

TEXT STRENGTHENS BELIEF THAT BREAK HAS BEEN AVERTED

Authentic Version, Fully Decoded Is Placed Before President Wilson; Shows No Material Difference From Reply Already Published

REFERENCE TO U. S. PEACE TERMS CAREFULLY CONSIDERED; MAY MAKE BRIEF ANSWER

Will Indicate That So Long as New Orders to Submarine Commanders Are Fully Observed Relations Will Not Be Severed on That Score

Washington, D. C., May 6.—The official text of German's note, fully decoded and laid before President Wilson shows no material difference from the unofficial text published yesterday in news dispatches.

Overnight study of the note by cabinet members and officials did not change their views that probably there would be no break in diplomatic relations unless there were further attacks in violation of international law.

There is a possibility that the United States may make a brief reply notifying the Berlin government that as long as the new orders to submarine commanders are fully observed diplomatic relations will not be discontinued on that score.

Secretary Lansing already has studied the note once and was going over it very carefully again today. There were indications that further consideration by the cabinet would not be necessary.

Carefully Reads Peace Portion President Wilson read to-day with careful attention the portion of the note touching on peace. Some officials believed unusual significance should be attached to that part of the note because it was taken to indicate officially that recent speeches of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg before the reichstag were intended as notices to the world that Germany was ready for peace on certain terms.

The note says: "The German government, conscious of Germany's strength, within the last few months announced before the world its readiness to make peace on a basis safeguarding Germany's vital interests, thus indicating it is not Germany's fault if peace is withheld from the nations of Europe."

While it was indicated to-day that President Wilson would make no further peace moves within the last few months have signified their willingness to receive suggestions on the subject, some officials thought to-day the German note might possibly draw forth something from the allies.

Here Are the Demands of the United States and Way Germany Has Met Them

The specific demands of the United States and the manner in which Germany meets them are as follows: The United States Ultimatum

If it still the purpose of the Imperial Government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines without regard to what the Government of the United States may consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the Government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue.

Unless the Imperial Government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight-carrying vessels, the Government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German Empire altogether.

Again and again the Imperial Government has given its solemn assurance to the Government of the United States that at least passenger ships would not be thus dealt with, and yet it has repeatedly permitted its undersea commanders to disregard those assurances with entire impunity.

The German Reply The German Government, guided by this idea, the Government of the United States, that German naval forces have received the following order:

In accordance with the general principles of visit and search, and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law such vessels both within and without the area declared a naval war zone shall not be sunk without warning and without saving human lives unless the ship attempts to escape or offer resistance.

Accordingly, the German Government is confident that in consequence of the new orders issued to the naval forces the Government of the United States will also now consider all impediments removed which may have been in the way of mutual co-operation.

Heavy fighting has been resumed in the Verdun region with the Germans again on the offensive west of the Meuse. They have brought up a fresh division and apparently made a new concentration of heavy artillery.

Instead of attacking Dead Man's Hill, around which the battle has raged recently, they are now directing their attention to the somewhat higher eminence known as Hill 304, to the southwest, towards Avocourt, on the French left flank.

JEALOUS LOVER TRIES TO SHOOT HIS SWEETHEART

Fires Six Shots at Girl When He Sees Her With Another Man

ATTEMPTS TO KILL RIVAL

Then Engages Detective Durnbaugh in Pistol Duel; Wounded in Cheek

In a jealous frenzy because his sweetheart spurned him, the police say, Edward Manning, a cripple, attempted to shoot May Harvey, of 325 Francis street, and Frank Miller, the man with whom Manning accused her of being intimate, as the pair were about to leave the Francis street house.

Failing to kill either, he went on a rampage and engaged Detective I. M. Durnbaugh, ex-Chief of Police, in a pistol duel in Front street, at Gibson. After one of the detective's bullets grazed his cheek inflicting a slight flesh wound, Manning retreated.

Manning, according to the detective, met the Harvey girl and Miller in front of the former's home. Flourishing a revolver he demanded to know why she was spurning his affections. Without answering the girl turned, screamed and fled. Manning, the police say, then opened fire while only

Mechanicsburg Physician on Job in War Hospital

Dr. Richard R. Spahr, of Mechanicsburg, who sailed April 1, from New York for Bordeaux, on the "Rocheambeau," with a number of other physicians and ambulance drivers arrived safely after a pleasant voyage and no mishaps according to a letter received here today. The party then proceeded to Paris to the Neuilly hospital in which there are 600 beds for wounded and convalescent soldiers wounded in action. Other hospitals are open in Paris as auxiliaries.

Dr. James Hutchison, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Bouchet represent the head of the Neuilly institution. A number of men from various parts of this country well known in medical circles are on the staff at this hospital. Between 50 and 60 ambulances are in the hospital and the wounded are taken to the hospitals from the trains. Men from the hospitals go out to the front and return with the injured.
