What is the 7th Point?

From Maine to California, from Texas to Hudson Bay, millions of people have been asking "What is the 7th Point in Sterling Gum?"

In practically every town, city and village in the United States and Canada, the published six points of superiority have brought Sterling Gum fast-growing popularity.

But the seventh point still remains a riddle. Point 7 What?

Now, we are offering liberal prizes to those who send us the best suggestions for the Sterling Gum Point 7.

Before you make your suggestion for the 7th Point, read the following:

The Following Story Unfolds the Secret of the Famous Point 7

To most people chewing gum is a mystery. They may know that different chewing gums are made from different ingredients. But that is about all. Here are facts which we believe you will be glad to know about Sterling Gum: Your Sterling Gum is made from the following materials:

The basis is the pure sap of the tropical Sapota Tree—a natural gum. This natural Sapota Tree sap is boiled, sweetened and flavored. The sweetening is simply pure cane sugar and pure corn syrup.

The flavoring is of two kinds—Peppermint (in red wrappers), Cinnamon (in blue wrappers). There are some twenty varieties of the mint plant. The Sterling Peppermint is a product of the choicest, smoothest-flavored of these many mint varieties. The spicy Cinnamon flavor is extracted from the Cassia bush which grows in the tropics.

The sap of the Sapota Tree, the cane sugar, the corn syrup, the Peppermint and Cinnamon flavors all come from the sap of some plant or tree. Nature herself supplies these delicious materials from which your Sterling Gum is made.

Requirements for Winning Phrase

When you read the above facts on the materials that Sterling Gum is made of, you will know all that it is necessary for you to know in entering this contest. The first prize will go to the one whose suggestion, based on the above story, most impressively presents the natural purity of Sterling Gum—in the opinion of the judges. Remember that your suggestion must be in six words or less. The next best suggestion will win the second prize—and so on down.

Conditions of the Contest

Sterling Gum Company employees cannot enter this contest. If two answers are entitled to the same prize, the full amount of the prize will be paid to each. All answers must come in on a postal card. On the back of the postal card write nothing but your 7 Point suggestion (six words or less) and your name and address. The postal may be mailed in an envelope if you choose. Mail answers to Sterling Prize Judges Room 319, 405 Lexington Ave. New York City. You may send in as many suggestions for Point 7 as you choose, but each suggestion must be written on a postal card as directed above.

Contest Closes All answers must be received in New York by midnight of May 15, 1916. Answers will not be examined by the judges until after that date. The judges, therefore, cannot mail acknowledgments of the suggestions received.

Announcement of Awards The winners of the first 80 prizes will be announced in the July first issue of the Saturday Evening Post. Please do not write to the judges. They cannot correspond with individual contestants. Just make a note now of the date on which the prize winners will be announced in the Saturday Evening Post.

Now put on your thinking cap. Get your family to help you. Send in as many suggestions as you want to. All will be considered in awarding these many prizes. Do not write the Sterling Gum Company regarding the contest or its conditions as all suggestions will be judged by the Prize Committee named above.

EASTER SUNDAY

Underlying everything that Easter means to you; is there not a deeply religious instinct which inspires you to seek that which the day celebrates? Good Friday and Easter—the Cross and the Open Tomb, mark the giving of Christianity to the world. Not alone Christianity, but its counterpart as well, Divine Love, exemplified in man by thought of fellow-man, human love and civilization. The world's symbol of Life Eternal is portrayed in the Resurrection.

The Church's Easter Message Is Life

Our life to-day is one of the many vicissitudes to which we must adapt ourselves. But Death, which is ever in our midst, never changes. Many of us in the past year have experienced it within our circles. With what manifold blessings does the Easter message come because of Death—for that message is Life—Life conquering Death—Life Eternal. The Triumph of Life will be the theme of song, sermon and service in most churches to-morrow. And how great is the comfort of the assurance of a Resurrection for us; that just as our Redeemer broke Death's power; so can we who follow in His footsteps.

Thousands Will Hear This Message

You should be one of those who will be in church to-morrow. The churches of Harrisburg extend a most cordial invitation to you to attend any service that is held on this glorious day. If there is a church to which you belong; you should be in attendance there. If you have no church relations; every church invites you. The Easter message is yours, and in song and service you should allow your soul to fully embrace it.
