement is made to-day that a classy boxing show will be given at the Chestnut street auditorium April 28 or May 1 by this organization. The matchmaker is J. J. Church a local boy who has been in the game for sometime, and will pick out a number of fast boys.
