CONFESSION TO U. S. BY GERMANY, HINTED

Foreign Office including Foreign Minister Von Jagow

The Berlin press is confronted with finding a way to satisfy the United States without arousing the element which insists upon a relentless submission to the terms of the peace. Mr. Gerard's dispatches are of a highly confidential nature and were received during the night.

PARIS BELIEVES WILSON WILL NOT BUDGE FROM POSITION HE HAS TAKEN

Paris, April 24.—The American situation absorbs the press to the exclusion of other topics and Secretary Lansing's note either in original or in copious extracts appears in the most prominent place. All the morning papers in their comments on the note generally express the belief that Germany will try again to play for time, but that President Wilson, being proverbially a man slow in anger, will not budge an inch from the position he has taken.

Congressman Kreider Active in Behalf of Old Soldiers

Despite the fact that this is an extremely busy session of Congress, Congressman Kreider has not overlooked the old soldier or his widow and his efforts in their behalf have been especially well directed.

The other bill places on the pension rolls the name of Elizabeth Gross, widow of the late Reuben Gross of West Fairview and grants her a pension of $12 per month. In addition to these bills, the Congressman has secured the passage through the House of bills for the relief of William Gotschall, of Middletown, Pa., of Henry Peiffer, of Jonesboro, Pa., of William G. Galbraith, widow of the late Captain William Widda Galbraith of Harrisburg, also Charles Beavers of Harrisburg. He has secured a favorable report and has pending before the House for consideration, bills in behalf of Conrad Orth, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Mary Jane Glasser, of Mt. Holly Springs.
