PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Anita King has been instrumental in the formation of the recently inaugurated bureau in Los Angeles to protect the thousands of young girls who go to that city to seek employment in the moving picture industry. The Ballet Russe, which has proven to be the sensation of the year on the ceaking stage, is on the last week of the season, at the New York Metro-plitan Opera House.

Lillian Russell, Russell Bassett, Minnie Dupree, Robert Mantell, Henrietta Crosman, Blanche Bates, Edith Wynne Matthison, and many other famous stage folk appeared at the Hotel Biltmore, New York, last evening, in series of impersonations, living pictures of Shakespeare's heroes and heroines.

Selwyn and Company have engaged Clara Joel for one of the most impor-tant roles in their next-season plays, because of the brilliance of her work this year in "The Eternal Magdalene."

Common garden sæge brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it. So naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 25c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of pimples, black heads, rash, eczema, tetter and similar skin disease will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, zemo is an exceptional remedy. It is not greasy, sticky or watery and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for all skin troubles.

"THE NIGHT CLERK," 20 PEOPLE, TO GIVE ENTIRE MAJESTIC SHOW

SCENE FROM MAJESTIC'S MUSICAL COMEDY, "THE NIGHT CLERK"

SCENE FROM MAJESTIC'S MUSICAL COMEDY, "THE NIGHT CLERK"

What the management claims will be the most pretentious vaudeville offering ever brought to Harrisburg, at least so far as numbers go, will be "The Night Clerk," the Majestic's big act for the last three days of this week. There are over twenty people in the offering, which is a two-act musical comedy, consuming nearly two hours in running time and giving the entire show, with no other acts on the bill.

This is a departure in vaudeville for Harrisburg, being the first time since Wilmer & Vincent took over the Orpheum, nearly ten years ago, that one act has constituted the entire performance. In fact, offering "The Night Clerk" is almost like sidestepping vaudeville for three days and presenting a full-sized musical comedy production at vaudeville prices.

Clerk' is almost the sidestepping valuevine for three days and presenting a uni-sized musical comedy production at vaudeville prices.

"The Night Clerk" was written by Will M. Hough, author of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," "A Stubborn Cinderella" and "A Modern Eve." The music is by William B. Friedlander. Owing to the fact that this one act gives the entire show, the Majestic management is hopeful that as many patrons as possible be in their seats when the first show starts at 7.30. There will be another performance at 9 o'clock as usual.
