

Bowman's

BELL-1001-UNITED

FOUNDED 1871

To Citizens of Quiet Taste

MOST clothing advertisements to the contrary notwithstanding, this world is not populated wholly by young bloods with an insatiable appetite for style, with a goodly dash of paprika in it.

There is also a liberal sprinkling of citizens of quiet substantial tastes who want sanity with style and comfort with class.

And we are writing these few words to say that ample provision has been made for citizens of this latter type in our Spring and Summer selection of Copyright 1915, A. B. Kirschbaum Co.

Kirschbaum Clothes

We have for them such famous Kirschbaum models as the Wall Street, the Webster, the American—all of them conveying the correct idea of style and conveying it with propriety and dignity.

Tailored in fabrics varying from staid Oxfords and Cambridges to the new springtime tones in browns, greens, grays and blues.

$15, $20, $25 and up

Fifteen to Get Diplomas at Commencement Exercises

Enola, Pa., April 26.—On Friday evening the annual commencement exercises of the Enola High School will be held in the Zion Evangelical Lutheran church when the largest class in the history of the town will receive diplomas. The following are the officers of the 1916 class: President, Paul Harkison; vice-president, Her Fisher; secretary, Miss Julia Zimmerman; treasurer, Edward S. Hassler. The class motto, "Being Launched, But Not Anchored," color, maroon and gold; class flower, Marguerite daisy.

The class roll is as follows: George Edward Siever, valedictorian; George Her Fisher, salutatorian; Edward Sparrow Hassler, John Paul Harkison, John Laverna Bitner, class historian; James William Minick, class prophet; Harry Webster Hoffman, Miss Julia Estella Zimmerman, Miss Mary Bertha Gotschall, Miss Buelah Gertrude Parks, Miss Esther Viola Nedig, Miss Hilda May Wagner, Miss Elta Ross Myers, Miss Esther Rachael Famous, and Miss Helen Cady Sleep.

DR. DOWNS AT COMMENCEMENT

Special to the Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., April 26.—On Sunday evening the Rev. S. A. Crabb, pastor of the United Brethren church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Dillsburg High School, of which there are eight members as follows: Sara Gross, Mabel Coulson, Carrie Bushey, Mary Williams, Ethel Lerew, Clyde Hess, Glenn Baker and Morris Smith. The commencement exercises will be held to-morrow evening at which the principal speaker will be Dr. F. E. Downes, of Harrisburg.

GRADUATING CLASS ENOLA HIGH SCHOOL

Those in the picture are: Top row—left to right: Miss Helen Sleep, Miss Esther Famous, Miss Esther Nedig, Miss Julia Zimmerman, Miss Hilda Wagner, Miss Etta Myers, Paul Harkison, Miss Buelah Gotschall and Miss Buelah Parks.
Lower Row—James Minick, prophet; Her Fisher, salutatorian; Edward Hassler, Harry Hoffman, Laverna Bitner historian. In upper left corner, George Siever, valedictorian.

C. H. S. DEBATORS TO MEET EPHARTA

Will Argue Preparedness; Winners Will Go to State College Contest

Under the patronage of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, a debating contest between the Central High School and the Ephrata High School will be held in the auditorium of the Central High School in Harrisburg. This contest is the result of an elimination contest between each contestant in the "Harrisburg District" of the Central Pennsylvania Debating League. The question that will be debated will be: "Resolved that International Peace would be best promoted by extensive warlike preparations on the part of all nations." The Harrisburg High School will take the positive side and the Ephrata High School the negative side.

The Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce offers a prize of a silver loving cup to the winning team and a set of Emerson's essays to the best individual presentation of the subject by one of the debators.
The contest will be judged by Professors H. H. Shenk, S. H. Derrickson and S. O. Grinn, of Lebanon Valley College.
The team winning the contest in Harrisburg on Friday will go to State College in May at the expense of State College and debate the same question with teams from the winners of contests in the Williamsport and Altoona districts of the Central Debating League.
The Central Debating League was formed through the efforts of Dr. Edwin F. Sparks, president of State College in an effort to revive what Dr. Sparks terms "The Loss of Public Speaking," and the Chambers of Commerce in Harrisburg, Altoona and Williamsport are co-operating with State College in the movement.
GO AFTER THEIF
Pete Atanasoff, a Bulgarian, who stole $50 and a ring last February from his boardinghouse, in Cumberland street, was located in Leechburg, Pa. Detective Scheibhaus went out this morning to bring him back.

JURY ACQUITS CHARLES OLSEN

Prisoner Had Previously Been Found Guilty of Assaulting Little Chambersburg Girl

Special to the Telegraph
Chambersburg, Pa., April 26.—After two days' trial and an all-night seance by the jury, Charles Olson, a Finnish vagrant, was acquitted in court this morning of a fiendish assault on Ruth, the 6-year-old daughter of Major Lester Huber, of the Eighth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, on December 10. On a previous trial in February Olson was convicted and sentenced to prison for assaulting the girl on December 10. His defense was an alibi that he was in Columbus, Ohio, December 5 to 13. Witnesses from Columbus substantiated the alibi absolutely. Olson said in court that the confession was forced from him. Seven witnesses denied any force or duress. The jury had a reasonable doubt and gave the accused the benefit of it.

BRITAIN INSISTS BLOCKADE LEGAL

(Continued From First Page)
law carefully adjusted to the altered conditions of modern warfare."
It discloses that "an impartial and influential commission" has been appointed to find ways to minimize delays and pledges the allies to make their restraints on trade as little burdensome to neutrals as possible.
The note, in which the French government concurs, reiterates the military necessity of regulating commerce to neutrals contiguous to Germany and justifies the effectiveness of the blockade, which was challenged by the last American note. More diplomatic correspondence over the issue is expected to follow.

PAPERS PRAISE NOTE

By Associated Press
London, April 26.—The British note in reply to the representations of the United States against interference with neutral maritime trade by the entente allies is published fully in most of the morning papers which give high praise to the views expressed by the British government.

CONSULT KAISER ON ANSWER TO NOTE

(Continued from First Page)
Gerard, the American ambassador, this afternoon lasted for half an hour.

German Newspapers Take Serious View of Situation

Geneva, Switzerland, April 25.—German newspapers are now taking a more serious view of the German-American situation. They say Emperor William is expected to return to Berlin from general headquarters. In the meantime Americans attempting to leave Germany by way of Switzerland are encountering difficulties. Many of them are held up at Constance, the Baden frontier having been closed since yesterday.

PRINCE CABLES WILSON

By Associated Press
Paris, April 26.—Prince Albert of Monaco has sent the following cable message to President Wilson:
"As a sovereign prince, as a navigator, as a scientist, I adhere to the protest you have made with fine sentiment and human dignity against offenses committed by German arms against the rights of neutrals, on pain of honor of mariners and public conscience."

FRONTIER IS CLOSED

By Associated Press
Paris, April 26.—The German-Swiss frontier has been closed since Monday afternoon, even to mails, says a dispatch to the Matin from Berne. Forerunners now in Germany have been informed that none will be allowed to leave the country before twenty days have elapsed, the dispatch adds.

WILL ADMIT ATTACK

By Associated Press
Berne, Switz., April 26.—The Bund, which has exceptional sources of information in regard to German affairs, says it is probable the German Government will not maintain any longer that the Sussex was not torpedoed by a German submarine.

SWISS WERE COERCED

Geneva, Switz., April 25.—The Gazette de Lausanne says it learns from German newspapers there have been filed at the American consulate at Berne and the American consulate at Zurich affidavits sworn to by the two Swiss passengers on the steamship Sussex who asserted they were coerced into stating they saw a torpedo approaching the vessel. The German papers say these men, Cenoni and Niederost, swore they were compelled by the French and British authorities to make the statement on pain of having their passports taken from them.

AMERICANS FLEEING

Geneva, via Paris, April 26.—An exodus of Americans from Germany has begun. A number of them already have arrived at Basel. They are fleeing to a rupture between Germany and the United States is inevitable.

Two Sisters Elope at Same Time; One Weds Here; Other at Baltimore

A double elopement with two sisters from Sunbury as brides came to light last night, when it was learned that one of the sisters had been married here this morning at Baltimore. The brides are Miss Irma E. and Miss Pearl Mantz, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mantz, of Sunbury. Miss Pearl was married to Clyde P. Bowman by the Rev. Thomas Reich, of Christ Lutheran Church, who performed the ceremony on Saturday. Miss Irma and James Galer slipped away to Baltimore where they were married also on Saturday by the Rev. E. B. Eyster, of the First Lutheran Church. The two couples met in the Pennsylvania railroad station here, returning home later.

NEW OFFICERS FOR THE UNION SALES COMPANY

The controlling interest in the Union Sales Company, this city, formerly held by R. C. Neal, Jr., was purchased by R. R. and H. S. Bender at a recent meeting of the board of directors of the company. The following officers were elected: R. R. Bender, president; H. W. Weaver, vice-president, and H. S. Bender, secretary and treasurer.

Bowman's

BELL-1001-UNITED

FOUNDED 1871

"The Supreme Court rules that honesty is the best policy in advertising; but most advertisers discovered that long ago."

— Evening Bulletin

With a Mind to Purchase a Suit Now, Women Will Recognize An Appeal In This Announcement

We've kept in mind the woman who does not regard Easter as the absolute time to initiate her Spring Suit.

And along comes a message from the Suit Department saying that some "interesting doings" are taking place among the finer suits.

The main thought was something like this:

At $25 and $35

—are about fifty suits, which heretofore have not sold at these prices.

The lot consists of newest, some entirely new models of modish design—all being exclusive models.

—Among which are

—Wool checks, serges, poiret twills, velours, fine poplins and other favorites.

—Beautiful Silk Suits in taffetas, gros de londres, and similar weaves.

—Among which are

—Models for the woman of large build, who insists on fashionable suits.

BOWMAN'S—Third Floor.

THE AEOLIAN VOCALION

THIS remarkable new phonograph is winning the favor of those who have been most critical of the talking machine. The Vocalion tone is wonderfully pure and smooth.

And the true, clear tones of voice or instrument which the Vocalion reflects you may control note by note. The Graduola enables you to use the art of the great musicians as if it were your own.

To hear and especially to play the Vocalion is convincing. We invite you to come in and hear and try the latest and greatest of phonographs. Try some of your own records if you choose.

BOWMAN'S—Fifth Floor.

Mid-Week Economies in Bed Muslins

In dependable grades, for which Our Domestic Department Is Known

Lockwood Sheetting—bleached; cut from the full piece; 81 inches wide; no dressing. Yard, 30c.

Mohawk Sheets—bleached; 90x90 inches; perfect with the exception of slight oil spots, which will come out first washing. Marked, E. S. Price is 82½c.

Utica Sheets—90x99 inches; slight mill imperfections; will not hurt the wearing qualities, 95c.

Mohawk Sheets—half bleached; 81x90 inches; will bleach white first washing, 85c.

Hemstitched Sheets—made of Pequot sheeting; 81x99 inches; under name of Co-hasset, $1.10.

Utica Sheets—slightly soiled with oil spots; will not hurt the wearing qualities; 63x108 inches, 75c.

Bleached Sheets—center-seam; 81x90 inches; made of good weight muslin; 3-inch hem at top, 57c.

Pillow Cases at 10c, 12½c, 15c, 19c and 21c.

BOWMAN'S—Basement.

A Wavy Hair Switch at $1.97

—And of good quality, too. Best of all they are 26 inches long, mounted on three short stems that allows for the use of one, two or three stems as the occasion requires.

BOWMAN'S—Third Floor.

PLANTING PLANS ALMOST IN SHAPE

Sheldon W. Funk, of Boyers-town, Will Talk at Paxtang School Friday Afternoon

Paxtang, Pa., April 26.—Plans for the first annual plant day at the Paxtang school are being rounded into shape and the committee in charge of the affair announced to-day that one of the speakers would be Sheldon W. Funk, an expert on flowers, who was secured through the State Department of Agriculture. Mr. Funk's home is in Boyers-town and he is one of the men who helped make this year's Farmers'

Institute in Dauphin county such a big success. There will be several other speakers, whose names will be announced to-morrow, and in addition the school children will carry out a program. The committee arranging the affair will meet this evening.
The trees and shrubbery, which will be planted about the school, will be on the grounds Friday morning and the children will help in the planting in the afternoon. The youngsters will also provide flowering plants which they will set in beds. Quite a number of residents of the borough are anxious to place some plants on the grounds and the committee announced to-day that all those wishing to contribute, can take the plants to the school Friday afternoon and they will be cared for. The planting exercises will be public and all residents of the borough are invited to be present.

THOMAS J. KEANE

Thomas J. Keane died suddenly yesterday at his residence, 1912 Zarker street, this city, death being due to an attack of double pneumonia. Mr. Keane had been superintendent of asphaltic construction in the State Highway Department and assistant in the testing laboratory of the department for the past four years, having come from his home in Pittsburgh to take up his late duties in July, 1912.
Short services will be held this afternoon, after which the body will be taken to Pittsburgh, where further services will be held and burial made on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Keane is survived by his widow, one son, two brothers and four sisters. The body will be taken to Pittsburgh under charge of G. H. Sourbier, of this city.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

PARALYSIS Conquered At Last By DR. CHASE'S Special Blood and Nerve Tablets Write for Proof and Booklet DR. CHASE, 224 N. 10th St. Philadelphia, Pa.

CREME LILAS Non-greasy Toilet Cream—Keeps the Skin soft and Velvety in Hough Weather. An Exquisite Toilet Preparation, 25c. GORGAS' DRUG STORES 16 N. Third St., and P. R. N. Station