PLAYS AND PLAYERS
Billy Jacobs, five years old, probably the youngest star in the motion picture business, is reputed to be making $10,000 a year. It is said this prodigy of naturalness earns $200 a week just being natural. We wonder!

Have you ever eaten dogs served a la carte or on the half shell? Rumor has it that they are delicious morsels. The dog-eating Bengalis are reported to be responsible for the appearance of dog-eaters on the movie screen, where they appear in one of Burton Holmes' travel releases.

Ethel Clifton does not believe that the moving picture is to affect seriously the attendance of playgoers. On the contrary, she believes that one stimulates the other. At present she is on the Pacific coast, with Brenda Fowler, presenting their own dramatic playlet, "The Saint and the Sinner." She was being interviewed: "Because one is fond of sweets does not imply that staple foods are to be neglected. One may be a movie bug and still retain a healthy respect and admiration for the spoken drama. And if dramatic productions could be produced for the same price as the motion pictures, the latter would have to go out of business."

Both Palm Beach, Florida, and Riverside Drive, New York, are to figure prominently in "Gloria's Romance," the George Kleine motion picture novel in twenty feature chapters, which has been prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes, featuring Billie Burke.

Maude Adams began a fortnight engagement in Boston this week, presenting "The Little Minister" and "Peter Pan." In the former play she has Dallas Anderson, a well-known international player, as her leading man, who will be recalled in Boston as the brilliant actor who played the Dauphin with Miss Adams when she presented "Joan of Arc" at the Harvard Stadium some years since.

LOCAL THEATER

"Suki" tonight will be given the first appearance in this city of the face in which Charles Frohman will present the talented young actress, Ann Murdock, with Tom Wise and an all-star cast of players. The face, which is presented here prior to its production at the Lyceum Theater, New York City, is the work of Harry James Smith and deals principally with the adventures of a young studio model, Suki, the part played by Miss Murdock. The work is described as being full of humorous situations, rapid farcical action and bright dialogue. It is peopled with the quaint types found only in the Latin Quarter of New York. The cast contains the names of Ferdinand Gottschalk, Paul Gordon, Charles Dow Clark, Wilfred Sessam, Phil Wood, Lew Brown, Kate Sargeantson, Josephine Morse, Rita Orway, Kate Mayhew, John Trevor, Mae McNamara, Marie Louise Pecheur and Ruth Pecheur.

Fannie Ward, the celebrated American actress, will be seen at the Regent to-day only in a return engagement of "The Cheat," at the Regent at L. Laury production presented by Paramount.

Miss Ward is seen as an extravagant, frivolous member of Long Island's smart set. She, unfortunately, gambles and loses a $10,000 Red Cross Fund entrusted to her care. How she secures the money from a wealthy Japanese and in attempting to repay arouses his anger and is branded on the shoulder with a red-hot iron, are but a few of the thrilling incidents.

Miss Ward is given an opportunity to display her wonderful collection of jewels, and a number of the latest Parisian gowns.

Miss Ward is supported by a cast of unusual excellence, including the Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa.

To-morrow only, the distinguished American actress, Helen Ware, will appear in "Secret Love," a dramatization of Frances Hodgson Burnett's novel, "That Lass o' Lowries."

It is unusual to go to the Majestic Theater and witness a show with but one act on the bill, but this particular act lasts about an hour-and-a-half, and is an hour-and-a-half of solid enjoyment.

"The Night Clerk" is a beautiful comedy, well presented. New York's Great White Way, as well as the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel in that city, is shown. There is a large group of pretty girls wearing nifty gowns, who sing and dance, while the men do their share by injecting comedy. The musical numbers are very pretty and are sung in a pleasing manner, but first honors go to the comedians. Persons who like to laugh should not let the opportunity slip by without seeing the act of "The Night Clerk" for it has all the qualities that go to make up an enjoyable entertainment.

"Fatty" Arbuckle will appear at the Colonial to-day and to-morrow in a new two-reel Keystone comedy called "His Wife's Mistake," that is filled with funny situations.

This feature Arbuckle will be supported by an all-star Keystone cast. On the same program are two well-known stars of the speaking stage, who will be pleasantly remembered for their parts in previous Triangle plays: William Desmond, who has appeared at the Colonial in "Peggy" and "Bullets and Brown Eyes," and Jane Grey, who played the leading role in "Let Kitty Be It," will appear in a new human interest play called "Waits," in which Arthur Raeburn (William Desmond), a young theological student, is made the victim of practical jokes among the upper classes at the seminary, and a punch served at the reception following his ordination is strengthened with rum. The bishop unrocks him as soon as his condition becomes apparent. Rene, the bishop's daughter, with whom Raeburn is in love, repudiates him. In his despair Raeburn drifts to the slums, where he falls under the influence of Rags (Jane Grey), a pretty piano player in a saloon. She falls in love with him and attempts to redeem him, which she does in a most interesting manner.

"Human Driftwood," the World Film feature, with Robert Warwick and Frances Nelson, at the Victoria Theater to-day, tells in a dramatic way the story of a rich young bachelor who becomes infatuated by a beautiful though evil doctor, who preys on his good graces to gain admittance to his apartment, in which she later admits her pals, a band of crooks, who attempt to rob Hendrick's safe.

Years later, as the head of a reform society, Hendrick is sent for to clean up the vile conditions existing in an Alaskan mining camp.

He is confronted there by terrible conditions, made so through the sinister influence of a bad woman. There is a girl in the camp whose presence has been an enigma to the miners.
