A Group of the New Store's Most Popular Adler-Rochester Models

This advertisement is of particular interest to men who are careful of their personal appearances. They will find here some mighty interesting suggestions pertaining to summer clothes.

It matters little what your requirement or desires may be; you'll find The New Store fairly bristling with brand new ideas in men's clothes.

We've told you before that we feature Adler-Rochester Clothes, but let us tell you WHY it was Adler-Rochester in preference to all other brands. Out of all the wide field of "Ready-to-don" Clothes, The New Store selected Adler-Rochester because we, as specialists in clothes for 25 years, knew them to give the wearer more honest clothing value, dollar for dollar, than clothing of any other brand on the market.

Adler-Rochester Clothes, found only in The New Store of Wm. Strouse, are the sort of clothes men become attached to, not alone because of their exclusive style but because they're built to stand up and deliver real clothes service, day after day, and month after month.
