CHURCH CENTENNIAL ENDS Blain, Pa., May 23. — The Zion Lutheran Church centennial anniversary celebration was concluded on Sunday evening, Friday evening an auto trip was taken by ministers and others to churches of the Blain and Ickesburg charges and a stop was made at Tressler's Orphans' Home at Loysville and a visit to the grave at Keim.

At the services on Friday evening the Rev. R. T. Vorberg, of Marietta, O., and the Rev. J. W. Keener, Blain Reformed minister, delivered addresses. On Saturday morning the Rev. J. C. Reighard, present pastor of the Blain Church, gave an interesting history of Blain Zion Lutheran Church. The Rev. Robert Heim, a recent graduate of Gettysburg Seminary, spoke on the "Reminiscences of His Grandfather" (John William Heim, a pioneer preacher of Mifflin

Junata and Perry counties 100 years ago.)

Funeral Services Held For Walter R. Miller

Funeral services for Walter R. Miller, who died Friday, were held at the home of his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. C. R. Miller, in Wormleysburg this afternoon. The Rev. S. E. Vance, pastor of the Wormleysburg Church of God, of which Mr. Miller was a member, and the Rev. A. P. Stover, of Carlisle, a former pastor of the Wormleysburg charge, and the Rev. George B. Renshaw officiated. Burial was made in the Camp Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Arthur Miller, Parker Miller, Paul Kister, Roderick Bruce, Frank Nonemaker and John Musser.

ENGINE PLANT CLOSES

Waynesboro, Pa., May 23. — The last carload of equipment has been shipped from the Quincy Engine Plant to Chambersburg, and the doors and windows of the shops were nailed up yesterday until such time as the company may dispose of them.

FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE

Waynesboro, Pa., May 23. — Thomas W. Haldeman, aged 55, an Antrim township farmer, worth about $50,000 who recently moved from Greencastle committed suicide by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun.

A TREE THAT IS ALMOST AN ORCHARD

In Farm and Fireside is an account of a California fig tree whose annual crop at retail prices would average one hundred dollars. The tree is of the Mission variety. It was planted thirty years ago, is 46 feet tall and has a spread of limbs reaching 54 feet. It bears a ton or more of figs every year.

Bringing Up Father By McManus

HOW DO YOU DO - MR JIGGS -

I UNDERSTAND YOU AND MR. AVATER ARE NOT SPEAKING.

THAT'S TRUE - HE'S A VERY RUDE MAN -

HE SAID - YOU GOT ANGRY BECAUSE HE PUT HIS ARM AROUND YOUR WAIST -

HE DID NOT - HE TRIED TO!

I BEG YOUR PARDON -

SIR!

I MEAN - HE TRIED TO!!
