Experience Meeting Held by Missionary Conference
Washington, D. C., April 27.—The National Missionary Conference of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, in session here, to-day resolved itself into an "experience meeting." The speakers illustrated the possibilities of missionary achievements by giving details of results accomplished in parishes, in groups of parishes and in entire communities.

The speakers included John M. Moore, secretary, department of missionary education of the Northern Baptist Convention; Charles A. Rowland, chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; A. E. Cory, secretary of the Men and Millions Movement of the Disciples of Christ, formerly missionary in China; J. L. Clark, one of the most prominent laymen of the Lutheran Church, member of the general committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; W. P. Schell, one of the secretaries of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; John W. Wood, secretary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and George Heber Jones, editorial secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal

Lost Trousers Leg Delays Marriage After a Fight
Lewistown, Pa. — The callithumpian horde was responsible for a delay in the wedding of Herman Russell Mather and Margaret Catherine Kritzer here last night, when the leg was torn from the best man's trousers and he was compelled to visit his tailor before the ceremony could proceed.
The wedding party was on the way to Trinity Evangelical Church when attacked by a mob with conks, clubs and other implements. The pastor, the Rev. C. E. Shenk, defended the party as best he could with a broomstick, but in the melee a leg was torn from Miller Pready's trousers.

"Successor" Raises a Novel Legal Issue
Special to the Telegraph.
Hazleton, Pa.—Demand has been made for the letter received from England addressed to Attorney James Alsover, who died in Hazleton thirty-eight years ago, by W. F. Yarrington, of Mauch Chunk, husband of Alsover's widow.

The missive when it was forwarded here was turned over to C. W. Kline who succeeded to Alsover's law practice in 1878. It was on legal matters to which Kline is attending, and he will not surrender the letter. It was addressed to Alsover "or his successors" so that Kline feels he has title to it.
