

HARRISBURG HOME FOR TWO GAMES WITH READING--STATE SHOOT STARTS TODAY

RAIN ON CIRCUIT STOPS ALL GAMES

Pennsylvania State League Teams Switch Today; Reading Is Attraction Here

Rain put a cramp in Pennsylvania State League receipts yesterday. No game was played on the circuit. Managers took advantage of the layoff to get in touch with players who are on the market. Harrisburg's youngsters came home yesterday afternoon and were at practice this morning.

George Cockill's crew have Reading to contend with to-day and to-morrow. Both games promise much interest because Hank Ramsey is director general of the Berks county contingent. Due to the fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad Motive Power team plays Pottsville at Island Park Saturday, the games scheduled with hamokin for Friday and Saturday have been transferred to Shamokin. Harrisburg will also play a Sunday game at that place. For Monday and Tuesday of next week Shamokin will be the attraction.

George Therre, captain of the Harrisburg team, has announced that George Therre, the popular catcher, has been made captain of the club. There is a heavy ball player and should make a capable leader.

There is sharing the catching assignment with Arthur Pickering. The newly appointed captain will direct the play for the side lines when not in the game. Manager Ramsey is anxiously waiting for the arrival of another outfielder. He released Beach. Ramsey has lined out for another hard-hitting outfielder.

STATE SHOOT OPENS TODAY; HARRISBURG SHOOTERS ENTER

Championship Events on Tomorrow's Program; Annual Meeting Promises an Interesting Session

Harrisburg and West Fairview shooters left to-day for Lansdale where they are entered in the annual shoot of the Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association which starts to-day. The program will continue until Saturday and includes a special event for women.

The local shooters include John G. Martin, president of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association; Lockwood B. Worden, H. B. Shoop, D. L. Herrold, W. E. Hoover, S. E. John L. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hatfield, M. B. Steward, David Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer, W. A. Miller, W. P. Wise, W. H. Wilson.

Championships To-morrow
The events to-day were optional sweeps at 100 target events.

The shoot officially starts to-morrow, when the event will be for the Citizens' Club trophy, of Lansdale, to be shot at 75 targets. There will be optional sweeps in five events at 100 targets. The open trophy event will also be shot to-morrow, when the $100 silver loving cup, to be kept in the possession of the winner for a year, will be awarded. This cup was won in 1913 by E. N. Gillespie; in 1914, by C. H. Newcomb, and in 1915 by Walter S. Behm.

On Friday the big event will be the State championship trophy to be won by the Pennsylvania amateur State championship trophy and a solid gold medal. An innovation on Friday will be the women's State championship event. The president's trophy, donated by J. S. Speer, of St. Mary's, Pa., president of the Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association, will also be awarded on Friday for high gun at 75 targets. Saturday will probably see the largest number of entries. This is a handicap event, shot at 100 targets, for which there are 93 prizes, valued at $1,200. Also on Saturday the Lansdale hotel men's trophy event will be shot. During the tournament other trophy events will be worked into the schedule.

A two-man team race will be shot and also a doubles event. There will be a three-man team event, four-man team event, and added money events. During the tournament the "Wildcat" trap will be in operation, the prize to be the A. E. Landis trophy.

The annual meeting of the State Association starts to-morrow. There will be several contenders for the 1917 tournament. The eastern Pennsylvania Trapshooters League will put in a bid, as will the Red Lion Gun Club and the Bradford Gun Club. If the practice of altering the shoot between the eastern and western part of the State is adhered to, the Red Lion Club will withdraw in favor of Bradford and ask the delegates to bear them in mind for the 1918 shoot. If the 1917 shoot is to be awarded to the club that can secure the greatest number of votes, then the Red Lion Club is going out for the honors. The first tournament was held in Williamsport in 1891; the second in Reading in 1892, and then followed in order: Easton, Harrisburg, Altoona, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Oil City, Reading, Erie, Chambersburg, Allentown, Oil City, Philadelphia, York, Pittsburgh, Milton, Lebanon, Bradford, Reading, Philadelphia, Duncannon, Sunbury, Scyllingrove, York, Pittsburgh, Milton and Lansdale.

WELLY'S CORNER

The Pennsylvania State League booster army is growing. The season is a week old to-day and in every game agreeable surprises have been in order. Baseball fans in Harrisburg who are spoiled with their international treat last season have been slow in showing enthusiasm, but prospects are brightening up each day.

The Atlantic League had its first payday yesterday. Reports say that Reading players received their money. As the limit in that organization is only $1,000, Lawson did not have much to pay out. The Pennsylvania State League paydays start to-day. There are five paydays coming to the players. Paydays will be on the 1st and 15th of each month.

In making repairs to the bleachers at Municipal Field, City Commissioner E. Z. Gross is receiving hearty approval from all members of the Harrisburg Track Athletic Committee. New railings will be erected at the top and along the sides. These bleachers have been up for seven years and the general opinion prevails that the repairs are timely. V. Grant Forrer, assistant superintendent of parks, is the man who has charge of the work, and he promises everything in shape for Saturday's big meet.

Harrisburg shooters will line up at Lansdale to-day. The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association will be held to-morrow night. There will be many bids for the shoot next year. Harrisburg is said to be favored because of the excellent train facilities to and from the city.

Not since 1892, when C. E. H. Breisford won the State championship, has a Harrisburg shooter led in State honors. This year there will be strong contenders in J. G. Martin, Lockwood B. Worden and D. A. Herrold.

In accordance with his announcement yesterday, Charles W. Boyer, of the Blue Ridge League, resigned. J. Vincent Jamison, Jr., of Hagerstown, was elected to the position and started his duties to-day. The new official is said to be an able baseball man.

Eight assistant coaches were appointed yesterday to look after Princeton's 1916 football team. The new officials have distinguished themselves on the gridiron and include Philip King, '93, who played four years on both the baseball and football teams, Arthur R. T. Hillebrand, '06, one of the best tackle players who ever came to Princeton; Sanford E. White, '12, famous for his runs against Yale and Harvard; Thomas R. Wilson, '13, a player of brilliant ability; Arthur Blueenthal, '13, center for three years; Harold Ballin, '15, captain two seasons ago; Ed Shea, a senior, now at Princeton, and end on last year's team, and E. E. Craikshank, former Washington and Jefferson star, who is now at Princeton Seminary. These men will each be assigned a certain position, and will be under the direction of Head Coach Rush.

Herbert Barnett, manager of the Royaltan A. C. team, is making up a strong schedule. He wants a game for Saturday and can be reached through the Middletown post office. Managers desiring a game should write Manager Barnett at once, stating their guarantees. Royaltan is a good baseball town and is well equipped for the game, having good grounds and a strong team.

President William R. Douglass is anxiously awaiting the arrival of protection papers. It is said that Abraham Rosenbluth, of Reading, is causing the delay. Baseball fans are of the opinion that there have been some folks who were responsible for certain obstacles encountered by the State organization and would like to see some action taken to prevent any future trouble.

The Reading State and Atlantic league teams will battle for supremacy on Friday, when both teams have home games. There is some strong publicity in order at Reading and the largest crowd will indicate the popular team.

Wertz and Bricker, of the York team, will return to Dauphin on Saturday and play the season out in the Dauphin-Perry League. Both are good men.

Managers of amateur and semi-professional baseball teams are requested to send full box scores to the office of the Telegraph immediately after the games. Have scores in not later than 6:30 p. m.

Francis Ouimet Can Play With Woodland Golf Club

Special to the Telegraph
Boston, May 17.—The Woodland Golf Club will not comply with the order of the United States Golf Association to remove the names of Francis Ouimet, J. H. Sullivan, Jr., and Paul Tewksbury from the handicap list of the Massachusetts Golf Association, it was announced yesterday. In thus taking issue with the national body on its recent ruling that these players were ineligible to compete as amateurs because of their business activities the club takes the ground that the United States Association has no jurisdiction over the lists of State organizations.

Whether the club will question the national body's ruling as it affects the players' ineligibility to compete in the national amateur championship has not been determined, according to President L. B. Folsom, of the Woodland Club. "The matter is still open," he said. "We may carry it further."

Academy Graduate Helps Yale to Defeat Harvard

In the recent dual track meet between the Freshmen of Yale and Harvard Universities at New Haven, it was the Yale youngsters who gained the championship of the "big three" universities by defeating the Harvard Freshmen 55 to 48 1/2. A. H. Stackpole, a graduate of the Harrisburg Academy, ran a good race in the 440 distance, coming in a close third in a crowded field. T. C. Rodman, the Yale Freshman captain, established a precedent that will be hard for succeeding captains to follow in that he took first place in the high and low hurdles, the high jump and shotput.
