BASEBALL CELEBRATION TO-DAY

By Associated Press

Chicago, Ill., April 20.—The National League, which has played its Chicago games on the West Side of the city for twenty-five years, and before that played on the South Side, invades the North Side to-day to-day, when the Cubs open the local season against Cincinnati on the grounds built two years ago for the Federal League. The game will be the occasion for a celebration of the end of the baseball war and the inclusion among National League club owners of Charles Weeghman and his fellow-stockholders in the new club. The old Cub park on the West Side has been leased to a semi-professional league.

A circle of the Sand Hill country forty miles in diameter was taken as the territory of the board. It was divided into twenty-nine districts, each of which had a bit of a village as its center. Each district was given three representatives in the council of the board, and each district had one vote. A meeting is held once a month, not to talk, but to pass upon some specific project. These meetings are heavily

T. M. BREACH, Star Third Baseman

The Trainmen's A. C. has completed arrangements to place a strong team in the field this season. This aggregation made a good record last year and will have nearly the same line-up this season. Two of the stars who were prominent in every game were, Pitcher Everler, who is also manager of the team, and T. M. Breach, leading third baseman. Eveler won 11, and lost five games. He pitched an eleven-inning game, score 1 to 0.

Arthur Roth Wins American
Marathon by Close Margin

Special to the Telegraph
Boston, April 20.—Victor's honors in the annual American Marathon road race were won yesterday by Arthur V. Roth, a youth of slight build who ran for the Dorchester Club of this city. From the fourth mile of the 25-mile course his speed kept in his wake three-score of the sturdiest distance runners in this country and Canada.

Less than 11 seconds separated Roth from the sprinting second man at the finish, Villar Kyronen, of the Millrose

Welsh.

FRANKIE M'GUIRE

Battle With Champion to Take Place in Harrisburg May 3; Good Preliminaries

Contracts are enroute from New York City to Harrisburg for a six-round bout on May 3 between Champion Freddie Welsh and Frankie McGuire the most expensive ring attraction ever offered local gifth fans. The general opinion is that McGuire will be the stands up the six rounds.

This is the first real title battle offered local patrons since boxing shows were resumed here. Manager Billy Mehring of the Keystone Athletic Club has been negotiating for three weeks for a strong attraction. He has also signed up Johnny Gill of York and will secure a good man for this boy. There will be done in the open. Road work will be a feature. A well-known trainer will be two tor bouts on the bill.

McGuire started work yesterday at Paxtonia. All sparring and bag punching will be done in the open. Road work will be a feature. A well-known trainer will be there to-day, and four sparring partners will be signed up for the Williamsport boy. McGuire cancelled his match with Frank O'Brien at Reading for May 1. In order to be in form to meet
