MAISEL BREAKS COLLARBONE
Special to the Telegraph

Special to the Telegraph

New York, May 16. — Fred Maisel, center fielder of the New York American League Club, sustained a broken collarbone when he fell in chasing Graney's home run in the sixth inning of yesterday's game with the Cleveland team, it was announced by the club to-night, and will be unable to play for a month.

Luther Cook, outfielder, has been released to the Oakland club, of the Pacific Coast League, and Urban Shocker, pitcher to the Toronto Internationals. The club also announced that Charles Mullen, substitute first baseman, and William Piercey, pitcher will be released to minor league clubs in the near future.

Fix these FRAT facts in your mind: (1) New Patterson blend of mild Burley, (2) Half price. Patterson Bros Totalco Coiles

Captain New York National League Club -leading hitter of the National League for the season of 1915 -like all who are prominent for brains and ability, Larry is a staunch believer Demand the genuine by full name-nicknames encourage substitution.

Mack Releases Pitcher; Rube Bressler Under Ban

THE COCA-COLA CO. Atlanta, Ga.

Rube Bressler Under Ban

Philadelphia, Pa., May 16. — Two recruit pitchers aspiring to regular places with the Athletics were released yesterday by Boss Connie Mack. Weaver, a Philadelphia boy, and "Lefty" Ray had their names erased from the roster of the Athletics. Weaver was turned over to the New Haven Club of the Colonial League, while Ray was sent to the Newport News club of the Virginia League, It is rumored that Weldon Wyckoff will be given a few weeks to get into shape to pitch major league ball or he will be traded or sold to one of three clubs anxious to secure his release.

Rube Bressler is another disappointment. Bressler showed grand shape in the training camp but also injured his arm and has not come back. Mack is disappointed in Bressler because he invariably shows wonderful form and control in practice, but as soon as he enters a regular game he goes to pleces. Mack wanted to convert Bressler into outfielder but the southpaw refuses to listen to this proposition and as he is a holder of an "iron clad" contract, nothing can be done.

SUSPENSION FOR WELSH
Milwaukee, Wis., May 16.—Freddie
Welsh, lightweight champion yesterday was suspended by the State Athletic Commission from engaging in boxing contests in Wisconsin for a period of four months, for delaying his recent contest with Ever Hammer, of Chicago, half an hour, and for violating the rule which provides for the filing of contracts with the Commission. The charge that he had used an intoxicant during the bout was not sustained.
