

Graduation Presents For the Girl —AND— For the Boy

If you were to ask the girl about to graduate to make a list of the presents she would like best as commencement gifts, in the order of her preference, the list no doubt would be about as follows:

1st, Diamond Ring; 2nd, Watch; 3rd, Wrist Watch; 4th, La-Valliere; 5th, Bracelet; 6th, Pearl Beads or Neck Chain, etc.

If you were to ask the young man about to graduate to express his preferences in the same way, nine times out of ten the list would be about as follows.

1st, Diamond Ring; 2nd, Watch; 3rd, Scarf Pin; 4th, Cuff Links; 5th, Watch Chain or Fob; 6th, Fraternity Pin, etc.

Their preferences would naturally be for some article that could be worn a lifetime, as a memento of this—one of the greatest events in their lives, rather than for something that would soon wear out or go out of style.

GRADUATION AT ACADEMY JUNE 1

Mercer B. Tate, Jr., and George S. Jeffers Win Highest Scholastic Honors

One week from to-night the class of 1916, of the Harrisburg Academy will begin the festivities which mark the close of the school year preparatory to their departure as full-fledged alumni with sheepskins tucked away in their little cylindrical holders and faces turned toward the halls of institutions of higher learning.

Scholastic supremacy during the year has marked out Mercer B. Tate, Jr., and George S. Jeffers as valedictorian and salutatorian respectively. Both have been active in all things which have pertained to the building of Academy prestige and both are well deserving of the honor to which they have attained.

Friday evening at the Colonial Country Club the class dinner will be held. Saturday evening on the campus the Ben Greet players will present "The Taming of the Shrew," and on Sunday evening, in Pine Street Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Lewis S. Mudge, D. D., will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class. Tuesday evening, May 30, the commencement dance will be given in the academy gymnasium and on Wednesday morning the class day program will be carried out on the campus. That evening a reception to the class of 1916 will be given at Headmaster Brown's home by the faculty and trustees, and the following day at 10 a. m. the commencement exercises will be held in the Orpheum theater.

The attention of friends and patrons of the Academy is called to the fact that they are cordially invited to all the exercises that will be held at the Academy, as no special invitations will be issued this year to those in the city.

"The Taming of the Shrew"

The coming of the Ben Greet players with a large cast on Saturday evening, May 27, promises a treat in their performance of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." The company is under the management of L. M. Goodstadt and will play at Carlisle, Mercersburg, and other nearby points in the near future. The play will be given on the campus unless inclement weather prevails, when it will be given in the Technical High school auditorium. Tickets at 50 cents and 75 cents and $1 will be on sale Monday morning at Gorgas' drug store.

PENROSE SAYS FRIENDS ARE IN CONTROL

side. He will be at Williamsport tonight.

"I am satisfied that my friends will be the majority in the State delegation," said the Senator when asked about the result of the election.

"That is all I have to say now." The Senator was called upon while here by Senator E. E. Beidleman and other Dauphin county leaders and appeared to be very sure of what he said about the delegation.

Penrose Men Make High Claim

Friends of the Senator claim that he will have over fifty men with him in the various business matters which will come before the delegation at Chicago. Some are claiming that there will be sixty men who will act together in the convention. They point out that the Brumbaugh people are claiming that men who agreed to support the popular choice for President will be with the Governor's faction in everything and that the Governor's advisors do not realize that all the pledge amounts to is a promise to vote on President as long as the delegate sees fit.

There is nothing binding a delegate elected with a pledge to support the popular choice for President to vote against Senator Penrose for chairman of the delegation or to act with him and his friends in convention and delegation matters.

Penna. at Chicago

Penrose men point to the fact that Pennsylvania has an opportunity to be the biggest factor in the national convention. Assuming that there are sixty men who will be with the Senator on all matters aside from compulsory votes on the first ballot for the Governor this will be a force which will have to be reckoned with in the most important convention in many years. New York's delegation is all split up. Massachusetts has only about thirty standing together.

The belief of the Penrose adherents is that when the delegation's composition is finally determined the Senator will have a big majority. They grant that there will be some men who were not elected on a pledged basis who will feel like giving the Governor a complimentary vote, but they say that there is no doubt of the election of the Senator as chairman of the delegation as "the logical thing to do," that the bulk of the delegates

Ottawa, May 19.—Col. Christiana, Norway, May 19.—The government is considering a bill for compulsory arbitration in order to avert the lockout which the Employers' Association has announced will be put into effect June 3 against all union workmen.

Philadelphia Claims

Penrose men in Philadelphia were not a bit disconcerted by the abrupt drop in the Penrose majority in Allegheny county and this morning claimed that between 52 and 60 delegates would be favorable to the policies of the Senator. They said that Senator Snyder would be nominated by from 30,000 to 40,000 majority and that John R. K. Scott had been renominated for Congressman-at-large.

State Committee to Meet

Whether the election of Republican State committeemen is certified by the Secretary of the Commonwealth or not by the last day of the month there will be a meeting of the State committee to organize. This was done two years ago when returns of election of a number of committeemen had not been received. Penrose is admitted to have a clear majority on the committee and if the committee is called he will be elected national committeeman, succeeding Henry G. Wasson, and his friends say he will be reelected.

The Brumbaugh Side

"Oh, they're claiming men who were not even elected. We are going to stand on our claim of 44 at least which we made last night," said Paul N. Furman, one of the general staff of the Brumbaugh headquarters.

Let them claim. We've got 44 out of the 76 now," answered Furman.

"Does your claim mean that the 44 will be with the Governor on everything, Presidential vote, organization of the delegation and all that?" "Sure. They are with us and they

Results Up in the Air

As has occurred before under the present primary law it is going to be days before the results are officially known. All over the State counties are shy some districts and with the knowledge that only time will tell men have settled down to await results on the delegates-at-large.

Newsletters Divided

Newspapers which have been making efforts to get lines on the delegate election have curiously divergent articles. The Philadelphia Public Ledger says that there is "no doubt but that the control of the delegates from Penn-

are going to stay."

The Brumbaugh headquarters staff, however, has not given out the names of the delegates claimed and is engaged in shooting holes in lists claimed by the Penrose forces.

The Supreme Court

Although late returns show a mounting vote for Charles Palmer, the Chester lawyer, who ran against Justice E. A. Walling, of the Supreme Court, it is not believed here that Palmer will be nominated. Walling is well known in counties to be heard from and his friends say that he will be found to be a winner.

Justice Walling's friends made no effort in his behalf. No one looked for Palmer, who has run as a filler-up of Prohibition tickets for years, and who fell outside the breasted works in the Superior Court fight last year, to make any kind of a showing. There is something in being first on the ballot after all.

Renewing Acquaintances

Over forty years ago my father, the late Emanuel Stern, started a small shoe store in the old Motter Building on Market street. Continuously from that time, up until now, Stern's have served the shoe-buying public of Harrisburg conscientiously and well. To-morrow I am going to open my newest shoe store at 209 Walnut Street.

I have gathered together the greatest lot of "corking good" shoes, that have ever been shown in Harrisburg, which I will sell at popular prices.

I want every man, woman and child I have ever served in any shoe store to come in here to-morrow and tell me they like my store and they wish me success.

I have the goods.
