QUARTER MILLION OF CARS LIKELY

Automobile Registration Will Run Higher Up Than Ever Known in 1916

Not far from 250,000 motor vehicles will be granted State registration by the automobile division of the State Highway Department according to estimates being made at the Capitol and this total is 50,000 less than New York, the premier automobile State. Of the number registered in this State it is likely that 200,000 will be pneumatic tired cars.

Revenue from automobile registration this year has passed the $1,700,000 mark and about the Capitol it is believed that the $2,000,000 mark will be touched. Last year's revenue amounted to $1,652,750. The New York revenue is calculated on a different basis from Pennsylvania, the Empire State revenue from February 1 to the middle of April being about $1,477,000. New York is now registering motorcycles.

No Pickle Shortage.—According to a report received at the State Department of Agriculture Lancaster county is going to make up for a shortage in the pickle crop last year. This same condition prevailed in other counties, but thus far Lancaster is the only one to report increase in acreage in the cucumber pickles. There is a general demand for this vegetable.

Hog Cholera Again.—State Livestock Sanitary reports indicate outbreaks of hog cholera in several of the agricultural counties where farm sales were held this Spring. In some cases it has been definitely ascertained that the cholera spread was the result of failure to take proper precautions regarding conditions of cattle prior to moving them. The State is urging that all persons conducting sales should secure information from a veterinarian about cattle before holding sales.

Meade Memorial.—The design for the Meade memorial monument at Washington was approved by the commission yesterday and will be submitted to the Fine Arts Commission at Washington by John W. Frazier and John B. Parfick on behalf of the State commission. The design shows the General sitting on a rock at Gettysburg.

Appeal Taken.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has appealed to the Superior Court from the decision of the Public Service Commission in the Somerset and Lawrence county milk rate cases.

Compensation Hearing.—The Compensation Board will give a further hearing to-morrow night in the Maulfair case. Several other matters are to come up.

Mr. Young to Speak.—State Treasurer Robert K. Young will be the speaker at the Pennsylvania State Society luncheon to-morrow. He will talk on early history of the State, on which he is an authority.

To Visit Canal.—State Librarian Montgomery left to-day on a houseboat trip on the Raritan canal.

Superintending Work.—Commissioner of Fisheries Buller left to-day for Wayne hatchery, where he will superintend the perch egg collection. This work is planned on a more extensive basis than ever known before.

Pardon Board Meeting.—The State Board of Pardons session for May was to-day postponed from May 17 to May 24. Twelve new cases have been listed for the meeting.

After the Cherries.—State dairy and food authorities to-day ordered a score of arrests in Philadelphia for the sale of maraschino cherries alleged to contain preservatives not permitted by Pennsylvania law. The cherries are said to have been used in sandwiches and cocktails.

Justices Named.—William M. Hobart was to-day appointed justice of the peace for Pottstown and George F. Brown for Snow Shoe township, Center county.

Hearings Held.—The Public Service Commission held but two hearings to-day and discussed applications for charters and certificates in executive session.

Awards To-morrow.—The State Highway Department will make the awards to-morrow on the bituminous material contracts from May 17 to May 24.

Discuss Adulterations.—Secretary of Agriculture Patton, Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust and the chemists of the dairy and food division were in consultation all day to-day in the Senate caucus room regarding oyster adulteration. Oystermen from Pittsburgh and Baltimore were present with Congressman S. G. Porter as attorney.

The conference is the result of the prosecutions for sale of "watered" oysters, the oystermen contending that there was no standard and at seasons of the year some oysters have a water content of their own. They favor enforcement of the law relative to added water, but some consideration given to the water content.

Lebanon Will Answer.—The city of Lebanon will answer in the complaint made about the city furnishing water in an annexed district.

Discussing Glazes.—Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust and officials of the State Candy Manufacturers' Association to-day discussed the subject of glazes on candy. The candy men contend that there are no injurious matters in the glazes.

Tried to Keep Deer Away.—According to the story told of the prosecution of Carbaugh, the Cumberland valley man arrested for killing does, the defendant said that he had killed deer and was boiling broth to scatter around so that deer would not invade his fields. He was fined $150.

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS HURT

Says a tablespoonful of Salts flushes Kidneys, stopping Backache.

Meat forms Uric Acid, which excites Kidneys and Weakens Bladder.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

NEW EAST HARRISBURG ADDITION

Speaker Ambler issued this statement just before leaving the city: "In presenting my candidacy to the voters of Dauphin county, I wish to call attention to the fact that I am running as a staunch Republican. I am a firm believer in my party and it is my earnest hope that the Republicans will forget all differences of the past and unite to defeat the common foe, the Democracy, this Fall. The time has come for a change of administration at Washington. The public has tired of the incompetency which characterizes this national administration and is impatiently awaiting the return of the Republicans to power. "The opportunity for Republican success lies at our door and it will be our own fault if we fail to take advantage of it. To win we must marshal all our strength and present a united front. The disaster of 1912, with its criminalizations and recriminations, must be redeemed. I am and have been a Republican all my life. As a true party man and worker, however, I have stood for principles which strengthen the party, and have likewise opposed influences which have sought to utilize the party for sinister purposes. "In the Legislature, I ardently supported the act establishing uniform primaries. The intent of this law is to give the people the power to name their own candidates. Self-constituted leaders have no longer the power to force upon the ticket candidates who are not the people's choice. I am making my appeal direct to the Republican voters of the Commonwealth. If elected, my single purpose will be to give the State an efficient and businesslike administration."
