Forest Fires Break Out in Franklin County Hills

Waynesboro, Pa., May 12.—A fierce mountain fire broke out in the vicinity of Tomstown, north of Waynesboro, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and burned until shortly before noon, when it was extinguished by the forest rang-ers from Mont Alto under the leader-ship of Chief Staley. Another fire, of still larger proportions, broke out at White Rock, near Fond Bank, on South Mountain. This fire burned until late at night before it was gotten under control by the forest rangers. Several hundred acres of valuable tim-ber land were burned over, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars. <text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Sandusky, Ohio, May 12.—Subsiding of a high wind probably was all that saved the business district of this city from destruction by fire this morning. Originating in a livery stable, the fire gutted thirteen large stores and a number of smaller establishments. Loss was estimated at $500,000. Fearing that the high wind would drive the flames over the entire busi-ness district, city officials called on Toledo and Elyria for help. However, when the wind suddenly died out, the fire was placed under control by the
