Baby's Wish Is the Law of the Household: Baby Is the Ruler

Baby Week, May 6 to 13

What! Warm Weather Here to Stay And Baby Not Prepared?

OF course, it's no discredit to mothers who wisely delay outfitting the little tots until the Great Bowman Baby Week. A timely event it is, too, just at the beginning of the out-door, fresh-air season for babies.

It's the Spring Opening, if you please, of warm weather garments for babies, and stocks just now are far in excess of any yet shown; featuring—

Tailored Dresses	Short Dresses	Long Dresses
Slips	Sacques	Long Coats
Short Coats	Underwear	Baby Pants
Creepers	Rompers	Caps
Bonnets	Wash Hats	Straw Hats
Bootees	Shoes	Novelties
KiddieKoops	Bassinets	Furniture

Baby Week is the time when little tots come to have their pictures taken—get a big, bright colored balloon—and be weighed to see who wins the six handsome garments given to the six heaviest.

HIGHWAY CHIEF TO BE NAMED LATER

Governor Says That Allegheny County Not Necessarily Entitled to Have It

Governor Brumbaugh will likely name the Highway Commissioner after the primaries and the name of half a dozen men are under consideration. Among them are Chief Engineer Uhler, Secretary of Agriculture Patton, R. L. Gillespie, Allegheny county road engineer; J. Denny O'Neil, former Allegheny commissioner, and an officer of the United States Army. Incidentally, there are reports that the men in charge of various divisions of the Highway Department are to be lined up this week. However, Governor Brumbaugh declared that the department was not to be put into politics just before leaving for Pittsburgh on Friday.

A dispatch from Pittsburgh to the Philadelphia Ledger says: "There are indications that a man from Allegheny county will be appointed to succeed Robert J. Cunningham, State Highway Commissioner, who died recently. It may be that John S. Gillespie, former supervisor of roads of Allegheny county, is being considered. Mr. Gillespie is an enthusiastic supporter of Governor Brumbaugh and had a consultation with him on Saturday. Governor Brumbaugh was asked if the appointment was considered as belonging to a man from Allegheny county. 'Not necessarily,' he replied."

GOVERNOR SPEAKS FOR LOCAL OPTION

Allegheny County People Pledge Him Their Support on That Issue Now

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh renewed his plea for local option and the election of legislators pledged to that cause in several speeches in Pittsburgh and vicinity yesterday, seeing no politicians and not talking politics. The Governor was greeted everywhere by large audiences and his addresses were followed in many cases by rising votes to support local option to the limit.

The Governor's efforts at mediation were also strongly endorsed by many citizens and it was held that he had the right idea in insisting that the employers and strikers get together.

The united Bible classes of the East End and Wilkensburg heard the Governor's talk on local option at the First Presbyterian Church in Wilkensburg in the afternoon. Approximately the same address was given at a gathering in White's Opera House, McKeesport, an hour later. Neither the labor situation nor politics were mentioned at any of the meetings attended by the Governor. He preached two sermons, the first at the Third United Presbyterian Church, East End, in the morning, and the other at the Knoxville Presbyterian Church last evening.

The Governor said that he had not had time to read the Penrose speech and said that he did not know anything about the posters placed in front of the theaters where he spoke which advertised a Roosevelt-Brumbaugh meeting. When asked if he favored the Roosevelt candidacy the Governor said he was in favor of a "united Republican front."

In his speech on Saturday night the Governor said:

"We met defeat in 1912 because we were a divided party. The protection vote was not unified, and it must be possible for this blunder to be repeated in 1916. In order to make it possible to bring about a union of all the protection forces of Pennsylvania, we ask your support in selecting delegates to the convention at Chicago who will steadfastly keep in mind this fundamentally important fact, using their best endeavor untrammelled and free to bring about a complete union of our broken forces, the nomination of an acceptable candidate and the triumphant election of our ticket at the November polls. I want Pennsylvania to be an assuredly Republican Commonwealth. Can this be done under the leadership that has already led us to defeat? Are we to throw away again, in a perfectly unnecessary action, our hopes of success, our opportunities for service, our duty to the State and to the nation? Look upon the surface and discern the meaning of things. Act in the lofty spirit of patriotism."

At the dinner of the Associated Boroughs the Governor outlined some of the difficulties encountered by smaller municipalities and how the State could assist them.

Regarding his mediation work the Governor said: "I told them all precisely the same thing. I told them the State had no interest as between employer and employe and that the Commonwealth does not pretend to say what the basis of settlement shall be, but that the State wanted as speedy a settlement as possible and a peaceful and prompt adjustment of existing disputes. I feel greatly encouraged over the outlook. I sent for Mr. Franks because he was one of those who telegraphed for the assistance of the State troops in protecting life and property. He took the initiative; therefore I felt

Cat Lived Nineteen Years and Died Peaceful Death

Sacramento, Cal.—Halloween, a cat belonging to Mrs. C. M. Sehorn, of Glenn county, Cal., is dead at the extraordinary age of 19 years.

The Sehorn owned the animal for 15 years, and knew it from a kitten, so there is no doubt concerning its age.

The cat became too feeble to walk. It was virtually toothless and clawless. But it knew every member of the family until its very last hours, and seemed never content unless some of them were in its sight.

Swat! Swat! (It's easy)
Then there were two.

Two little flies
Dodged the civilian—
Early next day
There were a million.

Justice G. W. Stocker declares there is no question but what some local person or man claiming to be a parson is commercializing the marriage business through a carefully planned system.

The justice believes one preacher or alleged preacher has an arrangement with a taxicab driver to bring him all the marrying business. He says the records will show that taxicab drivers are often the ones who swear they are acquainted with the couples after taking them to the courthouse, yesterday. "While no time was lost, I know a form of ceremony was carried out before the couple, witness and pastor hurried away."

Spokane, Wash.—"I saw a couple and a witness come from the courthouse and a preacher stepped up and married them before they reached the sidewalk, and away they went," declared Peter Powell, janitor at the
