The Lassitude of Spring is another name for the lazy liver—a liver that is weary of the work of eliminating all the accumulated poisons of a heavy Winter diet. Health and strength in the Spring come from a return to simple, nutritious, easily digested foods. The food that puts you on your feet and brings bounding buoyancy to the jaded muscles and worn-out nerves is Shredded Wheat Biscuit—a whole wheat food that builds new tissue and keeps the bowels healthy and active. Eat it with berries, or other fresh fries for a few days and see

Dr. Frank B. Kann Home From Anniversary Trip

Dr. Frank B. Kann and family and a party of friends returned last evening from an automobile trip through the Pocono Mountains, Delaware Water Gap, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, made for the purpose of attending the State Osteopathic convention in Scranton and in celeptation of Dr. Kann's fifteenth anniversary as a practicing physician, which occurred last Friday. In the parity were Mrs. Kann and Herbert and Lucile Kann. The trip was pleasant all the way and the roads generally good. Dr. Kann made the trip from Wilkes-Barre to Harrisburg yesterday between 3 in the afternoon and 10:30 at night. Dr. Kann made a report to the convention as a member of the Legislative Committee. He is also a member of the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of Pennsylvania. He was graduated from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy in 1901, and later took post-graduate work at Kirksville, Mo. Last summer he took a special course of study under Dr. Edwards, osteopathic specialist, of St. Louis for the treatment of nasal catarrh and catarrhal deafness. He is a member of the Harrisburg Rotary Club. On the reception committee of the State convention was also Dr. L. Guy Baugher of this city.
