GOVERNOR URGES CHURCH MILITANT

Also Speaks For Local Option at Meeting Held Near Johnstown Yesterday

Governor Brumbaugh advocated the active church in two addresses yesterday at the dedication of the new Church of the Brethren in Walnut Grove, a suburb of Johnstown.

According to the Governor's definition, the church is the visible assertion of the belief that the soul is immortal.

The church militant is a body all over the world praying for and promoting peace.

The church promotes the reign of reason, love of fair play and humanity and not the reign of force, hatred and death.

The church promotes good citizenship. You can't be a good church member without being a good citizen of the State and nation.

Governor Brumbaugh closed with a plea for support of local option candidates. In his Altoona speech the Governor was emphatic in his advocacy of local option legislation and a protective tariff.
