KAUFMAN'S MARKET SQUARE "UNDERSELLING" STORE

Caruso Off For Italy, Offers to Be Soldier
New York, May 11.—Enrico Caruso left New York aboard the steamship Espagne, of the French line, to return to his native Italy, there to offer his services as a soldier in the Italian army now fighting the Central Powers. Mr. Caruso was in excellent spirits and said that whether he returned here the coming autumn or not depended on the state of the war. "I am now in the first category and am going to offer myself and my son to the government," said Mr. Caruso. "If the government says 'Yes,' I will be a soldier."

Mr. Caruso said that he did not think the government would call him, however, as he is too old. His brother has been representing the family as the tenor in the bread winner. The season, he added, has been very satisfactory in every particular. He did not think the war would interfere with the coming season.

Bible Urges Advertising, Declares This Preacher
Granville, May 11.—That advertising is essential to church progress and is sanctioned by the Scriptures, was argued here during the Ohio Baptist ministers' conference.

The Rev. Otis Green, of Piqua, quoted the Bible to verify his contention: "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works," was the admonition of Christ to his disciples, quoted by the Rev. Mr. Green to substantiate his claim that advertising has the sanction of the Bible.
