ENGAGEMENT TOLD BY EASTER BUNNY
Young People Wedded Under Apple Blossoms

Miss Minnie W. Deller and Joseph R. Rogers Will Be Married in the Summer

Mrs. Clarence R. Deller, of 208 Verbeke street, charmingly entertained in honor of Miss Minnie Wilhelmina Deller, of 523 Race street, whose engagement to Joseph R. Rogers, of Chicago, is announced.

A decorative color scheme of pink and white was carried out with ribbons, baskets of sweet peas and suggestions of the Easter. After games and contests, supper was served, with a large bunny seated on a nest of bright-hued eggs as a centerpiece. Ribbons extended to each cover, ending in a smaller bunny. When the ribbons were pulled at the end of the feasting each guest received a candy egg containing bonbons and two little hearts bearing the names of the newly betrothed.

The bride-to-be is one of the popular girls of the city and greatly interested in the work of St. Michael's German Lutheran Church. Mr. Rogers, a native of this city, is a graduate of State College and a chemist with a Chicago firm. The wedding will probably be a summer event.

The guests of Mrs. Deller included Mrs. Charles Shaffner, Mrs. Clarence Febl, Miss Clara Bucher, Miss Jeanie Carberry, Miss Mary Wertz, Miss Gertrude Blair, Miss Rena Agle, Mrs. Brady Agle, Mrs. Roy Stambaugh, Miss Elizabeth Snyder, Miss Verma Vogel-song, Mrs. James Snyder, Miss Elizabeth Welzer, Miss Emma Brindle, Miss Mina Crawford, Mrs. Deller, Mrs. George Keller, Miss Minnie Deller and Mrs. C. R. Deller.

Progressive Girl's Club Walks to the Mountains

Members of the Progressive Girls Club of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church started from the home of Miss LaVerne Grove, 550 Curtin street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for a walk to the mountains. In the valley they built a fire near the spring and roasted frankfurters, potatoes and beefsteak, toasting marshmallows for dessert. They found some of the early spring blossoms, including arbutus, anemones, hepaticas and laurel.

In the party were Miss Grove, the chaperone, the Misses Mary Roberts, Mary Binkley, Frances Forney, Helen Wise, Mary Marshall, Jean Tippett, Ronald Tipton, Elizabeth Lady, Esther Stence, Katherine Rife, Marion Zimmerman, Dorothy Martz, Margaret Martz, Marie Gettys, Frances Burkholder and Mildred Burkholder.

EXPLAINS WHY MEN ARE GROWING BALD

Thousands of men are growing bald every day and don't know the reason why. Many of them never expect to save even what hair is left.

This is indeed a pity, say a hair specialist, who claims that baldness usually obbs the pores in the scalp and giving the dandruff germs fertile ground for prolific breeding.

The treatment is very simple; wash out the dust and dirt often, using a pure soap and destroy the dandruff germs by frequently applying Parisian Sage, a delightfully efficient preparation that the best druggists everywhere now recommend to stop hair from falling, to remove dandruff and to refresh and invigorate the hair roots.

Of course, like all successful discoveries, Parisian Sage has been flattered by imitations, which makes it necessary to ask for it by the full name. The cost of a generous bottle is very little, and H. C. Kennedy will supply you with guarantee of satisfactory results or money refunded.—Advertisement.

DANCING CLASSES CLOSE SEASON WITH A MASQUERADE

HAPPY CHILDREN IN GAY COSTUMES
Pleasant Event Marks Close of Term For Forty Pupils and Their Parents

The Saturday afternoon dancing classes taught by Miss Eleanor E. Walter were entertained yesterday afternoon in Cathedral Hall with a masquerade. The children wore pretty and quaint costumes and enjoyed refreshments at the close of the festivities. Special exhibition dancing was given by Miss Edwina Santamarina in a soft shoe dance, Miss Ruth Kapner in a Russian dance, while Miss Gladys Santamarina did the buck and wing and played a violin solo. Forty children attended. Assisting Miss Walter were Mrs. Cornelius McCarthy, Mrs. Victor I. Walter, Miss Viola Martin, Miss Fanny Ness and Miss Florence Carpenter.

The class includes the Misses Louise Smith, Katharine Beideman, Edna Santamarina, Graza MacDonald, Adele Claster, Gladys Santamarina, Evelyn Kapner, Sara Gross, Justina Boggs, Bessie Dell Claster, Augusta Raymond, Grace Stewart, Catherine Bowman, Ruth Kapner, Cecile Tausig, Eliza Jane Shupp, Gertrude Lance, Jane Fairlamb, Regina Sheppard, Mildred Rhine, Rachel Crabbe, Ruth Gross, Jennette Miller, Mildred Claster, Charlotte Crabbe, Mary Gross, Helen Fishman, Fannie Williams, Rose Aronson, Rose Hoffman, Lena Levin, Florence Ferris, Mary McCarty, Rebecca Aronson, Elizabeth MacDonald, Helen MacDonald, James Merserou, Herbert Kaufman, Leonard Kapner, Charles P. Announce Engagement at Wedding Anniversary

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wesley Lutz was celebrated last evening at their home, 2141 North Second street, with an inaugural reception. Pink roses prevailed in the decorations with sweet-peas and ferns. The steward of the Colonial Country Club catered. Gifts were presented to the hosts with good wishes for the future.

Later in the evening after some delightful music, the Rev. Harvey Klaer, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, told the guests that "Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wesley Lutz announce the engagement of their children, Miss Mary Kathryn Dunlap and Lloyd Wesley Lutz of Pittsburgh."

Congratulations for the young couple were next in order and then the following inscribed their names in a guest book, one of the gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Lutz:

Dr. and Mrs. George Edward Reed, Mrs. Harvey Klaer, the Rev. Harvey Klaer, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kaufman, William H. Hampton, Helen L. Hampton, Mrs. H. H. Grammer, Mrs. S. Ladies of St. Mary's Are Conducting Big Bazar

Ladies of St. Mary's Catholic Church, who are to conduct a bazar at the hall of the church in Macley street, near Fifth, to-day, to-morrow and Thursday, are working hard to earn $1,000. If the receipts of the bazar total that sum, a member of the church, who has asked that his name be withheld, has promised to give another thousand and a dollar for each dollar raised in addition to that amount.

Fancy work, groceries, candy, cake, ice cream and other things will be on sale. To-morrow afternoon will be served as "Children's day" when a special effort will be made to entertain the little folks.

RECEPTION TO 85 NEW MEMBERS OF CHRIST LUTHERAN

A reception was given by the congregation of Christ Lutheran Church, Thirteenth and Thompson streets, last night in honor of eighty-five new members who were received into the church during the Lenten season and Eastertide.

Christ Lutheran Church has just passed through one of the most successful periods in its history. On Easter communion was administered to nearly 800 communicants and the offerings for the day totaled $2,000.

Only recently the church dedicated a new Sunday school room, modern in every respect, and this end of the church's activities has been growing rapidly as a result. During Holy Week the Rev. Dr. Thomas Reisch, pastor of the church, to whom much credit is due for the progress being made, preached to unusually well attended meetings each evening.

Guests of Mrs. Julius Meet an Easter Bride

Mrs. William Julius entertained a few friends with a five hundred party last evening at her home, 59 North Eighteenth street, complimentary to Mrs. Charles A. Sullenberger, one of the Easter brides. Roses and carnations and white prevailed in the decoration. Refreshments in the shape of mimosa wedding bells were served to the guests, who included Mrs. Warren Geiger, Mrs. Jack Witmer, Mrs. Lawrence Shepley, Mrs. Charles Sullenberger, Miss May Barley, Miss Miriam Carl, Miss Ethel Bratton and Mrs. William Julius.

Harry Linton, of 1016 South Ninth Street, Spent Easter at his Home in York.

Miss Sara Lackey, of Enola, spent yesterday in this city, where she attended the Bible conference held in the First Baptist Church, of which the Rev. O. R. Palmer is teacher.
