BRUMBAUGH AND PENROSE LEADING

Returned from 4,787 districts out of 6,891 in the State for Republican delegates-at-large give:

Brumbaugh 145,611. Oliver 120,351. Penrose 139,207. Smith 122,095. Returns from 5,478 districts out of 6,891 in the State for Republican Auditor General give: Ambler 165,101. Snyder 182,489. Returns from 4,460 districts out of 6,891 in the State for Republican Congress-at-large give: Lafean 108,547. McLaughlin 119,765. Sobel 120,871. Scott 139,250. Returns from 4,214 districts out of 6,891 in the State for national committee-man give: Liebel 35,701. Palmer 33,816. The foregoing figures include all of the Philadelphia and most of Allegheny county.

No definite information could be obtained this afternoon regarding the result in the Seventeenth district, composed of Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Union, Snyder, Franklin, Fulton and Huntingdon counties, but Brumbaugh people were not inclined to be hopeful. The Penrose people openly claimed it.

Penrose men gave the Governor only one in the York-Adams district and declared that he would have but one in the Bedford-Blair-Cambria district, but the Brumbaugh men said that both Stouch and Tobias were pledged.

Secretary of Agriculture Patton was complimented on landing one delegate in the fact of the hard fight in the 21st. He is unopposed.

Snyder on Ticket Twice. Not only has Senator Charles A. Snyder announced his resignation from the nomination for Auditor General, but he is also nominee for State Senator in Schuylkill county. Ex-Senator Frank E. Baldwin, of Potter county, appears to be the favorite in the contest for Republican nomination again.

Edward E. Jones, chairman of the roads committee in the last four legislatures, is the successful Republican nominee for the State Senate in his district. Word came to-day that he has defeated Senator Charles E. Mills, of Bradford county. Jones carried Susquehanna, his home county, by 800.

Dispatch from Washington states Congressman Gries and his colleague of the Lancaster district will vote at Chicago first for Governor Brumbaugh and then for Justice Hughes. The same dispatch says "Justice Hughes' position was strengthened to-day by a dispatch from Ex-Governor Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, a strong Roosevelt man, saying that he proposes to vote for Hughes. Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, has informed his friends of his belief that it would be a mistake for the Republicans to defeat Hughes. Ex-Senator Crane, who is one of the big four delegates from Massachusetts, is also quoted as for Hughes."

T. Larry Eyre, former Superintendent of the State Prison, is the Republican nominee for State Senator in the Chester district.

Ex-Insurance Commissioner Charles Johnson, who resigned at the beginning of the year, is reported to have been nominated for the Penrose slate.

John M. Rose, a former mayor of House, is the successful Republican candidate for Congress in the Blair-Bedford-Cambria district.

Perhaps the greatest of all the surprises in the latest returns is the re-eclection Penrose lead in Allegheny county, where the Governor is close up to the Senator.
