

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CHORAL UNION TO GIVE SEVENTH MAY FESTIVAL THURSDAY EVENING

MISS MARY B. DEHART

MRS. ROY G. COX

MISS ANNA M'KELVEY

GEORGE SUTTON

PROF. FRANK A. M'CARRELL

High class music will be rendered by the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Choral Union at their seventh season May music festival on Thursday evening, in the high school auditorium, corner Capital and Forster streets.

The officers are: President, J. Frank Palmer; vice-president, Forest E. Schwartz; secretary, Miss Anna McKelvey; treasurer, Miss Mary B. DeHart; pianist, Miss Catharine Helkes.

McKelvey, Gertrude Zeigler, Leah Hangen, Mrs. Charles R. Bartley, Ida Conner, Mrs. J. E. Watson, Martha Graham, Minnie Tittle, Mrs. F. J. Stees, Mrs. F. E. Schwartz, Mrs. John Smith.

The choral union has been rehearsing for some time under the direction of Prof. Frank A. McCarrell, the chorister. Music from the anthem book, entitled "The Convention Chorister," which was used at the fifth world's and twenty-seventh international Christian Endeavor convention held in Chicago, 1915, will be rendered. The choral union will be the chorus for the big State Christian Endeavor convention to be held in this city in July, and will make a big showing on Thursday evening. A number of high-lights will take part on the program. A. C. Dean, president Harrisburg Christian Endeavor union, presiding.

Congress Resigned to All Summer Session

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Representatives and senators have sent home for their Palm Beach suits and their summer outfits, having at last surrendered to the inevitable prospect of an all-summer session of Congress. The arrival of May 1, marking the conclusion of five months of oratory and windjamming, finds Congress with little progress achieved. Several appropriation bills have reached the stage where they are about to be enacted into law, but twice as many have not acted upon by either House.

Deaths and Funerals

George L. Koser, aged 62, died yesterday at his home, 39 North Thirtieth street. He is survived by his wife and five sons, Howard L., Everett E., Robert E., of this city and Charles N., and Ralph, of Mechanicsburg. Funeral services will be held at the home tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, and interment made in the Mechanicsburg cemetery.

Working For Uninstructed Delegation From Maryland

Baltimore, May 1.—Clear and mild weather favored the voters of Maryland at the primary election today for Senatorial and Congressional candidates and delegates to the State conventions which will nominate the delegates to the national conventions of the two major parties next month.

TALES FROM THAT FAR 'SOMEWHERE'

Corporal Llewellyn Writes From Trenches in Flanders to State Highway Attache

From out of the vague somewhere over which the world war's dreadful "curtain" is ever falling, come queer stories that form the theme for many a magazine and newspaper tale; here are just a few more that might arouse the doubts of the skeptic were it not for the fact that a fighter in the trenches incidentally mentions them in a letter to a relative in this city.

Another Girl's Life Saved

By Quaker Herb Extract

(Special York, Pa.) Catherine Myers is the little daughter of Mr. B. H. Myers, who lives at No. 1596 Monroe Street. Horrible to relate this sweet little child was afflicted with a tapeworm. Her father knew it, doctors knew it and the neighbors knew it. It was also known that unless this worm could be removed, death in terrible form would soon claim the child. All efforts were made during the past year or more by doctors and specialists to relieve the child but they all failed. Some succeeded in getting parts of the worm, but that only made matters worse and increased the worry. Now what could or should be done? Must the child really die? Was there no hope? It seemed not. At last a ray of hope appears. The Health teacher came to this city, announces
