

Real Genuine
PANAMAS
$3.50 and $5
Every One Guaranteed or a New One.
Buy a genuine Panama—a "United." You will then be sure of not only style and quality, but a saving of half what you would pay elsewhere.
Factory to You—Stores Everywhere.
See Our Fashion Show Windows.
UNITED HAT STORE
THIRD AND MARKET STS.
Open Evenings
Mail Orders Postpaid Anywhere.

New "UNITED"
Straws
Give Greatest Value For Your Money

First in Style
First in Appearance
First in Quality
First in Service
First in Satisfaction

The new "United" Straw Hat styles are superior to the general run of $2 hats—in fact it would be difficult to match them at less than $2. All over the country they are sold to men who appreciate the most for the money.
100 styles to choose from. Come and see.

Genuine Panamas,
$3.50 and $5

See Our Fashion Show Windows. Factory to You—Stores Everywhere

United Hat Stores
THIRD AND MARKET STREETS
OPEN EVENINGS MAIL ORDERS POSTPAID ANYWHERE

"THE PLAYS THE THING"
Theatrical Attractions
Present and Future

THEATRICAL DIRECTORY
ORPHEUM—This evening, Harrisburg Choral Society and Philadelphia Orchestra.
MAJESTIC—Vaudeville and Moving Pictures.

Motion Picture Houses
COLONIAL—"The Stepping Stone."
REGENT—"One Day."
VICTORIA—"The Closed Road."

PLAYS AND PLAYERS
Advance reports declare that "David Garrick," the newest Pallas Pictures subject for the Paramount Program, will offer a fitting screen version of the famous old classic, "Dusty," Farquhar will present the title role which has been portrayed on the stage by such celebrities as Sir Charles Wyndham, Lawrence Barrett, E. H. and E. A. Sothern, Nat Goodwin and Thomas Salvini.

Hedwig Reicher, famous international actress and daughter of Emanuel Reicher, enjoys a unique distinction. She appeared in the Esperanto language in the first dramatic production in that language of "Iphigenia in Tauris," which was presented at Dresden at the fourth annual convention several years ago.

Miss Reicher is to become associated with her father in the conduct of an important dramatic school in New York.

LOCAL THEATERS
The bill arranged for to-day and tomorrow is exceptional. "One Day," the most beautiful love romance ever written, sequel to "Three Weeks," and featuring the famous international star, James Iver, will be shown to-day and to-morrow.

The curtain rises on the opening scene of "One Day," and you behold the smiling features of the baby king. Pavlovitch, the Regent, disturbs the flight of your thoughts and carries you back to Vesperia. Though he believes his plot to murder a young king has been carried through by his henchman, Stefanok, the faithful Dimitri has foiled him, and carries the little king to safety—to the home of Paul Verdayne in England.

For twenty years, Pavlovitch reigns over Vesperia with the hand of a tyrant. The country faces bankruptcy, and rebellion has taken root in the hearts of the simple folk. Compelled to gain financial aid, the monarch forces his beautiful daughter into a betrothal with the powerful and unprincipled Prince of Argone. To save her father's throne, Paul, the poor, lovable hero of the picture, pledges herself to make the sacrifice, provided she be permitted a vacation in some self-chosen and secluded place, in order to adjust her mind for the change.

Frank Keenan, the man who will be remembered for his excellent work in "The Stepping Stone" at Colonial and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

and to-morrow in a new Triangle Kay-bee feature entitled "The Stepping Stone." The play deals with a struggling clerk, dissatisfied, but is kept up by a loving wife, who willingly does the work he has neglected at the office and brought home to complete. Later, through her efforts, he succeeds in getting a job in a short time he reaches a point where he thinks she is a handicap to him. He determines to cast her off, telling her that women like her are only stepping stones for men like him. When it is too late he discovers that without the stepping stone he can do nothing, and in the end loses everything that he possesses. This is Mr. Conklin's first appearance for some time and many new thrills are promised.

Looking Young at Fifty

YOU know some men who look young at fifty or even sixty; they have the "air," vigorous, successful, alert looking men.

Next time you see a man of that type, just notice how much his clothes have to do with giving that impression. You'll find that the style, the fit, the quality of his clothes are really more than half of it. And you'll probably discover that they're clothes. That's one of the things these makers of fine clothes are doing for such men.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

And that's one of the reasons why we sell so many of these clothes, to so many such men.

$18, $20, $25, $30 Real Economy

H. MARKS & SON

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

4th and Market Streets

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Baseball Summary; Where Teams Play Today

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY
Pennsylvania State League
Lancaster at Harrisburg.
Reading at Lebanon.
York at Shamokin.

American League
Detroit at Philadelphia.
Cleveland at Boston.
St. Louis at Washington.
Chicago at New York.

National League
Philadelphia at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
New York at Pittsburgh.
Boston at Chicago.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-MORROW
Pennsylvania State League
Lancaster at Harrisburg.
Reading at Lebanon.
York at Shamokin.

American League
St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Washington.
Cleveland at New York.
Chicago at Boston.

National League
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.
New York at Chicago.
Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Boston at Pittsburgh.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
Pennsylvania State League
Lebanon, 7; Lancaster, 6.
York, 12; Harrisburg, 5.
Reading, 10; Shamokin, 4.

American League
Philadelphia, 3; Detroit, 2.
New York, 5; Cleveland, 5.
New York, 2; Chicago, 1.
Washington, 2; St. Louis, 0.

National League
St. Louis, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
New York, 3; Pittsburgh, 2.
Chicago, 3; Boston, 1.
Cincinnati, 2; Brooklyn, 2.

International League
Newark, 11; Buffalo, 8.
Providence, 10; Montreal, 3.
Richmond, 8; Toronto, 6.
Rochester, 17; Baltimore, 12.

Atlantic League
Wilkes-Barre, 10; Elmira, 8.
Binghamton, 8; Scranton, 6.
Utica, 3; Troy, 1.
Albany, 4; Syracuse, 3.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS
Pennsylvania State League
Reading, 2; York, 1, 0, 1,000
Lancaster, 1; Harrisburg, 1, 1, 500
Lebanon, 1; York, 1, 500
York, 1; Shamokin, 1, 500
Shamokin, 0; 2, 000

American League
Cleveland, 16; Boston, 9, 640
Washington, 13; New York, 9, 591
New York, 12; Detroit, 10, 545
Detroit, 12; Chicago, 12, 500
Boston, 12; St. Louis, 12, 500
Chicago, 12; Philadelphia, 12, 462
St. Louis, 13; Cincinnati, 13, 381
Philadelphia, 8; New York, 14, 394

National League
Brooklyn, 11; St. Louis, 11, 688
Boston, 11; Philadelphia, 11, 647
Chicago, 13; New York, 10, 545
St. Louis, 12; Cincinnati, 12, 500
Cincinnati, 12; Philadelphia, 12, 500
Philadelphia, 8; New York, 10, 444
Pittsburgh, 9; St. Louis, 13, 381
New York, 5; Boston, 13, 278

Centennial of Blain's First Church Next Week

Special to the Telegraph
Blain, Pa., May 12.—Plans are about completed for the centennial celebration to be held next week, May 18 to 21, by Zion's Lutheran Church congregation to observe the founding of the first church building erected in Blain on May 23, 1816. A number of former pastors and sons of the congregation will be present to speak.

The Rev. J. C. Reighard is the present pastor. Services will open on May 18 in the evening and will continue afternoon and evening until Sunday evening, May 21.

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN
Enola, Pa., May 12.—Miss Esther Reed and Edward P. Perry, both of Enola, were united in marriage at Hagerstown, Md., on Thursday, May 12, by the Rev. Dr. Conrad Clever.

Princeton to Adopt Outside Coaching For Football Team

Report has it that Robert Cruikshank, the former Washington and Jefferson center, has been engaged to coach the line men of the Princeton squad. Old-timers cannot recall any previous instance of Princeton going beyond its own output for football mentors. Yale still remains among the few which never have depended on others than their own alumni for such instruction, unless Mike Sweeney can be regarded as a football coach, which he hardly is. Captain Ernest Graves, United States Army, visited Cambridge one season and coached the Harvard line men. Penn has had outside coaching, notably George Woodruff, and the Army and Navy have both profited by it.

ROBERT CRUIKSHANK.

State Christian Endeavor interest was manifest at the Keystone League of Christian Endeavor booster denominated national rally held in the Park Street United Evangelical Church last evening.

Representatives from the various United Evangelical churches of this city and vicinity were present. E. S. Schilling, of the Harris Street Church and general chairman, presided.

Devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. J. M. Shoop, pastor United Evangelical Church, Steelton.

The choir of Park Street United Evangelical Church rendered a selection entitled "Break Forth Into Joy."

Prof. John F. Kob, of the general convention committee, spoke on the entertainment work.

The Rev. J. G. Rosenberger, pastor of the Penbrook church, gave an interesting address on "K. L. C. E. Enthusiasm, Why?"

Motive Power Team Wins Game From Sunbury Boys; Easy For Mike Friel's Nine

Harrisburg's Motive Power team of the P. R. R. League had an easy time at Sunbury yesterday, winning by a score of 15 to 3. The locals out-clasped the Sunbury shop men. The score follows:

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Harrisburg	15	11	27	8	2
Sunbury	3	4	14	3	15

	R.	H.	O.	A.	E.
Teetsworth, 2b.	0	0	0	4	0
Henry, cf.	0	0	1	0	0
Steffen, ss.	1	1	1	0	1
Gerdes, 3b.	2	0	2	1	1
Murphy, c.	1	1	1	0	1
Farnsworth, lf.	1	0	2	0	0
Shipe, 1b.	0	1	1	0	0
Raker, rf.	0	0	3	0	0
Salada, p.	0	1	0	0	0

After Baby's Bath Always Use Sykes Comfort POWDER
It Keeps the Skin free from Chafing, Scalding, Soreness.

ORPHEUM TO-NIGHT — LAST TIME
Hbg. Choral Society
MAY MUSICAL FESTIVAL

COLONIAL
To-day and To-morrow
FRANK KEENAN
(Star of "The Coward") and MARY BOWLAND in
"THE STEPPING STONE"

Society drama in which a man considers his wife as only a stepping stone.
CHESTER CONKLIN in
"BUCKING SOCIETY"
Two-reel Keystone Comedy

LANCASTER PLAYS TO-MORROW
Lancaster will be the attraction at Island Park to-day and to-morrow. This is Jimmy Sheekard's team. The Red Roses have been putting up a good article of baseball and promise to give George Cockill's bunch a lively chase. The game to-morrow afternoon will start at 3 o'clock. It is probable there will be a band on hand to enliven the occasion.

Don't Squeeze Blackheads--Dissolve Them
Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation — then, too, after they have become hard you cannot get all of them out. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of powdered borax — sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge — rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds — wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition — anyone troubled with these unsightly blemishes should try this simple method.

AMUSEMENTS
VICTORIA
SEATING CAPACITY 2200
PICTURES ARE BOOKED THROUGH
The Stanley
COMPANY OF PHILA.
HEATHEN, BEBOO,
HOPEFULS UNIT PIPE ORGAN
EQUAL OF 50 PICE ORCHESTRA

To-day Only
HOUSE PICTURES
the incomparable screen artist and portrayer of intense dramatic emotions
"THE CLOSED ROAD" also "PEARL WHITE" in
"THE IRON CLAW"
and
SIS HOPKINS
"AT PINNEY RIDGE"

MAJESTIC
WILMER & VINCENT VAUDEVILLE
MAY 12-13-14-15-16-17-18-19-20-21-22-23-24-25-26-27-28-29-30-31-1916
COOLER THAN THE COUNTRY
VAN & SCHENCK
IN NEW SONGS
Splendid Surrounding Show

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
"SOCIETY BUDS"

REGENT
To-day and To-morrow
Special Attraction
"ONE DAY"
Sequel to Elinor Glyn's famous
"Three Weeks" featuring the famous International Star,
JEANNE IVER
Also Friday,
MUTT & JEFF CARTO