

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA NEWS

Institute and Reception of W. C. T. U. at Mechanicsburg

Special to the Telegraph
 Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 9.—Local institute and reception was held today in the Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The former opened at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and the program included a speech by James L. Young, secretary of the No-License League of Cumberland county on the subject, "How Can the Counties in Pennsylvania Become Dry Under the Brook's High License Law?" There will also be brief talks by representatives from different "Unions" in the county and discussions.

This evening a lecture will be given by Professor Nye, of Steelton, on "Temperance in the Public Schools and Eugenic." At the close of the lecture a reception will be held in the lecture room to which are invited the local public school teachers, directors and ministers of Mechanicsburg and vicinity.

The local W. C. T. U. is in a prosperous condition, having more than doubled the membership in one year and is a live organization.

Motorcycle Rider Loses Leg in Collision With Automobile

Special to the Telegraph
 Waynesboro, Pa., May 9.—Houtz Jones while riding his motorcycle along the public highway from his home at Metal to Chambersburg was run into by an automobile owned and driven by Wilson Fleagle and nearly killed. There was a head-on collision and Mr. Jones was thrown under the machine and had his leg crushed and was badly cut about the face and body. His condition is critical.

RISE IN BOYER JOY CAR

Special to the Telegraph
 Dauphin, Pa., May 9.—All the primary departments of the Sunday schools of Dauphin enjoyed a ride today in the Boyer Joy-Giving Car, of Harrisburg.

AUTO OVER BANK

Special to the Telegraph
 Dauphin, Pa., May 9.—An automobile, bearing a dealer's license, last evening about 8 o'clock went over the bank above the Reading Railroad tracks below town. The three occupants, two girls and a man, were uninjured and the car was pushed back on the road.

Hurt in Auto Collision at Carlisle on Sunday

Special to the Telegraph
 Carlisle, Pa., May 9.—Mrs. John Darr and Mrs. Thomas Henry were severely injured when their automobile was struck head-on by a taxi. Both women were thrown to the brick pavement and hurt about the head and shoulders. The driver of the taxi and the chauffeur of the automobile escaped with minor hurts.

Dazed by the heat of the sun, Earl Martin, general manager of the Landis Tool Works, at Waynesboro, drove an automobile containing his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Martin, down an embankment near Carlisle. The machine was wrecked, but the occupants escaped with minor hurts.

LITTLE GIRL SAVES SISTER

Special to the Telegraph
 Florin, Pa., May 9.—Miss Violet Hill, daughter of Howard Hill, was saved from death by the presence of mind of her little sister Ruth quickly tearing up a piece of carpet and wrapping it around her when her dress was set on fire while playing in the garret of the Hill home. The child was badly burned. The little heroine is 7 years old.

BUTTON STRIKE AT LYKENS MINE

1,000 Men Refuse to Work Because Twelve Employees Do Not Have Badges

Special to the Telegraph
 Lykens, Pa., May 9.—Another "Button Strike" was declared at the Short Mountain Colliery here this morning when about 1,000 miners, members of the United Mine Workers Union refused to go to work because twelve employees at the mine did not have union buttons showing that their dues were paid.

Under the check-off system which the union demanded in the recognition of the union it seemed as though such a thing as a "button strike" could not occur again, but events of this morning have proven otherwise.

PARTY ON 20TH BIRTHDAY

Special to the Telegraph
 Halifax, Pa., May 9.—A birthday party was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Motter, in Halifax township in honor of their son, William's twentieth birthday. The evening was spent in game and music and refreshments were served. Those present were: Bertha Button, of Millersburg; William and Carrie Koppenheffer, Katie, Martha and John Bowman, David Hoffman, Elmer, Mary and Martin Reed and Mr. and Mrs. George Motter and children.

LICENSE TAX REDUCED

Special to the Telegraph
 Halifax, Pa., May 9.—Borough council met last evening. License ordinance, section 3, was changed. Fifty cents a day, instead of $1, was the price agreed upon for allowing the distribution of circulars in town. Section 5 was also changed and peddlers will now pay for a day instead of $1, and $5 a month instead of $15.

SURPRISE FOR MISS LUPFER

Special to the Telegraph
 Ellizabethville, Pa., May 9.—A birthday surprise social was held for Miss Luppfer, by her classmates at her home in North Market street on Friday evening. Those present were Misses Esther and Dorothy Margerum, Daisy and Mabel Weaver, Grace Forney, Kathryn Malco, Helen Reigie, Mr. and Mrs. Lupfer and son, Harry.

CHAMBERSBURG POSTMASTER

Special to the Telegraph
 Chambersburg, Pa., May 9.—William Alexander has been named as postmaster of Chambersburg, to succeed Charles A. Sucasero, whose term expired yesterday. Mr. Alexander is a prominent attorney and one of the owners of the Chambersburg Valley Spirit.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Special to the Telegraph
 Marietta.—Mrs. Frank Hemmle, of New Holland, died yesterday after a long illness.

Marietta.—Dennis Barnhart, a native of Florin, aged 76, died Sunday night in the General Hospital, at Lancaster. He was among the first to answer the call at the outbreak of the Civil War. He was a local preacher of the Methodist church for many years.

Mt. Union.—Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts died Sunday night after an illness of several months. She was 75 years old.

Lewistown.—William Orner, 64 years old, is dead here after a short illness. He was a husbandman on Pennsylvania and Erie canal running between this place, Harrisburg and Nanticoke.

WEST SHORE NEWS

Program For Opening Sessions of Women's Missionary Society

Wormleysburg, Pa., May 9.—Tomorrow afternoon the thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania branch of the Woman's Missionary Association of the United Brethren Church will open in a three-day session in the United Brethren church.

The opening session will be marked by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, a solo by the Rev. Paul R. Koozts of Lemoyne; an address by the Rev. E. J. Pace.

Wednesday Evening: Music, Union Choir, director, the Rev. Paul R. Koozts; worship, Mrs. John J. Hemmer; address of welcome, Mrs. Wm. O. Rishel; fraternal greetings from Pennsylvania Conference, the Rev. William H. Washinger; greetings, the Rev. E. Vance; solo, Mrs. Sylvan Neldich; address, the Rev. E. J. Pace.

Thursday Morning: Quiet service, the Rev. A. R. Ayres; opening service, Mrs. Ida Chenoweth; reports of corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. J. Holtman and treasurer, Mrs. F. E. Renner; Otterbein Guild, Miss Amy C. Clippinger; Junior Work, Mrs. J. A. Gohn; organizer, Mrs. E. V. Bixler; secretary of literature, Mrs. L. M. Stangle; thank offering secretary, Mrs. Walter R. Thomas; vice presidents, Mrs. Esther M. Melly, Mrs. Samuel G. Zeigler, Miss Grace Jones; memorial service, Mrs. Esther M. Melly; workers' conference, Mrs. Alva Kauffman.

Thursday afternoon the recognition of new societies and workers' conference, by Mrs. Alva Kauffman will be features of the program. Other numbers will be a recitation, "A Sam Shut Out," by Miss Ruth McCurdy and Miss May Foltz; solo, by Mrs. Hilda Famous.

OTTERBEIN GUILD RECEPTION

New Cumberland, Pa., May 9.—The Otterbein Guild to-night will hold a reception for new members in Trinity United Brethren church.

MOTHER'S DAY AT CHURCH

New Cumberland, Pa., May 9.—Next Sunday Mother's Day will be observed in Baughman Memorial Methodist Church. There will be a short program in the Sunday School room at 2:30 p. m., and at ten o'clock, the Rev. Dr. T. S. Wilcox will preach an appropriate sermon. There will be automobiles to take the mothers who are unable to walk to the church.

ADDRESS BY PORTO RICAN

New Cumberland, Pa., May 9.—The Rev. Mr. Anglubar, a missionary from Porto Rico, delivered an address at Baughman Memorial Methodist Church on Sunday night. His son and daughter accompanied him and sang several selections in Spanish.

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bobb, of New Cumberland, who spent the winter at Sebring, Florida, have returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Parker Murry, of New Cumberland, have returned from a visit to friends at Philadelphia.

W. H. Young, of Philadelphia, visited his father, Dr. J. H. Young, at New Cumberland, yesterday.

Mrs. Ann Cocklin, Aged 92, Dies at Mechanicsburg

MRS. ANN COCKLIN

Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 9.—Mrs. Ann Cocklin, died at her home in West Factory street last night after an illness of several days. She was 92 years old and was the widow of David Cocklin. She was born in Lancaster county and lived in Mechanicsburg more than fifty years. In early life her home was in Upper Allen township, Cumberland county. Mrs. Cocklin was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for seventy-five years. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John C. Rupert, of Mechanicsburg, and a son, John Cocklin, of Chicago, Ill.; also sixteen grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, Rupert Perry, of Wilmington, Del. Mrs. Harry Funk of Harrisburg, is a granddaughter. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. J. J. Resch of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Burial in Chestnut Hill cemetery.

MARTIN L. FEESER DIES

Special to the Telegraph
 Penbrook, Pa., May 9.—Martin L. Feeser, Jr., aged 22 years, died at the home of his parents, at Curtin and Main streets, after an illness of more than a year. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Emma Smith Feeser; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Feeser; one brother, John Franklin Feeser, of Harrisburg, and six sisters, Mrs. Katherine Sheet and Mrs. G. F. Trevena, of Allentown; Mrs. William C. Breneman and Mrs. W. H. Gehart of town; Mrs. Thomas Gillan and Mrs. E. M. Shuler of Harrisburg.

Shell's B. Schlisner Stores
 28-30-32 N. 3rd St.

New Millinery Smart Hats

Showing Panamas, sailors and novelty straws for sport and out door wear.

The most approved styles for the present and Summer season--

3.95 5.00 7.50

Special sale of 50 smart hats that formerly sold for 5.00, 8.00, 10.00; special

2.95 3.95

RUNS 16-SEAT JITNEY

Special to the Telegraph
 Waynesboro, Pa., May 9.—H. M. Petrie, who operates a jitney line between Waynesboro, Letersburg and Hagerstown, has secured a new, up-to-date automobile bus, which will seat sixteen persons and is equipped with all the electric appliances.

TO IMPROVE POST OFFICE

Waynesboro, Pa., May 9.—Plans have been completed and approved by the Post Office Department at Washington and the Bank of Waynesboro, the latter owning the post office building here, for very radical changes and improvements in the post office. Plans for the improvements were drawn by Postmaster J. W. Warehime himself, who is an architect and designer.

DIES IN ILLINOIS

Hummelstown, Pa., May 9.—Word was received here that Leonard Myers, well known to the older residents of Hummelstown, died at his home in Danville, Illinois, on Wednesday in his 86th year. Mr. Myers was married to a sister of George F. Greenwalt of town.