FARMING WILL BE UP FOR DEFINING

Compensation Board Will Not Undertake to Decide What Is Agriculture

Pennsylvania courts will have to settle the question of what is the definition of agriculture in the eyes of the law as the result of the action of the State Compensation Board and the officials of the State Grange.

The compensation board has a domestic service from its provisions and last fall the State Grange brought up the question of what should be considered farming. The board ruled that dairying, horticulture and some other specialized lines could hardly be considered farming, but the Grange officials desired still further rulings and in order to get the matter settled once for all the board rescinded the former ruling and decided to let a test case be put up to the courts.

The big question which must be settled is whether an employe of a farmer when engaged in casual employment in the course of work on the farm could be considered as entitled to compensation. In other words, the whole question of what is farming is to be passed upon.

To Test New Act.—Steps are being considered to get the test of the new act in equity will be filed in an early day. The attorneys in the case will have a conference in a short time and it is probable that an answer to the bill in equity will be filed by the Attorney General's department next month. Argument will be made before the summer vacation. The act will affect many thousands of dollars.

To Close Case.—The Public Service Commission plans to close up the controversy over the use of conduits between the city of Philadelphia and one having the Philadelphia electric and Keystone telephone companies on the other. The final hearing is set for Thursday.

Arrest Paroled Prisoner.—Chief of Police H. P. Longaker early this morning arrested "Josh" Stewart, a paroled prisoner from the Eastern Penitentiary, wanted by the Middletown police to answer a charge of stealing clothes and other articles from Christian S. Bones.

To Plan Celebration.—Committees from fire companies, secret and municipal organizations and foreign organizations will meet this evening at the office of the Harrisburg Light and Power Company, North Front street, to formulate plans for a "Stay-at-Home Independence Day celebration for Steelton July 4."

W. C. T. U. to Meet.—The W. C. T. U. will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Stoub, 411 Pine street. Mrs. H. F. Holsopple will lead.

Child Dies.—Funeral services for a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Bard Feldman, 442 South Tenth street, Harrisburg, were held this morning. Burial was made in Mt. Calvary cemetery. Death was due to pneumonia contracted during a case of measles.

Plan Benefit Dance.—Arrangements have been completed for a dance to be given this evening in German hall, Front and Washington streets, for the benefit of St. John's Catholic church.

To Attend Booster Meeting.—Steelton Council, 162, Independent Order of Americans, attending a booster meeting to be held to-morrow evening by the New Cumberland council, will meet at Front and Locust streets at 7:30 o'clock.

Auto Runs Down Three.—Three Steelton people were injured when a rapidly moving automobile ran them down as they alighted from a trolley car at Highspire last evening. Mrs. Reba Harris sustained minor bruises and severe shock. Clara Shaffner, aged 7, bruises about the head, and her father, John Shaffner, sustained severe bruises and lacerations on the right leg. The man was treated at the Harrisburg Hospital and the others were taken to their homes. Mr. Shaffner declares that no warning was sounded by the approaching automobile.

From Slavery to Chair of University President

THE REV. W. W. BECKETT

From bondage to the president's chair of a noted university is the story of the Rev. W. W. Beckett, of Charleston, S. C., who was elected president of the bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church at the quadrennial conference in Bethel Church, Philadelphia, on Saturday.

Bishop Beckett was selected with the Rev. I. N. Ross, Baltimore, following an exciting battle of the ballots. Thirty candidates had entered the fight. General officers of the church were elected to-day and other business on the program was hurried to conclusion so that adjournment may be possible to-morrow.

Bishop Beckett was born in slavery, but soon after his release he worked night and day to obtain an education in the public schools. Step by step the negro prepared himself for college and the story of his fight for his chance as a leader of the negro race was told when he was chosen to fill the chair of the president of Allen University, one of the leading colored institutions in South Carolina.

Governor to Go With Delegates

Pennsylvania's delegation to the Chicago convention will in all probability be united as far as train and hotel accommodations go however many the men who make up the seventy-six may differ on political matters. Governor Brumbaugh will join the special train to Chicago, if one is run this State, and will probably have rooms with the rest of the delegation in the Congress Hotel, which is to be the headquarters.

While no announcement has been made to this effect, it is understood, no matter what may be the outcome of the contest for majority of the delegates, will be with the delegation.

Brumbaugh headquarters to-day held to its claim of forty-four delegates who will be with the Governor in everything although the names were announced. Among the Governor's friends there is insistence that the Governor will have a majority, but the official count is being awaited with concealed eagerness.

The Governor came back to the city to-day, but spent the day working at the Executive Mansion. He will be here most of the week.

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 625 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

SHOOTING ENDS QUARREL OVER GIRL

latter. Pifer finally landed with his right on his rival's eyes. MacCargo pulled a 44-caliber revolver and let his antagonist have it. He pulled the trigger a second time, but the gun failed to go off. Before he could pull it again Pifer wrenched the gun from MacCargo and fell over in the grass plot at Cowden and State streets, unconscious.

Neighbors carried Pifer to his home in South alley and Lester King, driver of the Mt. Vernon Hook and Ladder truck notified the police at once.

In the meantime MacCargo, known in the ward as "Driver," had taken a banjo which he carried with him to his home. Shortly afterward the police started in pursuit of the gunman and he was arrested in North Seventh street near his home.

At headquarters MacCargo admitted that he had shot Pifer and said that he intended to kill the man because Pifer had started the fight.

MacCargo in his confession said that he had shot Pifer because he had been drinking a quart of whisky during the morning before the fight. When searched a number of 44 and 38-caliber cartridges were found on him. Shortly after MacCargo was arrested a number of colored residents in the ward were brought to headquarters by the police and questioned but were released because they had not seen the fight.
